craft, shipbuilding and ordnance industries where WMC estimates that 3,400,000 persons are employed. Most of these, it was said, will be released outright as soon as the war is over.

As for rationing, qualified officials said it was entirely likely that controls of gasoline use could be lifted within two or three weeks after Japan capitulates.

More Tires More passenger car tires are a certainty at the end of the war, and rationing is expected to end in two or three months.

Shoe rationing, too, probably will not last long, but housewives are likely to have to use stamps for food for awhile after V-J Day. Meat and sugar are expected to be in short supply for some weeks. Rationing of processed foods may be terminated earlier.

Wished He Were A Cow

Young Hafner looked down into the Swiss valley and wished he were one of the cows grazing there so peacefully. For, said he, if I were one of those cows, I would be rid of this heavy heart. Yes, he would even be a cow, so dark were the days.

Then a Bible was put into his hands and he began to read. And of evenings now and again, he slipped into the mission hall to listen. Also one came along side to give him light on his Bible problems. Then came the great day. It was of a morning that it all came about. He must get into the open and let loose. And so it was that he climbed the mountain and shouted and sang and shouted again. His heart had settled on the Bible and God the giver of hope had filled him with joy and peace. Later on we had him as a much beloved pastor of a Portland church.

GREEN CITES UNEMPLOYMENT AS MAIN WORRY

CHICAGO, Aug. 11 (AP)—Unemployment, not strikes, will be labor's chief worry with the return to peace, says AFL President William Green.

The no-strike pledge, given by labor leaders hastily summoned to the White House after the Pearl Harbor attack December 7, 1941, was made for the duration of Jap hostilities only, Green said, "but we wouldn't interpret it rigidly."

Lifting of the restrictions on labor and industry, exercised during three years of war by the war labor board, war production commission and others, should be accomplished as soon as possible, he said.

Green indicated he thought the no-strike pledge should last about as long as the war labor board does.

GREEN CITES UNEMPLOYMENT AS MAIN WORRY

CHICAGO, Aug. 11 (AP)—Unemployment, not strikes, will be labor's chief worry with the return to peace, says AFL President William Green.

The no-strike pledge, given by labor leaders hastily summoned to the White House after the Pearl Harbor attack December 7, 1941, was made for the duration of Jap hostilities only, Green said, "but we wouldn't interpret it rigidly."

Lifting of the restrictions on labor and industry, exercised during three years of war by the war labor board, war production commission and others, should be accomplished as soon as possible, he said.

Green indicated he thought the no-strike pledge should last about as long as the war labor board does.

He held a news conference after a session of the AFL executive council that a full employment could be expected as war plants, with immediate cancellation of contracts on the heels of Jap surrender, close down for the shift-over to civilian manufacture.

The AFL unions will suffer, he said, but not as much as the CIO, with its mass production workers. He added the blow will fall chiefly in automobile, airplane, small arms, artillery, tank and electrical plants, but unemployment gradually should be overcome.

Nylon's Return With War's End

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Yes, girls it's true—the end of the war means nylon hose for you.

Virtually all nylon production now goes for military purposes — parachutes, tow lines for gliders, and countless other things.

But with the end of the war military demands for nylon will decline sharply, making the material available again for women's hose.

Nylon production totaled about 8,000,000 pounds annually before the war. It is larger now but just how much is still a military secret.

In any event enough will become available for millions of pairs of hose each year.

STRIKE LIST WAVERS WITH NEW DISPUTES

By The Associated Press

The nation's strike list fluctuated between the 40 and 50,000 mark during the last 24 hours as new disputes broke out and old ones were settled.

Three walkouts ended, removing approximately 10,000 from the strike total, but new disputes pushed up the number to about 48,000, including thousands of steelworkers.

CIO United Steelworkers union spokesmen for two separate walkouts placed at about 19,000 the number of employees idled by disputes. These included 10,000 at the American Steel foundries nine plants in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and 9000 in the Inland Steel corporation plant in East Chicago, Ind. American Steel foundries officials estimated about 5000 were idled. Inland officials said the walkout cut production by one-third and forced the shutdown of 11 open hearth furnaces.

The dispute at the American steel foundries was over contract negotiations.

Army Plans Slow Discharge Of Men After Jap Surrender

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—The army has a V-J plan for demobilization, it was learned today. Details are top secret but informed sources figure on a reduction to 3,000,000 men a year after surrender.

Informed sources speculated that in event of peace current demobilization will be stepped up, but that no wide-scale discharges will take place until the Japanese homeland and islands formerly Japanese-held have been occupied.

Take No Chances In other words, the army will take no chances on the failure of any belligerent Japanese to comply with surrender. A Japanese army of probably 2,000,000 will have to be disbanded in the Japanese home islands alone.

In the meantime, it is probable the army will make every effort to release promptly approximately 550,000 men eligible under the point system. Already it has mustered out 250,000 who built up 85 points through combat, long service and dependancy.

Cut Point Score The army also is expected to make a substantial cut in the critical point score so that possibly 2,000,000 men in all will receive point system discharges. This would leave a force of about 6,000,000. If all goes well in the initial phases of occupying Japanese territory, informed sources believe that half or more of that number could be discharged within a year.

Occupation Forces The remainder would form the occupation forces in Germany and Japanese areas, man outposts, garrisons in Alaska and elsewhere, keep the supply chain moving and provide a reserve in this country. At present, the occupation force in Germany is fixed at 400,000 and military ex-

STRAW VOTE

Should the Klamath Indians Receive FULL CITIZENSHIP?

Superintendent Courtwright's report as of March 31, 1944, states:

"For over fifty years the Klamaths have dressed and lived like their white neighbors. All speak, read and write English. . . Their children attend the public and other schools.

"Generally speaking, the Klamaths live much above the average of other Indians in the United States and, to some degree, better than their white neighbors. . . They dress like white people, their homes are modern, most with electric current, waterworks and sewer systems; equipped with modern labor-saving devices. They own many of the latest types of farm and ranch equipment such as tractors, trucks, balers, etc., and own the better grade of livestock."

The Klamath Indians have bought over $100,000.00 in War Bonds; they work in defense plants. They have fought for freedom and democracy in the two World Wars. They have fought and died for their country. They have proven they are 100 per cent Americans. They are citizens in every respect except their property right which is now politically mismanaged by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. The taxation by the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the capital receipts of their land and monies amounts to usurpation of their property. The American Indian does not enjoy the rights and privileges of the American Japanese.

Shall the Indians of the Klamath Reservation receive full citizenship?

Express Your Honest Opinion, VOTE— YES . . . . NO . . . .
