

Owens Comes In Second Best To "Just Susan" Globetrotters Win, 12-2

By PAUL HAINES

Jesse Owens, great negro sprinter and Olympic champion, ran into a tangle yesterday afternoon in "Just Susan," 4 year-old racing filly owned by Pat Hogue and her jockey, Shorty Perry. Jesse didn't get the head start he figures on when racing against a horse and "Just Susan" came under the wire first by a good 10 yards.

Owens told us after the race that "Just Susan" was the fastest horse he had run against on the west coast and Shorty Perry rode a smart race, getting the filly off at the same time that Owens dug from the starting holes.

It was apparent immediately that Jesse could not hope to match the horse in speed, but irrespective of the outcome of the race, he made a superb spectacle as he showed the perfect form that made him a world champion.

The difference seemed to be that, although Owens has been running against horses for some time, "Just Susan" is a bona-fide race horse and a good one. She has been trained to make a fast get-away and consequently Owens was hopelessly outdistanced.

The Harlem Globetrotters thumped the Bearded Daviddes, 12 to 2, in a free-hitting ball game that saw some sensational catches made by both teams.

The Daviddes were inclined to get their feet tangled up with their whiskers, but nevertheless both sides staged an excellent show.

The Globetrotters immediately solved the slants of Pitcher McMahon and scored in every inning except the eighth. They did not need to come up to the plate in the ninth as they already had the ball game salted away.

The colored boys scored in the first frame after Jones, shortstop, had singled. He stole second and crossed the plate minutes later on Miller's error.

In the second inning, Spencer, negro second-sacker, slapped out a home run inside the park with one aboard to give the Globetrotters two more tallies.

To start the Daviddes' half of the third, McMahon doubled and Sosnouski, right-fielder, poked one over the left field fence for a home run, scoring McMahon ahead of him.

The Globetrotters picked up two runs in the third and tallied a counter in the fourth, fifth and sixth frames. In the seventh Spencer lashed out his second circuit clout inside the park, scoring two mates ahead of him. Barrow, catcher, came in later in the inning on a squeeze play when Gibbons, negro hurler, laid down a perfect bunt.

That ended the scoring, but several scintillating double plays were made during the game and Sosnouski made a sensational circus catch of Marcel's high fly ball.

The Globetrotters committed one error during the contest and the Daviddes booted the apple nine times. McMahon struck out seven batsmen and Gibbons whiffed two.

The crowd overflowed the ball park and every available seat was taken with a large number of people standing along the third and first base lines. This gratifying attendance seems to indicate that Klamath Falls can and will support baseball in a big way if given the proper facilities, which most certainly includes a renovated ball park here!

Huskies Will Begin Grid Practice 1st

SEATTLE, Aug. 9 (P)—Coach Ralph (Pest) Welch said yesterday that University of Washington football practice will coincide with that of California schools rather than northern division opening dates because the Huskies will meet the California eleven before their northern division brothers.

The date for beginning of practice will be September 1, a week earlier than other northern division schools.

"We meet California competition earlier than the other northern division teams," Welch said. "We play the University of California October 6."

The off-season practice period permitted by the conference will begin August 13, Welch said, for the men now in school. For the most part these are navy trainees and will number about 50 players, he estimated.

The squad expects war veterans and boys under draft age to report, Welch said, in that navy men are restricted as to practice hours and are unavailable for road trips.

How'd You Like To Have Two Bucks on This Nag?

Do you have days when you just can't drag yourself to work? Well, that's how Tiny Tim must have felt when it came his turn to go into the starting gate at Tijuana, Mexico. Starter Wes Nary, extreme right, and others finally convinced him it was the proper thing to do but, needless to say, Tim turned in a rather half-hearted effort.

Packers Open Practice For All-Star Tilt

GREEN BAY, Wis., Aug. 9.—(P)—A tiny David among the big city football Goliaths as population goes, Green Bay, and its professional football champion Packers, nonetheless has been the most consistent winner since the National Football league was organized in 1921.

