

Marines To Clash With Navy For Championship

Winner Of Southern Oregon League To Be Decided In Crucial Tilt Sunday

Coming out of the Southern Oregon league baseball playoffs with the one and two spots respectively, the naval air station and the Marine Barracks nines were preparing this week for their deciding tussle at Recreation park Sunday.

3 Crucial Series Set In Majors

Cubs Come To Grips With Cards; Tigers Meet Tribe; Yankees Battle Washington

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Three of the most important series still hanging on the major league calendar open today as the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals come to grips for the National league lead while the American presents two dog fights featuring Detroit vs. Cleveland and New York at Washington.

Anything can happen to the standings before Sunday night when both the Red Birds and Senators could be occupying the top rung. St. Louis, in addition to sweeping all four from the first place Bruins, would have to count on Chicago's "suspended game" with Brooklyn as lost to case into the lead by percentage points.

Three Strong Starters

Billy Southworth has the same three-starters who knocked off Chicago three straight last weekend, to go in the four-game series opening tonight under the Sportsman's park arena. Harry Brecheen, Ken Burkhardt and Red Barrett with probably George Dockins to finish up. Charley Grimm also has his ace in line with Hank Wyse, Claude Passeau, Hank Borowy and Ray Prim ready. Two single night games and a Sunday double are listed.

Pittsburgh made the Cards' task a little easier yesterday by downing Chicago, 6-4, slicing their lead to four games. Three runs in the seventh with the help of a triple by Al Giombrido, a double by Bill Salkeld and a single by Frankie Gustine defeated Reliefer Paul Erickson. Preacher Roe scored his 11th triumph with help from Xavier Rescigno. Stan Hack's first inning single was the 2000th hit of his major league career.

New York Gains

New York was the only contender to gain in the American by a 7-1 romp over Boston with Floyd Bevens turning in a gaudy one-hit job.

Cleveland got away with a 4-4 tie in Chicago as Don Ross homered after Dutch Meyer singled in the ninth frame off Orval Grove. It was a tie game because the umpires had to halt play by agreement at the end of the ninth to permit the Tribe to hop a rattler for Detroit. All other American leaguers had an off day.

Any repetition of last week's sweeps by Cleveland over Detroit and New York over Washington will really scramble the American league chase, setting the stage for another driving September finish.

The Tigers are sure to see Bobby Feller again, probably Sunday, and must face Allie Reynolds and Steve Gromek while countering with Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouse in the first two tilts of the three-game set.

Geese Coming In At Tulelake

Geese are beginning to wing in at the Tulelake game refuge, according to Howard Sargeant, refuge manager, although no definite count has yet been taken.

They are mostly honkers, he said, and lots of speckle-breast arrived there last week. The geese are feeding on Lower Klamath lake more than at Tulelake, Sargeant stated, and most of the flocks are migrating from the extreme northern part of the United States.

No snow geese have arrived as yet, but an influx of geese of all kinds is expected soon, he said.

offs at Medford. This took place last weekend when the navy and the marines, who were deadlocked in the first place position, fought it out to an 11-1 decision in favor of the Bluejackets. Then on the following day, the sailors played the third place Medford Craters and the Leathernecks met the fourth place Central Point Studs. The navy won 20-7 and the marines came through, 10-9.

Sunday's game then is strictly one of local interest. Both military teams, and natural rivals, the sailors and Leathernecks have outclassed all opposition in this area and are definitely set on putting everything into the final encounter to decide the winner of the league.

For the pitching duties the marines will probably start Hy Chapin, impressive right hander, who has won 11 and lost 4 this season while the navy is undecided at the present time. Game time is three o'clock Sunday afternoon and the public is invited to attend free of charge.

Shields Beaten By Argentinian In Net Tourney

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP)—Elimination of fifth-seeded Frank X. Shields by Argentinian's Alejo Russell and the defeat of Wednesday's upset winner, Major Frank Guernsey, were yesterday's outstanding events in the 64th national tennis championships. Russell, a hard-hitting but steady player, outlasted the veteran Shields, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3. In the quarter finals today Russell will oppose second-seeded Bill Talbert of Wilmington, Del., who has won nine tournaments already this summer.

