Deer Season Opened 40 Years Ago Today

In glancing back through the files we ran across an issue of The Klamath Republic containing the game laws for the deer season which opened 40 years ago, August 15.

We felt sure that hunters would find this information interesting, especially in view of the fact that more shells will now probably be released, and next season will no doubt find more hunters in the field than ever before.

Returning servicemen will swell the ranks of nimrods to a great extent and the 1945 season should be one of the best on record.

Anyway, here are the game laws as they appeared 40 years ago.

Spotted fawn—Closed at all times.

Buck deer, moose, mountain sheep (except in the counties of Grant, Harney, Malheur and Baker)—Closed from November 1 of each year to August 15 of the following year.

Female deer—Closed from November 1 of each year to September 15 of the following year.

Night hunting and use of dogs in hunting deer or moose are prohibited within the state at all times.

Limit—Five deer in any one open season.

Elk—Closed until September 15, 1907, then closed between October 15 of each year and September 15 of the following year.

Limit—One elk during each open season.

It is unlawful to sell or have in possession for sale any elk meat at any time.

It is unlawful at any time to hunt, pursue, take, injure, destroy or have in possession any deer, elk, moose, mountain sheep, spotted fawn for the purpose of obtaining the skin, hide, horns, horns or other flesh of such animals, for the purpose of sale, barter, exchange, or trade, except upon permission from the state game or forestry warden.

Silver grey squirrel—Closed from January 1 to October 1 of each year.

Ducks, geese, swan—Closed between the first day of February and the first day of September. Limited to 50 in one week.

Water rail and upland plover—Closed between the first day of January and the first day of August.

Pheasant—East of the Cascade mountains—Closed at all seasons.

Sage hen, sage cock, grouse, or native pheasant—Closed between the first day of December and the 15th day of August the following year.

Quail—Closed except between the second Saturday and the third Tuesday of the month of September. Limited to six quail in one day or 12 in one week.

Unlawful to hunt without license—A license must be obtained from the county clerk and carried with party while hunting. Resident fee for license $1, non-resident $10.

Trout—Closed during months of November, December, January, February and March. Unlawful to keep trout less than five inches in length. Night fishing prohibited. Limit 125 in one day.

Well, there you are. Forty years ago started the elusive deer. But hunters would already have been stalking the elusive deer. But times change, and hunting enthusiasts will have to bide their time until the 1946 deer season opens on September 29 and extends until October 28.

Angels Rap Flag Hopes Of Seattle

Los Angeles Blasts Suds, 14-1; Portland Cops Two 1-0 Victories Over Acorns

By PAUL WELLS

Associated Press Sports Writer
They might just as well hang the black crepe and play the slow music for Seattle's Pacific coast league pennant aspirations. A combination of the rain's 14-1 snuffing at the hands of the Los Angeles Angels and Portland's two 1-0 victories over the Oakland Acorns last night boosted the Beavers to a 6 1/2 game lead as the field rounded the three-quarter mark.

The battle for other first division spots, and a chance at the playoff money, finds Sacramento and San Francisco slowly strengthening their holds on third and fourth. The Solons won their third in a row from the Hollywood Stars 10-9 and the Seals came from behind to nose out the San Diego Padres 6-5. Sacramento is riding in third, three games ahead of San Francisco, which has a 4 1/2 tilt edge over the fifth-place Oaks.

Pitching Pays Off
Superb pitching paid off in Portland's double shutout over the Acorns. The scheduled seven-inning curtain raiser was not settled until the last of the tenth when the Beavers broke a scoreless deadlock. They pushed over the winning run on Larry Barton's double and Frank Demaree's single after two men were out. Soutpaw Syd Cohen tossed a five-hitter to shade Mitch Chetkovich in their mound duel.

Wandel Mossor followed with a two-hit exhibition in the regulation finale, outpitching Johnny Babich who allowed six safeties. Portland got its lone tally in the eighth on doubles by Frank Shone and Glen Crawford. The league-leaders now hold a 3-1 lead in the series.

Los Angeles pounded two Seattle hurlers at will for 19 hits in its 14-1 victory, taking a 2-1 margin for the week. First Baseman Reggie Otero led the Angel parade with six singles in six times at bat and scored five runs. Charles (Red) Adams checked seven-hit ball for the winners, while Glenn Elliott was charged with the defeat.

The Seals, trailing San Diego 5-3, tied it up in the eighth on Catcher Bruce Ogdrowski's double which scored Charley Peterson and Neil Sheridan. They got their winning run in the last of the ninth on singles by Bert Uhalt and Emil Mallico. The Padres scored all their tallies in the third, driving Bob Barthelson from the box. Elmer Orella, relief pitcher, got credit for the win as Carl Dumler went down for his 12th loss against 17 innings.

Members of this committee are Chandler, Ford Frick, National league president; Will Harridge, American league president; Warren Giles, Cincinnati general manager; Jack Zeller, Detroit, general manager; George Trautman, president of the American league association, and Art Ehlers, promotional director of the minor leagues.

This committee will meet soon, Chandler said, to complete final details of the promotional scheme.

The baseball officials also took another step toward assuring places in the game for returning servicemen who may not be able to participate as active players.

"There will be a spot for such a player in baseball if he is too old or injured when he comes back from service," Chandler said.

Other discussions in today's session dealt with clarification of rules pertaining to returning veterans.

Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, suggested it would be a good idea for big leaguers to play in Tokyo during their contemplated Pacific tour.

