

Exhibits, Tea Held In Merrill

MERRILL—A profusion of late summer blossoms, the cream of Merrill gardens, was arranged for the flower show, silver tea and war trophy exhibit given by the Lost River Garden club on Sunday afternoon, August 19, in the gymnasium of the high school. Recognition of the various exhibits was by popular vote. No prizes were given and all money from the tea is to be used for the "Seeds for Overseas" project that the club is sponsoring.

Mrs. Margaret Lamb, state publicity chairman of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, Portland, attended during the afternoon. The guest book included names from Klamath Falls, Portland, Malin, Tulelake and Merrill.

War trophies, under the care of Mrs. M. A. Bowman, were exhibited by Mrs. E. T. Crawford, Mrs. Molschenbacher, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor and Mrs. Dale West, all trophies having been sent from the European and Pacific theaters of war.

The tea table, covered with a lace and linen imported cloth belonging to Mrs. J. Frank Adams, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of gladioli and asters in a pottery boat. Punch was served from a large round block of ice in which a circulet of flowers had been frozen. The unusual feature was arranged by Mrs. Jess Dieter, Tulelake, and Mrs. N. H. Bogue, Merrill.

Assisting with the serving were three young women, Dolores Steele, Geraldine McKendree and Patty O'Connor, all in summer formals and gay hats made of flowers and packets of flower seeds. These were made by Mrs. Dale West.

From a horticultural standpoint the "Golden Girl" dahlias, measuring nine inches across, grown and exhibited by Mrs. Jess Whitlatch of Malin, rated above all other entries.

An outstanding exhibit was entered by Mrs. Will Wood, which included miniature button gardens and stick and stone arrangements featuring her hand-made figures.

Instrumental numbers were offered during the afternoon by Mrs. Lillian Thomason and Geraldine McKendree at the piano and by Mrs. J. A. Van Cleve, violinist.

Mrs. Hugh O'Connor was general chairman and Mrs. J. R. Blatch is president of the club. The list of winning entries follows:

Ten Years Old

Linda Ann Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis of Malin, celebrated her tenth birthday on Saturday, August 18. She and her houseguest, Gloria Stolk of Klamath Falls, were hostesses to a group of guests, including Jean Rajnus, Pearl Ottoman, Joanne Wilson of Malin, and Alice Stoneypher of Tulelake.

Clever place cards of hollyhock dolls were at each place and each little girl had a miniature cake with one candle.

Past Matrons

Past Matrons of the Order of the Eastern Star will meet Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, August 31, at the home of Mrs. A. B. Epperson, 130 First street, for a potluck picnic. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service. Mrs. Epperson is president of the Aloha Past Matrons club.

Members having birthdays in June, July or August will have a special table. This will be the last social affair before the regular fall monthly meetings of the order.

Fort Klamath Couple Weds In Washington

FORT KLAMATH—An event of August 6 at Vancouver, Wash., was the marriage of two local residents, when Luvna Mae Schroeder became the bride of BM 1/c Norman Harold Wimer, U. S. navy. The double ring ceremony was read at 3:30 p. m. by Justice of the Peace Earl Eswell. Attending the bride and groom were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Deffenbacher of Chilouquin.

For her wedding, the bride was attired in a street length blue frock with white accessories, with corsage of Tallman roses. She has been a resident of Fort Klamath for several years, and for the past six months has been employed at the Kaiser shipyards in Portland.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wimer of Fort Klamath, and is a veteran of two and a half years' active duty with the navy in the South Pacific war zone. Before the war, he had served four years in the navy following his graduation from the Fort Klamath high school. Prior to entering the service, he was employed in logging by the Chilouquin Lumber company.

After visiting relatives and friends here during his 19-day furlough, BM 1/c Wimer left Monday evening for San Francisco to report for further orders. His wife will be employed at the Fort Klamath hotel during his absence, and the couple plan in the future to reside at their home in Chilouquin.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McClellan of this city were honored on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary recently when Mr. and Mrs. Verne McClellan entertained for them at their home on High street.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klahn, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. West, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bruner, Mrs. S. P. Dehlinger, Mrs. Bob Dehlinger, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Grace Fairclough, Bertha Enman, Elaine Gray, Estella Hill, Mary Barton, Diane Barton, Nancy McClellan, Christine Demetrakos, Pat McClellan, Edna Robinson, Cora Enman, Hugh McClellan, Wylie S. McCowan, A. J. Summers, C. R. McClellan, Bob Enman, Scott Thompson and Walter Enman.

Pinochle Club

Ye Olde Pinochle club met with Nona Hall, 915 East Main on Thursday, August 9, for luncheon and cards. Beside the regular members there were two guests, Mrs. Phil Evans, visiting here from Los Angeles, and Mrs. J. D. Upton. High score for cards went to Esther Adkisson, second to Fannie Goddard, and the pinochle award was given to Mrs. Upton.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis entertained at their home near Malin with cocktails and dinner on Tuesday evening, August 14.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chaburn Sr., of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Alice and Billy of Tulelake, Mr. Jerry Rajnus and son Jerry of Malin and Mrs. Frances Alderdice of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis and family now reside near Malin and are engaged in farming. He has been in transportation business for the past ten years and has resigned his position with Pacific Motor Trucking. The Ellis' have rented their home at 1018 Eldorado.

Luncheon

Mrs. Harry Huddart entertained with a one o'clock luncheon at her home at 1635 Siskiyon on Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. John Porter, and her niece, Harriet, from Minot, N. D.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Roy Grumbles, Mrs. Loine Benson, Mrs. A. Bradford, Mrs. Pat Fogarty, Mrs. Bill Campbell, Mrs. Ruby Hallett, Donna Bradford, Bonita Huddart and the honor guests and hostess.

The afternoon was spent visiting and sewing.

Red Cross sewing occupied the evening of Wednesday, August 22, when the Thimble club met with Vera Reeves of 437 N. 3rd. Stella Dryden, president of the club, conducted the short business meeting and refreshments were served during the evening by the hostess.

The Eagles Auxiliary will hold an initiation of new candidates at their regular meeting to be held this coming Tuesday night, August 29, in the FOE hall. Officers and drill team are asked to wear formals.

Entertainment and refreshments with the Aerie members will follow the initiation.

Yomarco

The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church was delightfully entertained on August 2 with a chicken pie supper on the lawn of the Merrill high-ways. Mr. and Mrs. William Stolk were hosts.

Among those present was the new teacher, Marian Smith, who is substituting for Mrs. Stephen Moss during her leave of absence. Also attending were 32 members and guests and 19 children.

Games followed the supper after which everyone grouped around the piano and enjoyed a song fest. Mrs. William Terwilliger accompanied at the piano and Mr. Footo on the violin.

The next supper will be held on September 6 at the lake-shore residence of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redman at 603 Front.
