

Louise Reid Is Navy Man's Bride

Married Sunday in a beautiful ceremony were Frances Louise Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reid of this city, and Walker Allen Breeden Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Breeden of Belton, Tex. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Markwardt, grandparents of the bride, at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Chaplain H. W. Stroup of the Klamath naval air station officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, wore a two-piece pastel blue dress with navy blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. Neale W. Owens, the bride's only attendant, wore a yellow costume suit with a corsage of sweet peas and roses. Varren Underwood, aviation ordnance man 1/c, acted as best man. The groom is an aviation ordnance man 3/c also stationed at the naval air station.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Loyal Heath, cousin of the bride, played "Simple Aveau," followed by Wagner's wedding march sung by Hazel Frymire.

The wedding service was read before the fireplace which was decked with white gladioli and ferns.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. A beautiful tiered wedding cake of white flanked by tall white tapers centered the main table. After the bride and groom cut the first piece, it was served by Mrs. Warren Underwood. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Eddie Owens.

The bride is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1945, and the groom graduated from Killeen high school, Killeen, Tex., in 1942.

Guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Markwardt and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Markwardt of Chillicothe, Aviation Radioman 1/c and Mrs. Loyal Heath of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Owens, Ronnie Sharon Owens, Mrs. Eddie Owens, Mrs. H. H. Reid, Mrs. Jeannette Savoy, Mr. and Mrs. Neale W. Owens, Sue Ann Owens, Aviation Ordnanceman and Mrs. Warren Underwood, and Hazel Frymire. The newlyweds are now at home at the Hamel apartments.

Five Years Old

Hazel Jo Washburn celebrated her fifth birthday on Saturday, July 28, when Mrs. Homer DeLamater and Hazel's mother, Mrs. Mildred Washburn, were hostesses at a party held at the DeLamater home.

Games were played on the lawn and horseback riding was enjoyed. Hazel Jo was presented with many gifts from her young friends. Later, ice cream and birthday cake were served.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. William Clement and Naomi, Mrs. Paul Geary and Susan, Mrs. Earl Harrison, Mrs. Leona Eglund and Larry, Patricia Buck, Dorothy Seymour, Phyllis Golden, Betty Vahl, Betty Franklin, Sherrian and Nancy Styles, Gerta Fae Lunston, Walter and Rachel Fuller, Gwennie Balsiger, Sherrian Friend, William, Gwennie, Susan and Petie Graham, Shariene Kirkpatrick, Shirley and Joan Gherkins, Roger and Allen Ward, Mrs. Blanche Fullington and Frederick who are visiting here from Oakland, Connie Perkins, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. DeLamater, and the hostesses and honored guest.

Merry Mixers

Marie McDonald of 2434 Reclamation entertained the Merry Mixers on the evening of July 26. Bunko was played, with Eleanor Curtis holding high score, Ruth Lawrence second and Jo Paup low. The next evening will be with Maxine Rose of 1530 Austin on August 9. A picnic is planned for Sunday, August 5, at 1 p. m. in Moore park, and will be attended by members and their families and friends.

Tulelake

An office is being built on the main floor of Earl's grocery and the office now being used on the mezzanine will be occupied by Charles Luther, grain buyer.

W. G. Norgl, manager of the Tulelake Machinery company, will spend the weekend in San Francisco on business.

W. R. Moore will leave this weekend for Berkeley and San Francisco to return his family to Tulelake. Mrs. Moore has spent some time at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. O. Banks, in Berkeley, and the children have been with Moore's mother, Mrs. W. V. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ryckman have as their guests Master Sergeant USMS and Mrs. Paul Prenger and their young daughter, Beth, of San Diego. Mrs. Prenger is a daughter of the Ryckmans.

Sgt. Prenger, who saw several months' service overseas on the attack on Pearl Harbor, has a 15-day furlough. The family, accompanied by Dorothy Thomas, spent last weekend at the G. W. Osborne's summer home at Crescent lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott, Jean Scott and Lindalee Gallo-way are spending several days on the coast.

Merrill

Mary Corcoran, Klamath Falls, was a recent guest of Betty Ann Chaburn, who is employed in a secretarial capacity at the naval air base. The young women spent a short time here with Betty Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Chaburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay McDonald have returned from San Francisco, where they were called by the illness of Mrs. McDonald's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker have also returned from San Francisco where they were called on business. Mrs. Clyde Barks, sister of Mrs. M. A. Bowman, plans to spend a few days here in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Barks, former residents of Tulelake, moved some time ago to Walnut Creek, Calif., to be near their son, Bill, in training with the navy. They recently sold their acreage there and are moving to Murphy, Ore., where Barks bought a 40-acre farm. The place joins that of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Barry, former residents of Merrill.

Mrs. Richard Leuhars and young daughter, 3-year-old Kristin, of Portland, left Wednesday evening after spending a vacation here with Mrs. Leuhars' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowman. Leuhars, a one-time resident of Merrill, is in training for service with the navy at the University of Oregon medical school.

Bonanza

Mrs. Lena Davison, of Cottage Grove, is spending some time here, visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Loyd Hankins, and family.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL NEW PINE CREEK — Mrs. Myra Robnett was in the hospital Monday and Tuesday suffering from blood poisoning contracted from an insignificant cut on her right fore-finger. She had not been brought home Tuesday evening and how well she was getting along was not definitely learned.

LOIS JEAN DINGLER, daughter of Mrs. L. N. Payne of 4619 Thompson, Klamath Falls, was married on Tuesday, July 10, to Marion F. Grisson, USMC, of Emporia, Kansas. The young couple will make their home in Pocatello, Idaho, where the groom will be stationed.