Johnny Greco Will Battle Janiro Tonight

NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (AP)—Johnny Greco, the hard punching welterweight from Montreal, and the up-and-coming Tony Janiro from Youngstown, meet at Madison Square Garden tonight in the first major boxing show since Japan surrendered.

The bout, limited to eight rounds because of Janiro's age, is the second between the veteran and the sharp, counter-punching youngster and a crowd of 15,000 is expected to pay $70,000 to watch the scrap. In their first bout on July 2 a crowd kicked in with $69,175.

Oooh! What A Headache!

Paavo Katonan makes a valiant attempt to snap Jack Lipscomb's leg in their tussle last week at the armory while Jack holds his head in agony. The same two maulers will meet tonight in a no time limit affair billed as the main event. Walter "Sneeze" Achui will tangle with Georges Dussette in the semi-windup and Milt Olsen will tackle Jack Kiser in the opener.

Katonan To Meet Lipscomb In No Time Limit Tussle

Only time will tell which grappler will win the main scrap tonight at the armory.

Paavo Katonan, who recently regained the west coast light heavyweight belt from Jack Kiser, will battle Jack Lipscomb, newly crowned junior heavyweight king by virtue of a win over Georges Dussette, in a no-time limit bout.

Both boys will be going all out for a triumph in order to preserve their newly won laurels and are about even in weight and experience.

Rassled To Draw
Last week these same two muscled tussled to a draw at the armory in a wild melee that left nothing to be desired in the way of excitement.

Tonight's tiff promises to be even more rugged with the two boys slugging it out until one gains two out of three falls.

In the semi-windup Walter "Sneeze" Achui has been booked by Promoter Mack Lillard to tangle with Dussette and this bout should narrow down to a battle between Achui's famous "Chinese sleeper" and Dussette's dreaded full-Nelson.

Milt Olsen, an exceptionally clever grappler, will have an opportunity to strut his stuff in the opener against Jack Kiser. Olsen has had the misfortune to draw opponents who outweigh him and who employ all the rough stuff in the book in previous bouts here and tonight he will enjoy his first chance in quite a spell to meet a rasher, who uses the same clean, scientific methods.

Four Portland Softball Teams Bid For Crown

PORTLAND, Aug. 17 (AP)—Four Portland teams will clash tonight in the semi-finals of the Oregon softball tourney. The remaining two upstate tens were crossed off the list last night.

Grimshaw Tires raced away to a 10-2 defeat over the Salem Papermakers, and Welders and Beavers overran the Astoria All-Stars 15-1.

Two Grimshaw pitchers, Hamlin and Walker, permitted Salem only two hits, while Younger of the Welders gave up four. The Tiresmen scored one run in the first, netted four in the second and staged a five-run spree in the third.

Grimshaw 10 9 1 Salem 0 2 3 Hamlin, Ted Walker and Minto, Crowfoot, Knight and Singer.

Babe Zaharias Seeks Amateur Golf Accolade

CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (AP)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias of Los Angeles was Chicago-bound today in quest of her first title in the Women's Western amateur golf tournament.

Mrs. Zaharias, sensational track athlete a decade ago, now is fashioning a brilliant golf record, but never before has competed in the 45-year-old amateur classic in which Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia will defend her title for the second straight year.

Other strong contenders include Carol (Babe) Freese of Portland, Ore.

Santa Barbara Nine To Meet Leathernecks

Another top-notch west coast baseball team will perform here Saturday and Sunday against the Leathernecks from the Marine Barracks when the Santa Barbara Marine air station appears at Recreation park.

Both games will start at 2:30 p. m. and this will be an outstanding display of real big-time baseball as it should be played.

Not much is known of the Santa Barbara club except that it is highly regarded in its own balliwick. Jimmy West will start on the mound for the Leathernecks in Saturday's tussle and Hy Chapin will handle the hurling assignment in Sunday's tilt. West has won four and lost none this season and Chapin has annexed 10 triumphs while dropping three.

Cards Sock Phils, 4-0; Cubs Lose

Brooklyn Trips 1st Place Cubs, 2-1; Newhouser Puts Stop To Nats' Threat, 9-2

By JACK HANDB
Associated Press Sports Writer
Billy Southworth's tattered St. Louis Cardinals, limping from town to town and aching in every muscle, still can't be counted out of the National league race.

Five games back with 42 to go, 12 against Chicago, the world champs are making hay in the Philly sunshine while the Cubs are wrestling with the alert Brooklyn.

Bums Top Cubs
Although Charley Grimm's happy band all but knocked the Doogers loose from their moorings in a 20-6 series opener, Lippy Leo Durocher had the Bums back on their toes yesterday to grab a 2-1 evening behind Tom Seals. Hank Wyse, shooting for his 19th, was the victim.

The lip went on record June 1 as saying Seals never would start another game for the Brooks as long as he was manager but since then Uncle Tom has started six, won five and gone all the way three times.

Seals capped a real important one for Durocher yesterday with a banner holiday crowd of 27,882 paid pushing the season attendance to 903,512 and adding another $5000 to Leo's bonus-plus salary.

The left-hander celebrated his complete emergence from the dog house by scoring the first run, knocking in the second and fanning Bill Nicholson on a called third strike with the tying run on third in the ninth. Durocher wasn't around to see the finish because Umpire Ziggy is, 7-2, their seventh straight loss, falling into a tie with the Browns for fifth place.

Cleveland tightened its hold on a first division berth by sheding Philadelphia, 7-6 on Dutch Meyer's single in the last of the ninth.
