Episcopal Church Scene Of Wedding

At one of the most lovely of the mid-summer weddings, Susan Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Kelsey of this city, became the bride on Wednesday evening of Walter W. Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Bower of Hubbard, Oregon. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed in St. Paul's Episcopal church at eight o'clock by the Rev. F. C. Wissenbach before a large group of friends and relatives.

Ann, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the familiar strains of the wedding march played on the church organ by Mrs. Samuel Mushen.

The bride was lovely in a white gown of lace and marquisette fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long lace sleeves, and a long train. For jewelry she wore a single strand of pearls and her fingertip veil of marquisette trimmed in lace was held in place with a tiara of pearls. She carried a wedding bouquet of gardenias centered with a large lavender orchid.

Maid of honor was Shirley Katzmeyer of Klamath Falls, close friend of the bride and a roommate at college. She wore a floor length gown of light blue and carried a bouquet of red roses. Bridesmaids were Gwen Mead of Portland, former Klamath Falls girl, Helen Nielsen of Selma, Calif., one of Ann's college roommates, and Patricia Lynch of Tulelake. Also asked to be one of Ann's bridesmaids was Marianne Lion, student at Stanford university at Palo Alto, but who was unable to come at the last minute.

The three bridesmaids wore long dresses of pastel shades of pink and yellow and carried arm bouquets of pink and lavender sweetpeas. All wore hair ornaments of pastel colored feathers.

Best man for the ceremony was Don Doll, stationed at the Klamath naval air station. Ushers were Richard Muhl and Angelo Martinoni from the air station, and Frank Field, medical corpsman from the Marine Barracks.

Before the wedding ceremony, Patricia Brown sang "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Mushen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kelsey chose to wear a black dress with a low cut neckline trimmed with pink sequins and small pearls. She wore a hat of black sequins. Mrs. Bower, who was in Klamath Falls for her son's wedding from Hubbard, wore a black dress with matching hat and a light blue coat.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for the young couple was held on the lawn of the Kelsey home at 2331 Garden. The table, which was placed under the trees in the yard, was centered with the large three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After Mr. and Mrs. Bower cut the first piece, the confection was served by Mrs. Frank Evans and Mrs. Harry Lynch. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Lee Willits and Mrs. Ed Knupp. Assisting during the reception was Mrs. Wilmot Crandall.

Mrs. Lloyd Baker took care of the guest book and the wedding gifts. Special guests for the wedding were Wilmot Crandall, Mrs. Lee Bowers of Hubbard, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hall and daughter Jacqueline of Medford, Gwen Mead of Portland, and Helen Nielson of Selma.

The young couple left Thursday morning for Lake Tahoe, where they will spend a honeymoon of about two weeks. They will then make their home in Berkeley, Calif.

The groom, who spent much of his boyhood in the Klamath valley, is a second engineer with the merchant marines and re-

Celebrations Occur At Surrender News

Naturally the main point of conversation and celebration this week was the long-awaited arrival of news of the Japanese surrender. First thought in many minds was how long would it be before HE collects enough points to come home and be able to settle down to something near a normal life with no military routine.

And with many servicemen in this area, we've noticed that the new greeting is now "How many points have you got?"

The two-day holiday taken by most people in town gave many the opportunity to pack up and go to the lake for a few days, and with the removal of gas from the ration list, many more took advantage of driving into a gas station, filling up the tank, and heading for the wide open spaces for the first time since the war.

Just missing out on all the celebration in San Francisco, but remaining in Klamath Falls for the excitement was Mrs. Clark Weaver and daughter Constance Ann, who were houseguests at the home of Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver of Auburn street. Mrs. Weaver and young daughter left Tuesday night for San Francisco where they will make their home with Clark if housing conditions permit.
