

Comings And Goings Make Social News

Goodbyes are being said this weekend to Mrs. George Kingan and two children, Sarah Elizabeth and Deborah Ann, who are leaving the first of this next week to make their home with Mr. Kingan in Salem.

Mr. Kingan has been in Salem for the past several months and the Kingans have sold their home on Eldorado street and have purchased a residence at 110 West Lincoln in the capitol city.

An interesting note about their new home is that it was formerly owned by Bruce Spaulding who recently bought the house which was occupied by Governor Earl Snell and their family.

Mrs. Kingan was honored one evening last week when a group of friends surprised her with a handkerchief shower. Guests were Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck, Mrs. Greer Drew, Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Charles Mack, Mrs. Bryant Williams, Mrs. Howard Dixon and Mrs. Orth Sismore.

Visitors here this past week have been Mrs. Wendell H. Patch and Mrs. Bob H. Napier, both of Salem. They have been at the home of Mrs. James Kerns on Laguna street. Mrs. Napier is the former Peggy Hay and taught for some time at KUHS. Her parents, Judge and Mrs. Arthur D. Hay of Salem, came down from Salem this week and accompanied the two women back to their homes on Friday. Also visiting at the Kerns home Thursday was Mr. and Mrs. Mungo Lyons of Lakeview.

Several informal affairs have been given for the two women during their stay here. They were entertained with an outdoor supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mustien and they were also guests for luncheon Wednesday of J. H. Napier.

Expected to arrive this next week is PFC Richard M. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, of 1335 Pacific Terrace. He has been on duty with the army in Africa and Italy and this is the first time home in three years. His wife, the former Gladys Park, is coming from San Mateo on Tuesday and will join him here.

A houseguest at the J. R. Shaw home on Pacific Terrace this week is Caryl Delzell of Portland who is here visiting with Wanda Shaw.

A special guest at the Reames golf and country club last week was Mrs. Sol Davis of Seattle who was visiting with her sister, Mrs. Bill Grove, of this city.

With the canning season coming on, senior hostesses at the USO were busy this week pickling cucumbers. Incidentally, any gardeners who might have any extra cucumbers or pickles on hand could put them to good use by taking them down to the USO. Servicemen in our area consume a tremendous amount of the pickles at the snack bar of the USO and we're sure they would be welcomed.
