

AGENCIES LIST PRESENT TOLL JOB HUNTERS

PORTLAND, Aug. 22 (AP)—A federal employment service official estimated today about a fourth of the men and women laid off at Portland-Vancouver area war plants and shipyards will not seek other jobs.

USES Manager James H. Bagan said about 10 per cent of 3000 persons who jammed the office yesterday were placed and that many sought information about employment prospects in other states.

Between Friday and Tuesday, about 9000 persons either sought jobs at the agency or filed applications for state unemployment compensation.

Servicemen job hunters number about 200 daily, Bagan reported, and the number will double in a few weeks.

A laundry union labor recruiting office nearby reported few workers accepting jobs offered at 62 cents for women and $1.00 and $1.15 for men.

One interview ended when the man said "I can't live on that!"

Bagan said reports indicate about 24,000 workers are needed in Oregon to harvest and process foods during the next several weeks.

OPA Swamped With Rent Refund Appeals

PORTLAND, Aug. 22 (AP)—The district OPA said today it was swamped with appeals from departing war workers to collect refunds for alleged rent overcharges.

The OPA said all tenants who believe themselves overcharged must file suit, not depend on the agency to collect.

Federal rent control is still in effect here, at Astoria, Seaside, Tillamook, Pendleton, Eugene, Corvallis, Medford, Roseburg and Klamath Falls.

Lacking speed and trim lines, but nevertheless versatile to the extreme, she is known affectionately to "Lit A" and "Lit B" fans among crew members as "Available Jones."

Kerns is no newcomer to the Pacific. As a young man, he sailed that part of the world in a 50-foot ketch as an assistant to an ichthyologist and now visits many parts where he had traveled before.

ABOARD A FAST CARRIER IN THE PACIFIC—Robert Monroe Smith, 127 S. 7th street, Klamath Falls, who is now serving in the United States navy, recently was advanced in rate from fireman second class to fireman first class.

Hitting Omaha beach, July 7, 1944, the 35th fought the Germans from St. Lo, broke the counteroffensive at Mortain, swept across France, cracked into Germany's Saar valley on December 12, and then whipped into Belgium and Luxembourg to wither Von Rundstedt's Ardennes bulge.

S/Sgt. Baker is the son of Mrs. Willard Baker, 926 Dolores, Klamath Falls.

He holds the following decorations: Good Conduct ribbon, ETO ribbon with five stars, Purple Heart with cluster, Combat Infantry badge and Presidential citation.

He served on the fifth army front in the 362nd infantry regiment of the 91st "Powder River" division.

The award citation reads: "When the combat patrol of which he was scout was fired on by four enemy machineguns, Guyette performed most heroically. Though bullets cut his pistol belt, he moved directly in the face of the intense fire. His advance, and the accurate fire from his sub-machinegun covered the flanking movement of a part of the patrol and the enemy positions were taken," concluded the citation.

His wife, Elaine Guyette, lives at 838 Walnut street, Klamath Falls. His home is at Rochester, N. Y.

Wounded KF Soldier Gets Treatment At Walla Walla

Twice wounded in his island jumping experience in the Southwest Pacific, PFC George M. Utley is a patient at the McCaw General hospital, Walla Walla, Wash., recovering from wounds received on Okinawa.

Utley went to Leyte in March of this year and joined his amphibian tank unit for the invasion of Zamami Shima on March 28. He received wounds in the neck before they reached the beach but continued in action until the beach head was secured. He was then taken to a hospital ship in the harbor for treatment. Continuing on duty with his unit, they crossed the island meeting little resistance.

Moving up to Ie Shima on April 16, the unit met stiffer resistance and was engaged in a tough battle for the one hill on the island.

Landing on Okinawa on May 5, the amphibians moved forward 1000 yards in the first six days. Utley saw his buddy killed by a 8-year-old Japanese boy, who walked up to him with a grenade hidden in his clothing, paying the price of an American soldier with his own life.

On May 11, Utley's unit was occupying a trench evacuated by the Japs. The enemy was laying a heavy mortar barrage and Utley was hit in the right arm by shell fragments. The mortar landed about a yard from him when it burst and 27 of the 38 men in the trench were wounded.

Receiving medical aid in the trench, the men were removed to a hospital on Okinawa. Utley was flown to Guam and returned by plane to the United States, arriving at McCaw August 1.

The Purple Heart and Cluster were awarded him at Guam. In addition he wears the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon with two stars and arrowhead and the combat infantryman's badge.

His mother, Mrs. Katherine Utley, lives at 1533 Derby, Klamath Falls. A brother, Sgt. Wesley Utley, is serving in the army air force on Okinawa.

SERVICEMAN VISITS IN CASCADE SUMMIT

CASCADE SUMMIT—The people of Cascade Summit received a pleasant surprise Saturday when Lt. Warren Moore arrived at Summit Lodge where he had worked for three successive summers. Lt. Moore, who piloted a bomber over Germany, was shot down on his 17th mission. He was taken prisoner and was sent to northern Germany where he and the people, not having been bombed, were more friendly. He reports that he was well treated but says that during the seven months he was a prisoner of war he received no mail. Mail sent to him from Cascade Summit was returned marked "Missing" and it was feared he had been killed.

Lt. Moore, with Lt. Donald Dorman, Spokane, who also was a prisoner of war, are driving to California where they will report for further military instructions.

After Lt. Moore is released from the army he will enroll at the University of Washington where he expects to major in psychology. He has had four years of army life.
