

BARTON IS THE six and a half months old son of Lt. and Mrs. Curtis White of 2605 Vandergrift. Lt. White is with the naval air corps and is now stationed at the naval air station.

LUCKY ENOUGH to be with Lt. B. F. Johnson while he is stationed here at the naval air station is Mrs. Johnson and small daughter, Electa May. The Johnsons live at 2805 Summers lane.

CELEBRATING HIS second birthday this last Thursday was Gary Donald Rieben, shown above with his mother, Mrs. Donald Rieben. The picture was taken to send to Gary's father, Captain Donald Rieben, now on convalescent leave in Switzerland.

Klamath Couple Weds In Denver

Two well known Klamath Falls families were united when Edna Renner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Renner of South Fifth street, became the bride of Bud A. Petersteiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Petersteiner of Portland street at a ceremony read in Denver on Friday, July 13.

Edna traveled from Klamath Falls to Denver, where Bud is stationed, for the wedding. He is stationed at Lowry Field number one at Denver with the army air corps.

The wedding took place at the Episcopal church with the Rev. Robert A. Russell officiating at the ceremony which was performed at 8:30 in the evening.

For her wedding the new Mrs. Petersteiner wore a platinum colored suit with white hat and white accessories. On her shoulder she wore a single lavender orchid.

The young couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coffrey of Denver.

Following the wedding they traveled to Tinytown, Colo., in the Rocky mountains, where they spent a honeymoon of several days.

Mrs. Petersteiner is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1945, and he graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1944. He later attended Sacramento junior college at Sacramento prior to entering the army air corps.

Son Born

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Wilson Jr., (the former Ruth Campbell) are the parents of a son, Gary James, born on July 25, at the Shoemaker Naval hospital at Pleasanton, Calif. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Campbell of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Wilson of Portland.

Wedding Plans

Last minute plans were being made this week for the wedding next Wednesday, August 15, of Susan Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Kelsey, 2331 Garden, to Walter W. Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Bower of Hubbard, Ore.

The ceremony will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church Wednesday evening with the Rev. F. C. Wissenbach officiating.

Garden Club

Featured at the Monday meeting of the Garden club were arrangements of weeds and sticks in novel and lovely displays. The meeting was held in the library clubrooms.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. K. G. Cummings and Mrs. R. G. Groesbeck and the meeting was well attended.

Junior Hostesses served a potluck supper at the USO clubrooms on Friday night at 7 o'clock. Chairman of the event was Nanette Schubert and Cora Wolfe and Lorraine Olsen had charge of entertainment.

Special guests were Mrs. Ruth Glasgow, Mrs. John Schubert, Beverly Richardson, Alice Miles, and Oliver Franklin.

Salem Wedding

Pvt. Austin B. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Alva Lewis of Washburn way, took as his bride Lois Meuler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meuler, of Lebanon, Ore., at a ceremony read in Salem on Saturday, August 4.

The service was read at the home of the Rev. Willard B. Hall of the Congregational church at Salem.

For her wedding the bride wore a two-piece ensemble of navy blue and white checked material with blue accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Attendants for the ceremony were Ramona Stringer of Lebanon and E. C. Bridger of Klamath Falls. Miss Stringer wore a beige suit with white accessories.

Traveling south for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bridger of Klamath Falls.

Pvt. Lewis is stationed at Camp Adair awaiting overseas transfer.

Service Wives

Mrs. Violet Koch conducted a free hand painting class at the weekly meeting of the Service Men's Wives club which was held in the USO clubrooms Thursday night. Mrs. Koch, who has been doing art work for the past 15 years, studied at art schools in Arizona and South Dakota.

Twelve members attended the meeting which was held in the women's lounge. The group planned a potluck supper for the next meeting date, Thursday, August 16, at 7 p. m. in the lounge.

The Daughters of the Nile will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Loren Palmerton at 840 Pacific terrace to sew for the Shrine Hospital for crippled children in Portland.

Reames Groups To Have Tournament

Reames Golf and Country club will start a mixed handicap two-ball foursome tournament on the last Sunday in August, and the tourney will continue for the next two Sundays thereafter, according to local golfers.

