Engagement

Mrs. Susie F. Smith and G. M. Smith of this city have announced the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Smith, to Pvt. Howard D. Hulsizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hulsizer of Williamsport, Pa.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Klamath Union high school of the class of 1945, and is now employed at the Big Lakes Box company.

Pvt. Hulsizer was formerly stationed at the Marine Barracks here and is now stationed in Pennsylvania. He was at the barracks for 11 months. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Lois Loosley Weds In Los Angeles

FORT KLAMATH—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley of Fort Klamath announce the marriage of their daughter, Lois, to Sgt. Olaf C. Carpenter, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carpenter, 6152 Summers lane, Klamath Falls.

The wedding was an event of July 17 at the Church of the Open Door in Los Angeles. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Frank E. Lindgren.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Maxine Loosley, who acted as maid of honor. The best man was PFC Vernon Schwartz, USMC.

For her wedding the bride wore a street length gown of white with matching hat and accessories. The maid of honor was attired in blue. Both wore shoulder corsages and the bride carried a beautiful bouquet.

Mrs. Carpenter is a graduate of the Oregon College of Education where she was outstanding in campus affairs, including "Staff and Key," Crimson O dramatics club, Phi Beta Sigma honor society, and in her senior year was editor of Lamron, the college paper. She taught in a North Bend, Ore., school last year and plans to continue with her teaching work this fall.

Sgt. Carpenter entered the United States marine corps in January, 1942, when he was assigned to the marine engineers. He has spent 32 months in the South Pacific theater of war, having participated in several major campaigns, including those on Guam and Iwo Jima. He returned to the United States in June of this year for a 30-day furlough.

Following their marriage, the young couple enjoyed a honeymoon at Vernon's Mt. Baldy lodge in the Sierra Nevada mountains, after which time Sgt. Carpenter reported back to his base in San Diego for further orders. Mrs. Carpenter accompanied him to San Diego.

A RECENT BRIDE is Lois Loosley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley of Fort Klamath, who became the bride of Sgt. Olaf Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carpenter of this city.

Farewells Said To Erdmann Family

Farewells were said this week to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy L. Erdmann and son Jimmy who left Thursday to make their home in Eugene. Mr. Erdmann will take over his duties as director of the Eugene Vocational school in the university city.

Numerous affairs have been given in honor of the Erdmanns for the past two weeks before they left. They have made their home here for the past 17 years and have made many friends in Klamath Falls.

They have sold their home at 2012 Main and have purchased a new home in Eugene at 1869 Hilyard.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Erdmann have taught in the city schools.

Sam and Ingram Montgomery gave a party for Jimmy Erdmann this last week and a group of his friends were invited. The boys enjoyed an afternoon at the park with refreshments served later.

Guests were Gary Ray of Sprague River, Randall Binkley, Billy Liggett, Jimmy Peak, Charles Rice, Don Crane, Richard Hilton, Charles Boettiger, Jimmy Erdmann, and Sam and Ingram Montgomery.

Ann Carstenson, employed as a stenographer for the alcohol tax division of the treasury department in Reno, is spending a 10-day vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carstenson, of Lakeshore drive. Before coming to Klamath Falls, she spent several days visiting friends in Alturas where she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp.

Sunday Picnic

More than 50 members and guests assembled at Moore park on Sunday, July 22, for the Townsden club's annual picnic which was served at 1 o'clock. After lunch, cards were played for an hour and then all gathered on the lawn for games and races.

The girls' race was won by Norma Douglas and Joyce Webster. In the boys' race, Mitchell Barnes and Edward McCracken won. Winners in the ladies' race were Elsie Anderson and Daisy Douglas and among the men, prizes were won by George Randall and Don Ray.

Wed In Denver

Friends will be interested to hear of the wedding last week in Denver of Edna Renner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Renner, and Bud Petersteiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Petersteiner. Both are popular members of the younger set here.

Bud is a member of the army air corps and the couple is expected home soon, bringing details of the wedding.

Rebekahs

Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in regular session in the IOOF hall Thursday, July 19, at 8 p. m., with all officers in their chairs. Following lodge, refreshments were served by Mary Curtis and Arlo Andrus of the social club. At the next meeting, August 2, a class of candidates will be initiated.

