

Womens Club Meets At Langell Valley

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. Lloyd Embrey entertained the Langell Valley Women's club at the Smith home on July 26. The new president, Nettie Davis, conducted the short business meeting.

The next meeting will be at the parish hall on August 23, when Mrs. Clay Walker will entertain. Following adjournment, Mrs. Johnnie Campbell was given a lovely layette shower. Contests were enjoyed with Nettie Davis winning the prize.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Embrey and Mrs. Smith to the honored guest, Mrs. Johnnie Campbell, Mrs. Willard Noble, Mrs. Wayne Johnstone, Mrs. Harold Cox, Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Frank W. Brown, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Glen McGregor, Mrs. Clay Walker, Mrs. Elliott House, Mrs. Bill Novotny, Mrs. Orville DeVaul, Mrs. Elvis Smith, Mrs. Albert Hays, Mrs. Moore, Ruth Moore, Mrs. Florence Hopkins, Mrs. Claudia Musick, Mrs. Cris Hood, Mrs. Leland Pettigrew, Mrs. Effie Gilman, Mrs. Frank Peppie, Mrs. Lloyd Peppie, Mrs. Ed Jones, Mrs. Allen Gale, Mrs. Roy Marchant, Mrs. George Fernland, Mrs. Lyman Fitzhugh, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Homer Robert, Mrs. H. H. Reed, Mrs. Anna, Mrs. Beal, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Jean House, Doris Leavitt and Mary Ann Smith.

Visitors Honored

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Buchanan of Burbank, Calif., were honored at a dinner at Sari's in Klamath Falls on Wednesday evening before leaving for their home. While here they enjoyed several days at Diamond lake and Crater lake as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McFall.

Contract Club

A meeting of the Thursday Contract club was held July 12 at the home of Clara McPherrin in St. Francis park. Dessert was served at 1:30 p. m. and an afternoon of cards followed.

Potluck Picnic

The potluck picnic of the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Stingerette Social club, held in Moore park July 26, was well attended. After lunch the Stingerettes held a business meeting and plans were made for another picnic in August with Mrs. V. C. Phillips and Mrs. A. A. Myers the hostesses.

The committee appointed for the public card party in August will be Mrs. Henry Redmond, Mrs. H. G. Caldwell, Mrs. M. D. Kiouss. Special award given at each meeting went to Mrs. Kiouss. The rest of the afternoon was spent in pinocle, and Mrs. P. H. Horne held high score, Mrs. Fred Genereux second.

Those who attended the picnic were Mrs. N. B. Gale and son, Mrs. Ord Crow, Mrs. A. A. Myers, Mrs. Henry Redmond, Mrs. H. G. Caldwell, daughter and son, Mrs. A. B. Guthrie, Mrs. V. C. Phillips, Mrs. Paul Horne and daughters, Mrs. J. R. Chapman and sons, Mrs. Fred Genereux, Mrs. Ed Brown, Mrs. E. O. Stockdale, daughter and son and Mrs. M. D. Kiouss and daughters.

Service Group

The National Catholic Community Service Advisory committee met for its regular monthly meeting in the ladies' lounge of the USO on Wednesday, August 1. Luncheon was prepared and served by Mrs. J. A. Higgins.

The communion breakfast for service people was planned for August 19, and it was decided to request that these affairs be planned in turn by the Catholic Daughters, the Knights of Columbus and the Sons and Daughters of Italy.

The hostess table at the USO dance on Monday nights will have homemade cakes and punch donated and served twice a month by Catholic ladies and Sons and Daughters of Italy.

Anne Dirksmeier, NCCS representative, reviewed the club program.

The purpose of the NCCS is to cooperate Catholic groups for the good of the service people in Klamath Falls, to plan programs and to urge Catholic assistance as donors and volunteers. A. J. McDonald is the chairman of this group.

Rebekah Club

On Wednesday, July 25, members of the Rebekah Social club held a picnic on the lawn at the home of Alma Cofer of 1017 High, with a social afternoon following. Mary Curtis was re-elected secretary during the short business meeting.

The next meeting on August 8 will be a combined meeting of the social club and the Past Noble Grand club, and this will also be a picnic at the home of Vera Clemmens on the Keno highway. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service, and all Rebekahs are invited.