It will be a ladies' choice affair with women choosing their partners from among the men. However, women are not allowed to choose their husbands as tournament partners.

Eighteen holes over the three Sundays will comprise the contest and two trophies are to be awarded, one to the lady and one to the man with the lowest score.

A special guest at the Friday get-together of the women at the country club last week was Mrs. Mollie Reames Jennings of San Francisco, who was a special guest of Mrs. Leslie Rogers.

On Friday, August 10, a special feature of the day was the birthday luncheon and birthday cake in honor of Mrs. E. P. Brosterhouse.

Ardyce Brown Guest At Bridal Shower

TULELAKE—In the lovely, colorful garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. French Johnson, Ardyce Brown, bride-elect, whose engagement to Sergeant Jack Fensler, U. S. army aviator of Victorville, Calif., was announced several weeks ago, was honored Sunday afternoon, August 5, at a delightfully planned pre-nuptial shower. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. French Johnson and her daughter, Mrs. Donald Rieben, Mrs. Loeth Dunlap, Mrs. Pat McGinley, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Jack Kelly, Mrs. Ward McCulley and Mrs. William Hooper.

An old-fashioned wishing well, surrounded by lavender, pink and white phlox held the array of gifts and refreshments were in keeping with the summer theme.

Ardyce, a popular member of the younger set, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Merton Brown and is at home with her parents this summer. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Fensler, Tulelake, is expected home on furlough in the near future. No date has been set for the wedding.

Fifty guests were invited for the afternoon.

Recent Bride Is Honored At Shower

ALTAMONT—Mrs. Walter Hanson and Mrs. Don Robertson of Altamont entertained a group of friends on Monday afternoon at the Hanson residence at 4135 Altamont drive, complimenting Mrs. J. E. Wood, the former Wilma Jean Robertson.

Friends invited to the shower included Mrs. Frank Cardoza, Mrs. Owen Campbell, Mrs. Esther Roberts, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. B. G. Pinnell, Mrs. Sam Woodward, Mrs. Ed Lawrence, Mrs. G. Collins, Mrs. Ralph Benoit, Mrs. Warren Littistokow, Mrs. Barbara Musselman, Mrs. William Swartz, Mrs. William Rutledge, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Ona Bagley, Mrs. Wesley Harsey, Mrs. Elmer Arnold, Mrs. Everett Sparks of Bonanza, Mrs. Ralph Rayson and Mrs. Tommy Hooker of Portland, Mrs. Lonnie Sehorn, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Worley, Mrs. Earl Stevens, Mrs. Spore, Mrs. Wilds, Mrs. Mike Lavenick, Nadine Hanson, Virginia Bagley, Pat Benoit, Rubie Wren, Sharon Campbell, Betty Rutledge, Glenna Edwards, Beverly Pinnell, Bonnie White, Mercedes Collins, Betty Wilds and Betty Harsey.

Refreshments were served late in the afternoon by the hostesses, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood are at home to their many friends at the government trailer camp. He is a seaman guard at the Klamath naval air station.

After the furlough Johnny will return to the Valley Forge hospital for further treatment.

Picnic

The Orions entertained for their children with a picnic at Moore park on Tuesday, July 24, at 12:30. Mrs. Clifton G. Baxter was chairman of the refreshment committee.

A potluck luncheon was served to the following members and guests:

