

Exhibits And Tea Planned For August

MERRILL — Plans for the silver tea, fall flower show and war trophy exhibit to be sponsored by the Lost River Garden club were completed when the club met Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. J. R. Blatch. The affair, which will be open to the public beginning at 2 p. m. in the high school auditorium, is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, August 19.

Flower growers from the entire basin are invited to enter exhibits and anyone having war trophies is also invited to display them.

At the Tuesday meeting, J. R. McCambridge, assistant Klamath county agriculture agent, spoke on "Control of Garden Pests."

Mrs. Blatch distributed hand-made programs for the remainder of the year, and appreciation goes to the assistants, Mrs. E. T. Crawford and Mrs. W. J. Cox, for the art work to Mrs. Lillian Thomason and to the program committee, Mrs. T. O. Wheeler, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. Scott McKendree, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Mrs. J. R. Blatch, Mrs. A. J. King and Patricia Herman.

A special meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Bailey on August 14 when members will be instructed in flower arrangement by Mrs. Scott McKendree and Mrs. W. J. Cox. Mr. Greene of Greene's gardens, Klamath Falls, will conduct a question box. Members are asked to bring flowers and containers for the lesson.

The instructions and schedule for the flower show follow:

Exhibitors must furnish their own containers and make their own arrangements.

Entries must be in by 12:30 p. m.

Any accessories may be used. Judging—by popular vote.

Schedule

Indian Summer. First Flag—(any patriotic arrangement).

Gay Nineties—Tussy mummies or arrangements in the Victorian manner.

First Thanksgiving—featuring fruits, vegetables, or feathers, etc. in use in colonial days.

Modernistic era.

Economy—(commonplace containers using leaves, weeds, grasses, etc.)

The Gold Rush—(arrangements in tones of yellow).

Aloha—featuring leis, coconut shells, sea shells, flower pictures, etc.

South of the Border—suggestive of Mexican, Central American, or South American influence.

Peace—all white arrangement.

Our Allies—arrangements in containers of any of the allied countries.

There will be a short musical program at 2:30 p. m., details of which will be announced in the newspaper.

Receipts from the silver tea will be used to further the "Seeds for Overseas" project, sponsored by the club for the purpose of satisfying the craving for fresh vegetables experienced by every serviceman in the Pacific.

Mrs. Hugh O'Connor is chairman.

Friendly Circle

Thursday, July 19, the Friendly circle met for a potluck picnic on the lawn at the home of Mrs. W. C. Little, 2444 Orchard way, with their husbands and families as guests. Fifteen attended. There was no Red Cross sewing. The meeting on August 2 will also be at the little home, with Mrs. John Marin as hostess.

Women Of Moose

Women of the Moose met at the hall Friday, July 20, for a potluck luncheon at 12:30 under the sponsorship of the homemaking committee, with Laura Brumble, chairman, in charge of arrangements. This was followed at 2 p. m. by a card party, with eight tables of pinocle in play.

Mobile X-Ray Unit For Sprague River

The mobile chest X-ray unit, which stopped in Bly on Friday, will move to Sprague River Saturday to take free chest X-rays for any person interested.

The unit will be parked next to the Bly Logging company at Sprague River in the afternoon and evening in order that all men working during the day will have an opportunity to have the pictures taken.

The unit is financed by the Oregon Tuberculosis association and sponsored in the county by the Klamath County Public Health association.

The unit will be in Malin on July 30.

Games and contests were enjoyed by the youngsters followed by birthday cakes, ice cream and punch.

Guests were Ruth, David, and Margaret Jane Thomas, Joe and Jimmy Smith, Mark Dearborn, Catherine, Tom and Sharon Marchant, Marilyn and Helen Dearborn, Douglas Embrey, Francis Roberts, Richard Burnett, Elaine Jones, Mary Ann Leavitt, and Catherine, Bill and Henry Dearborn.

Special guests were Ruth and David's grandmother and aunt, Mrs. J. Henry Thomas and Betty Thomas from Berkeley, Calif.

Sixty-five friends and neighbors gathered at the parish house in Langel valley on June 21 to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Teare and family who have sold their ranch and moved to Klamath Falls.

A potluck supper was served at 8 o'clock from long tables decorated with roses from the garden of Mrs. Beattie Frazier.

During the supper hour the Teares were presented with a lovely all wool blanket from their friends. A social evening followed the dinner.

Cold Storage Plant Rented

TULELAKE — Storage capacity of the Tulelake Cold Storage company is already rented in anticipation of the fall potato crop, according to Karl Gentry, member of the firm who stated this week that the plant could have also been filled with pears from the Rogue River valley. One hundred carloads of Shafter potatoes are now stored here.

The company is installing a second compressor in the building to be used as an emergency unit. Temperature in the building, a hollow tile structure completed last spring, is held at 34.

Other members of the firm are Andrew Collier, Percy Murray, George Morris, Klamath Falls, and Richard Smith, Tulelake.