Today the Packers open practice for their game with the college All-Stars at Soldier field in Chicago, August 30. Tonight the Packers and the community of 46,000 that owns them, celebrate their silver anniversary at a banquet.

Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau organized the Packers, played with them and has coached them since they were a barnstorming bunch back in 1919.

130 Aquatic Stars Enter AAU Meet

AKRON, O., Aug. 9 (P)—The opening gun of the 1945 men's senior AAU swimming and diving championships and the national women's AAU junior championships sounds at 3 p. m. for qualifying heats today.

More than 130 aquatic stars from 16 states, Mexico and Canada will splash through the two-day program in the big 100-meter pool at nearby Cuyahoga Falls.

The meeting proper opens tomorrow afternoon with heats in the men's 200-meter free style and 300-meter medley relay and qualifying rounds for springboard diving. Finals in these events will be held tomorrow night.

Stars of all the services, including an 11-man team from Great Lakes, a team from Canada, a team from the U. S. Navy, and a team from the U. S. Coast Guard, are included among entries. Among the universities represented are Ohio State, Michigan State, Indiana, Purdue and Notre Dame.

Defending Champion Keo Nakama of Ohio State heads a list of 13 stars who will toe the mark in the 1500 meter free-style.

Others include Ross Bean, Oakland, Calif. Swimming association and Ramon Brave, Mexico City.

New Orleans Producing Good Boxers

By TED MEIER

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9 (P)—New Orleans has become an incubator of good boxers.

Lt. Col. Eddie Egan, chairman of the New York state athletic commission, spotted this development back on June 29 while watching a preliminary bout on the Rocky Graziano-Red Cochrane card.

"Say," he said unexpectedly. "Look at that kid out there. He certainly handles himself well. Someone in New Orleans is teaching the boys how to use their fists. You can always tell when a new school of fighters is coming up."

The "kid" the colonel referred to was August Lapara who outpointed Childirina Valencia, of Mexico City, in a six-rounder.

And the "someone" in the Louisiana city who is developing the fighters is 60-year-old Whitney Esmail, according to George Winn, manager of Augie (CQ).

"Whitney has his own gym down there," explained George. "He's always teaching the kids what to do. He usually teaches them for about three years, then puts them in the amateurs. Some of them are young as nine and 10 years old when they first start. They sure learn their stuff good."

Olsen Meets Davidson In Opener

The opening tiff on Promoter Mack Lillard's rousing card Friday night will send wily Milt Olsen against burly Buck Davidson.

This scrap rounds out a card that features Paavo Katonen against Jack Lipscomb as the headline attraction. Katonen is gunning for a shot at the junior heavyweight crown and needs a victory over Lipscomb Friday night to prove his case.

In the semi-windup tussle, Antonio Leone will tangle with Georges Dussette in what should be another rip-roaring bout. Dussette lost to Lipscomb here last week and will be seeking revenge on Leone.

The curtain is due to go up at 8:30 p. m.

Top-Seeded Net Players Score Wins

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 9 (P)—Big time tennis took on a semblance of pre-war days today for the first time since Pearl Harbor as the annual eastern grass court tennis championships swung into the second round at the Westchester Country club with almost every national ranking player on hand.

Four of the first 10 players in the men's division, along with several more prominent players of former years now back from the wars, and nine of the first 10 nationally ranked women, and 17 of the top 20, appeared in the draw.

The opening round of yesterday's play produced not a single upset. Frank Shields and Sidney B. Wood, a pair of veteran New Yorkers, who were finalists at Wimbledon in 1931, and Elwood Cooke of Los Angeles, runner-up at Wimbledon in 1939, gained the jump on the rest of the field by moving into the quarter-finals, a bracket ahead of Defending Champion Bill Talbert of Wilmington, Del., and Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador and the University of Miami, and others.

Miss Pauline Betz, national champion from Los Angeles, seeded No. 1, and Miss Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., winner here last year and seeded No. 3, led the women's division into the second round.

Cubs Sweep Double Bill From Braves

Tigers Split Doubleheader With Boston As Senators Go Down Before Chisox, 7-3

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jimmy Dykes must have tired of hearing folks cross town rave about the pennant-bound Chicago Cubs and decided to go looking for a piece of that world series cash for his White Sox.