Mrs. Troy D. Cook, Paula Ann and Duane, Mrs. M. H. Melchert and Stuart, Mrs. Charles B. Larkin and Jane, Mrs. Ray W. Cowles and Bill, Mrs. G. C. Baxter, Mrs. Wendell B. Smith, Diane and Serena, Mrs. Ray L. Garrison, Lenny, Carolyn and David, Mrs. Charles Garrison, Mrs. Stuart Balsiger, Dickie, Gwenie and Jaime, Mrs. Arthur Millard and Pamela, Mrs. George Crakes, Gary and Virginia, Mrs. W. G. Crakes, Mrs. L. D. Metcalf, Eddie and Kenny, Mrs. Kenneth Samson and Zeta, Mrs. Sue Turner, Mrs. J. J. O'Hara, Tim and Pat, Mrs. C. A. Baker, Carol and Gil, Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger, Dick and Don, Mrs. W. H. B. Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Wiggins, Mrs. Edwin Schneebeck and David, Mrs. Jack Andrus and Loa Mae, Mrs. Frank Gardiner and Jean, Mrs. Charles Cummings, David, Douglas and Jill, Mrs. Albert Gaster, Garwin and Karen, Mrs. Charles Finch and Jerry Mae, Mrs. John W. Weber, John, Ronel and Lee Anne, and Darlene Clark.

Later in the evening, the party was joined by Dr. Herrick Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, and the group was guests of the colonel at the bachelor officers' quarters at the Marine Barracks.

Committee Meets To Plan Annual Affair

The executive committee and officers of the Wednesday club met at the home of Mrs. Ed Goeckner on Thursday evening to discuss plans for the annual Wednesday club tea which will be given this year on August 29.

Mrs. Robert O. Sprout has been named chairman of the tea committee and will be assisted by Mrs. George Rogers.

At the Thursday evening meeting plans were also made for the annual fall rummage sale. Mrs. Dot Clark was appointed chairman and she will have Mrs. C. M. LaComa as her assistant.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and president of the group, Mrs. Goeckner.

Dinner Party

Col. Merlin Schneider, former commanding officer at the Marine Barracks, was guest of honor at a dinner party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van at 1001 Eldorado.

An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Cora McHard of Vancouver, Wash., who has spent the week at the Van home. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McGillivray and son Phillip.

Col. Schneider, Mrs. Van, and Mr. McGillivray are all members of the same high school graduating class at Clatskanie, Ore.

Later in the evening, the party was joined by Dr. Herrick Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, and the group was guests of the colonel at the bachelor officers' quarters at the Marine Barracks.

Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Pinelli, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Largent, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Malani, Sgt. and Mrs. Boltis, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denault, Mr. and Mrs. George Flowers, Mrs. Pearl Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Andrieu and children, Mrs. Oscar Denault and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Malani, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schneider, Lewis Botens, Regis Andrieu, Betty Largent and the host and hostess.

Another regular meeting of the Sojourners was held on Wednesday, August 7, in the Blue room of the Willard hotel.

At a short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. A. J. Lambert, a communication was read from Mrs. Floyd Fanders of Salem, president of a similar organization which has recently been started in that city. Also announcement was made of a certificate awarded to the club by the treasury department for its part in the recent 7th War Loan drive when the allotted quota was met and surpassed.

Mrs. E. M. Thompson was welcomed as a new member at this meeting. Several tables of bridge and pinocle were at play following the business session with honors in bridge going to Mrs. Melvin Bakke and Mrs. F. A. Murphy and in pinocle to Mrs. A. J. Lambert.

The hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. Louis Sauer.

Surprise Party

Honored at a surprise birthday party on August 2 was Miss Leslie Holden of New York City, who is visiting here with Mrs. Edwood Nichols at the Nichols home on Arthur street.

Guests for the evening were Miss Holden, Lt. and Mrs. Mel Duncan and two daughters, Lt. (jg) and Mrs. Jerry Clays and son, Lt. and Mrs. Jack Lynch, Lt. and Mrs. Jack Gordon and Ens. and Mrs. Nichols.

Thursday evening, August 2, Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in regular session in the IOOF hall with all officers present. A class of candidates was initiated including Olive J. Fleming, Edna Kathryn Coker, Goldie McClurg and Ruth Dixon.

MARRIED IN A CEREMONY read at Denver on July 13 were Edna Renner and Bud Petersteiner, both well-known Klamath Falls young people.

VISITING HERE UNTIL the 17th of August is Miss Leslie Holden of New York City, who is here with Ensign and Mrs. Edwood Nichols of Arthur street. Mrs. Nichols, left, is a teacher with the city schools here and is Miss Holden's sister.