Past Matrons

Twenty-four past matrons of the Eastern Star, members of Aloha Past Matrons club, gathered on the back lawn of the home of Mrs. Fred Cofer, 1017 High street, on Friday afternoon for a potluck picnic which proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

On the last Friday in August the club will meet with its president, Mrs. A. B. Epperson, at her home at 130 First street for another potluck picnic, when those having birthdays in June, July or August will have a special table and be otherwise honored.

The ladies of Sacred Heart church who served at the USO center on Fridays in July were Mrs. Stanley Pieser, Mrs. K. M. Peterson, Mrs. Lynn Roycroft, Mrs. Ted Schuh, Mrs. Ralph LaLonde, Mrs. Joe Mahoney, Mrs. L. X. Nidorff, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mrs. R. E. Hooker, Mrs. Andrew Honzel, Mrs. James Higgins, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. Jack Franey, Mrs. Mike Brunner, Mrs. Bogue Dale, Mrs. Louise Vaughn, Matilda Crapo, Margie Frasier, Emma Grey, Elizabeth Brandness, Angelina D'Oliviero, Alice Clark and Alice Carnini.

WAVES FROM THE KLAMATH naval air station took part in the nationwide celebration of their third anniversary when they were given a dinner at the USO on Monday night. The group is shown here seated at the table in the lounge of the USO clubrooms.

—U. S. navy photo

Marry In Idaho

Married at Lewiston, Ida., on July 23, were Charles Dishman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dishman of this city, to Phyllis Wilberding Phillips, granddaughter of Mrs. Helena Morford of Milton-Freewater, Oregon.

The double ring ceremony was read in the presence of friends and relatives. Jean Pieser attended the bride as bridesmaid and the best man was G. A. Pridemore.

The groom is with the seventh amphibious force with the navy and is now in Klamath Falls on a 30-day leave. He has been overseas for the past 20 months in the South Pacific.

Stork Shower

Mrs. W. T. King was honored this last Thursday with a stork shower given for her by her mother, Mrs. Lillie Chilberg, at her home at 725 N. 11th.

Many lovely gifts were opened by Mrs. King and later refreshments were served to Mrs. Bessie Kettlecheck, Mrs. Penny Rice, Mrs. Mary Ellen Roti, Mrs. Lucille Thomas, Mercedes Collins, Pat Myers, June Tilton and June Hershberger.

Women of the First Methodist church who served at the USO center during the month of July were as follows: Mrs. K. G. Cummings, Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. Barthman, Irene Christensen, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. O'Connor, Mrs. John Riach, Mrs. Effie Redkey, Mrs. William Beck, Mrs. William

CHARLES DISHMAN of this city was married to Phyllis Phillips of Milton-Freewater in a ceremony read in Lewiston, Idaho, recently.

—Bell studios.

Withrow, Mrs. Cleo Dunlap, Mrs. L. A. Brannan, Mrs. E. W. Mocabee, Mrs. W. A. Carleton, Mrs. S. A. Gaster, Mrs. C. A. Poole, Mrs. Walter Herndon, Mrs. Maurice Leslie, Mrs. Steve Moss and Mrs. D. A. Kenyon.

A little fire is easy to fight, but the easiest fire to fight is one that never starts. Help keep your state green. Watch that match.

Catholic Group

Catholic Daughters of America and their families held their annual picnic in Moore park on Monday evening, July 23. The potluck supper was served at 6:30 p. m. and the court furnished the ice cream, pop, coffee and rolls. Following supper the men played horseshoes and the children enjoyed games.

The committee which planned this enjoyable event was under the leadership of Mary Ann Granas, and she was assisted by Violet Pieser, Gwendolyn Miller, Agnes Ellis, Virginia Herlihy and Peggy McCambridge.

Twelfth Birthday

Audrey Mae King was pleasantly surprised on her twelfth birthday recently by a group of friends who honored her with a party.

Games were played during the afternoon after which refreshments were served.

Guests were Richard and Alfield Hayes, Jerry, Bonnie, Betty and Lauvonne Haney, Gene and Leland Milligan, Barbara Perkins, Robert Prock, Geneva Swift, Delores McWhitney and Evelyn and Jimmy King.

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hoaglund arrived from Santa Barbara, Calif., on Tuesday for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Roberts of Malin. They are former Oregon residents. While here they will also take care of business matters in Klamath Falls.

Presenting..

1946
Fur Coats

Our fur coats are beautiful beyond your most extravagant dreams. Our label guarantees you choicest furs, fashion-right styling, superb quality and lowest prices. Be smart, be thrifty!

LaPointe's