Facing the two toughest clubs in the league, Detroit and Washington, at the home lot, the pale hose have knuckled them out six of seven and poked to within a half game of the third place New York Yankees. They are only 41 lengths back of the front-running Tigers.

Only the Philadelphia A's, 21 games behind, are entirely out of the American league race so it's quite possible for Chicago to be an important factor in the closing weeks.

Nobody gave Dykes' lads a tumble in the spring but they hopped away to a running start and were out front until they ran into a bad case of the jitters in the Yankee stadium in late May.

Everybody figured the Sox had shot their bolt and would be content to graze in their usual lower class stall. But they have managed to hover close to the first division and now threaten again.

Earl Caldwell, a 40-year-old added starter, is one big reason for the Sox' rise. Although the Texan has won only five games, he has copped all of them at night when his breaking stuff is most effective. Last night he stopped Washington, 7-3, just when the Senators had a chance to tie for the lead.

Tigers Split
Detroit left the door open for Washington to pull up even when they split an afternoon doubleheader with Boston. After Stubby Overmire had handed Dave Ferriss his fifth setback in the opener, 5-2, the Red Sox scored four in the 12th to trim the Bengals, 7-4.

Titan Hanover Wins 3-Year Old Trotting Championship

By ORLO ROBERTSON
GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 9 (P)—The three-year-old trotting champion, labelled months ago for delivery to Titan Hanover, today is in possession of that little bay colt that E. Roland Harman and Major Elbridge T. Gerry took out of the yearling sales two years ago for $3000.

Titan Hanover, a son of Calumet Chuck foaled on Lawrence Sheppard's Hanover, Pa., shoe farm, erased any doubt as to his right to the title yesterday when he won the $51,046.96 Hambletonian from 18 rivals—the largest field in the history of the Corn Tassle derby.

The champion had to be good to win the first heat since he scored from the second tier of the unwieldy field. But under the expert guidance of 42-year-old Harry Pownall he bounded into fourth place inside of the first eighth of a mile, trailed past the half-mile post and then swung into command to win in 2:04.1.

With the advantage of the pole were shut out, 1-0, by Al Smith who also batted in the only run off Ernie Bonham. Season's best crowd, 27,199, was on hand. The Rookie Hal Peck's third homer of the season in the 10th inning gave the Athletics a 5-4 nod over St. Louis' Tex Shirley. Peck and teammate George Kell each had four blows.

Cubs Win Twice
The Chicago Cubs opened an eastern tour as though they meant to clinch things in a hurry by whipping Boston twice, 5-2 and 3-2. Ray Prim spun a five-hitter in the first and Hank Wyse hung up No. 17 in a 12-inning finale.

St. Louis and Brooklyn both won but lost a half game to the Bruins. The Cardinals blanked the New York Giants, 3-0, behind Lefty George Dockins and the Dodgers shut out Cincinnati, 1-0, on Dixie Walker's home run that stuck in the right field screen. Hal Gregg stopped the Reds with five safeties and the Brooks had only four off Vern Kennedy.

Pittsburgh and the Phillies took turns swapping whitewash jobs. First Preacher Roe shut the door, 4-0 with a four-hitter for the Bucs and then young Dick Mauney earned his third big league decision with a 5-0 job on the Pirates.

position in the second brush, Pownall took the smooth-striding horse to the front and never was headed as he trotted the mile in 2:04. Axomite, owned by Octave Blake of Plainfield, N. J., wound up second in the first heat, beaten a length, and Lt. Col. Dunbar Bostwick's Kimberly Hanover took over the runner-up spot in the second, three lengths back.

The crowd of 14,288 had no chance to gain anything through Titan's victory as he was barred from the wagering in view of a career that includes a world record of two minutes flat for two-year-olds and unbeaten performances in 10 previous starts.

Production of tractors (agricultural, industrial and military) in 1944 had a value of $857,000,000, compared with $357,000,000 in 1943, and $342,000,000 in 1941.