Mrs. Joe Peak has returned to her home at 1945 Huron after spending the last three weeks in Portland.

VISITING IN OREGON for the summer are Mrs. Joseph Armstrong and two children, Ruth Mary and Harry from Glen Rock, New Jersey. Mrs. Armstrong is a sister of Harvey Teale of Auburn street and they are making their stay with the Teales for part of the summer.

Several parties have been given for the Armstrongs and they have also spent some time at Lake o' the Woods.

Mrs. Armstrong is a former Oregon girl and this is her first visit to the state for nearly 17 years.

Kaspers Leave For California Tuesday

Commander and Mrs. S. T. Kasper were told goodbye this week before they left Tuesday for Camp Shoemaker near Oakland, where Cmdr. Kasper will assume his new duties. He has been the senior dental officer at the Marine Barracks since the barracks installation was opened over a year ago.

The Kaspers have made many friends while making their home here. Late in June they returned from New York where they had gone on a 15-day leave and immediately a round of parties honored the couple before their departure.

In June, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hagelstein entertained with cocktails and supper at the Martin home on Pacific Terrace in honor of the Kaspers. It was also on the occasion of Mrs. Kasper's birthday.

Early in July, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams invited 12 guests for cocktails and dinner at Cal-Ore and a few days later, Lt. and Mrs. Andrew Ginochio entertained with dinner at their home on Laguna. Lt. and Mrs. Earl Dornheim also entertained at dinner at their home on Jackson.

On July 18, Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. John Houson were hostesses at tea for Mrs. Kasper and Mrs. Ted Medford on the lawn of the Thompson home on Pacific Terrace.

Seventy-five officers and their wives were entertained with cocktails and dinner at the Marine Barracks bachelor officers quarters on July 19 in honor of the Kaspers.

On July 20, Mrs. Ed Geary and Mrs. Martha Geary honored Mrs. Kasper when they invited 14 for lunch at the Geary ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray entertained the Kaspers at dinner at Cal-Ore on July 22, and on July 23, Mrs. B. Dubel and Mrs. I. R. Lisbony invited 12 guests for a buffet supper at 2036 LeRoy.

Reames Women

About fifty women enjoyed the bright warm weather Friday morning at the Reames Golf and Country club when they gathered for golf in the morning and bridge in the afternoon.

A farewell gift was presented by the group to Mrs. Ted Medford, who is leaving next week to make her home in Salem.

Four tables of bridge were in play and Mrs. E. M. Raymond won the prize for the day. A paper sack lunch was enjoyed at noon.

Service Wives

The Servicemen's Wives club met Thursday evening to make decorations for the Waves anniversary dinner Monday night at the USO clubrooms.

Service wives will serve that evening and anyone interested in helping is asked to call Mrs. J. L. Thompson at 3553.

Hostesses for the evening were Charles E. Dennis and Mrs. D. R. Post.

The Garden club will meet on Monday, August 6, at 2 o'clock in the library club rooms. A feature of the meeting will be a weed and stick show and also a victory garden surplus display and exchange. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. K. G. Cummings and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck.

Anniversary

The navy's Waves will be entertained on the occasion of their third anniversary Monday at the USO clubrooms when a special dinner will be given in their honor and they will be guests at the regular Monday night dance afterward.

Personal invitations were sent to each Wave at the Klamath naval air station and it is expected that about 50 will attend the celebration.

Entertainment during the meal is being planned and there will be favors at each place. Serving will be junior and senior hostesses and members of the Service Wives club.

Music for the dance afterward will be furnished by the Chicagoans, a group made up of musicians from Camp Tulelake and the Marine Barracks. Decorations will be in a nautical theme.

IMOGENE ROWAN, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Rowan, and Pvt. Eugene V. Smith of Camp Tule Lake, were married in a ceremony in the Tulelake Presbyterian church on July 14.

HOME TOGETHER recently was the Oscar DeNoult family when Staff Sgt. DeNoult was on furlough from army duty. He is now stationed in San Bernardino, Calif. Mrs. DeNoult and son Jerry live at 1415 Oregon avenue.
