

Rose Gallagher Is Bride Of Army Man

In a lovely late morning ceremony at the Sacred Heart church on Saturday, July 28, Rose Gallagher, yeoman first class of the Waves, United States navy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gallagher of this city, became the bride of Lt. Frank Sommerkamp, army air corps, of Washington, D. C. The Rev. T. P. Casey read the nuptial mass in the church which was beautifully decorated with palms and gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her candlelight satin gown with lace yoke and long lace-trimmed neckline. She wore a single strand of pearls. One fold of her fingertip veil, which was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, was worn over her face until after the marriage vows had been exchanged. She carried a beautiful bouquet of Talisman roses.

Frances Krueger of Paradise, Calif., formerly of Klamath Falls, was maid of honor. She wore a marquisette dress of pale blue with lace trim and matching head dress. She carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and baby breath. The bridesmaid, Mary Kay Gallagher, sister of the bride, wore a pale pink marquisette dress and carried a bouquet of lavender and pink sweet peas.

Kathleen Gallagher, another sister of the bride, was the flower girl, and she wore a green sash and with matching hair bows.

Best man was Lt. Robert Britt, Bill Deloerie acted as usher.

Soloist was Cpl. Vincent Quinn who sang "Ave Maria," and the organist was Elaine Abbott.

A reception in the Pelican party room followed the wedding ceremony. Receiving guests were the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gallagher and Mrs. Frank Sommerkamp, mother of the groom, here from Washington, D. C., for the wedding.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Richard Gallagher, Mrs. Laurence Gallagher and Mrs. Robert Britt.

Later, the newlyweds left for a short wedding trip.

Out-of-town guests included the mother of the groom, the maid of honor, Mrs. Laurence Gallagher and Mariel O'Brien.

Visitors here for the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Stevens, 836 Pacific Terrace, have been Mrs. Stevens' sister-in-law, Mrs. I. B. Carter, and Mrs. Carter's granddaughter, Betty Rose O'Hara. They left Thursday evening to return to their homes in Portland.

Myla Jean Petrick Is Recent Bride

Myla Jean Petrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Petrick of 911 Prospect, Klamath Falls, was married on Friday, July 27, to Robert LeGrand Heyenga, AOM 2/c, USN, of San Diego, Calif., in a candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. Victor Schulze at the Zion Lutheran church.

Attending the bride during the ceremony was Frances Arant of this city as bridesmaid, and the best man was AOM 2/c Fred Muller, who is also stationed at the naval air station. Usher was William McHenry, AOM 1/c, of the Klamath naval air station.

The bride wore a street length dress of soft rose crepe with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias. A string of pearls completed her costume. Miss Arant wore a white street length frock with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The wedding took place in the church which was beautifully decorated with gladioli, sweet peas and delphiniums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered to the strains of the wedding march played by John Koglin of the naval air station. Mrs. Albert Rontfeldt of Merrill sang "O Perfect Love."

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for a small group of friends. The table was decorated with sweet peas and

Eighth Birthday

Guest of honor at a lovely summer birthday party was Susan Ann Ravizza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza, who celebrated her eighth birthday at the Ravizza home at Algonia farms on Friday, July 27. Games were played and later the 15 small guests enjoyed party refreshments at the beautifully decorated table placed in the garden. An attractive centerpiece of bright-colored, mixed flowers was used and small favors were at each place. Two cakes with candles were placed on the table, one at either end.

Assisting Mrs. Ravizza during the afternoon was her sister, Mrs. Scott Warren, of Klamath Falls.

Guests were Lynda and Steven Pope of Fort Klamath, Beverly Fernimen of Chiloquin, Ruth, Virginia and Frederick Roenicke, Charlene Stecklan, Jerry Barker, Janna and Nancy Warren, Michael and Sally Ravizza and the guest of honor.

Other guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Lloyd Barker, Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Mrs. Jane Warren and Mrs. Leslie Rogers.

A home-town show at the USO was enjoyed Thursday night by members of the Servicemen's Wives club at their weekly meeting. During the evening plans were made for free hand painting to be done at future meetings.

Later, refreshments were served at a snack bar at the USO. Hostess for the evening was Mrs. E. P. Britton. Members were sorry to hear of the illness of the president, Mrs. J. L. Thompson.

Wives of all servicemen, whether they are stationed in this community or not, are cordially invited to attend these weekly meetings at the USO.

Couple Weds In San Francisco

At a ceremony read at high noon in St. James Catholic church in San Francisco on July 24, Mary Ellen Dennehy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dennehy of San Francisco, became the bride of Ed Hosley, son of Mrs. Maude Hosley of Klamath Falls.

For her wedding the new Mrs. Hosley wore a gold suit with white accessories and a white corsage. Her sister, Elizabeth, who acted as her maid of honor, wore a suit of light green with white flowers.

Jim Kirby of Klamath Falls traveled south to act as best man for the ceremony.

Mrs. Hosley, mother of the groom, chose for her son's wedding to wear a pink dress with navy blue coat and pink camillias.

The Dennehy's are former Merrill residents and Mrs. Hosley is a graduate of the Merrill schools. Mr. Hosley graduated from Klamath Union high school and since that time has served for two years in the navy. He received a medical discharge in November of last year and is now employed in Klamath Falls.

Going south for the wedding from Klamath Falls were Mrs. Hosley, Jim Kirby, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Virginia Ellen Smith and Betty Merrill.

Honored At Tea

Honored at a lovely tea given in the ladies' lounge of the Elks temple on Friday, July 27, was Mrs. William H. Lewis of Gary, Ind., who is in Klamath Falls visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frederick G. Lewis, of 1834 Fremont.

Pouring at the attractive tea table were Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, Mrs. O. H. Buffington and Mrs. R. R. Lisbony. The table was centered with an arrangement of pastel shades of sweet peas.

About 35 guests honored Mrs. Lewis during the afternoon, and she was presented with a corsage of cardinal and gold-colored flowers, the colors of the marine corps. Mrs. Lewis' son, Captain Frederick G. Lewis, formerly stationed at the Marine Barracks here, is now serving overseas.

Miss Barnum, a teacher in the Sacramento city schools for the past 30 years, was a member of the 1908 graduating class of the Klamath Falls high school. The Barnums were prominent pioneers of the Klamath country, living for many years at Merrill, and later in Klamath Falls.

Hostesses Elect Officers Wednesday

New officers for the coming six months' period were elected Wednesday night at the monthly Junior Hostesses meeting at the USO clubrooms. Succeeding Edna Linder as president of the group is Pat Hudson. The new vice president is Marjorie Botens, and Mary Stivers was elected secretary-treasurer.

The four new squad leaders who will assist the officers are Dorothy Dalley, Carol Newman, Jean Thompson and Marjorie Ongman. It is the duty of the squad leaders to inform the members of the Junior Hostess organization of the week's coming activities.

The group is composed of 75 girls who have devoted collectively more than 2000 volunteer hours per month to their work as hostesses, serving at the dances at the Marine Barracks, the naval air station, Camp Tulelake, and the USO club and the USO activities.

Co-sponsors of this group who assist Alice Miles, USO staff assistant, are Gertrude Tolle and Elenora Weatherford. Mrs. John Schubert and Mrs. John Sandmeyer are members of the USO operating committee who are in charge of the volunteers.