Guernsey was a n't steady enough to win against unseeded Sidney B. Wood of New York, a Wimbledon champion back in 1931 who still plays topflight tennis. Wood came through by a 6-3, 6-2 count and will oppose sixth-seeded Elwood Cooke, a 6-2, 6-2 winner over National Junior Champion Herbie Flam. The tourney's No. 1 man, Sgt. Frank Parker, stayed around ahead of the field with an easy 6-3, 6-2 quarter final victory over Lt. Seymour Greenberg, seventh seeded Chicagoan.

Fairy Trace Cops Longacres Feature

SEATTLE, Aug. 31 (AP)—Fairy Trace made up a 10-length disadvantage to win the $1020 feature seventh race at Longacres race track yesterday.

The winner, paid $14.30, $6.10 and $2.90 in the mutuels, French Parosol placed second for $5.80 and $2.60 and the favorite, Join Up, paid $2.30 show money. Total mutual handle for the day was $174,102.

Beavers Whip Padres, 6-1; Increase Lead To 2 1/2 Games

By PAUL WELLS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The pressure on the Portland Beavers eased slightly today as the Pacific Coast league pacesetters added a game to their slim first-place margin. Their 6-1 victory over the San Diego Padres, plus Seattle's 5-4 defeat at the hands of the Sacramento Solons, put the Beavs two and a half games ahead of the second-spot Rainiers.

San Francisco's 3-1 loss to Los Angeles cut the third-berth Seals' lead over the Solons to a single tilt. Hollywood dimmed Oakland's hopes of entering the first division by beating the Acorns 5-2.

Pitching Pays Off

Stalwart pitching, which has been the bulwark of Portland's strength all season, paid off again last night. Portsider Wandal Mossor allowed San Diego only two hits and would have gained a shutout except for his own wildness when he walked four men in the first inning. Centerfielder Frank Shone, who scored three runs, broke the ice for the Beavers in the third when he doubled and came home on Mel Nune's single. Portland counted again in the fifth, added a pair in the seventh and two more in the ninth, all off Southpaw Jim Brillheart, losing pitcher.

Suds Edged Out

Seattle appeared to have its game with Sacramento safely stowed away, until lefthander Chet Johnson weakened with

Lipscomb To Defend Junior Mat Crown Against Dusette

Blood and gore will drip from the Klamath arena tonight when Jack "Buck" Lipscomb defends his junior heavyweight crown against his hated rival, George Dusette, the French-Canadian Hercules.

The brutal Hoosier has snarled that he will send Dusette from the ring in a wooden overcoat and that he thinks Georges has unmitigated gall to even attempt to regain the belt. In fact, Jack leads one to believe that the party is going to be a bit rough tonight and that the challenger will be lucky to get out in one whole piece.

On the other hand, Dusette has several points in his favor. He defeated Lipscomb here last week and also possesses an iron determination to regain the laurels he lost to Jack in Portland.

Chances are Georges will depend mainly upon his crushing full-Nelson to win back the toga, while Lipscomb will resort to every trick in the book to belabor his opponent into submission.

Betting up and down the main drag seems to give Lipscomb a slight edge with the odds mounting in his favor as the time for the bout comes nearer. Supporters of Dusette point out that he possesses the most punishing hold of any muscled on the circuit in his full-Nelson, but the boys backing Lipscomb feel that Georges will not be able to cope with Jack's savage attack.

Whoever wins, this tussle will be one of the most exciting frays to take place here since Tige was a small dog and may be the best man win.

In the semi-windup, Gorilla Poggi is slated to tangle with Terrible Ivan Jones in another first class tiff. Poggi made an auspicious debut here last week by practically moidering Millt Olsen and will be hot after another triumph tonight. Ivan should give Gorilla more of a battle, however, as he is not hopelessly as outweighed as Olsen was in the previous scuffle.

Huskies End Pre-Season Grid Session

SEATTLE, Aug. 31 (AP)—The University of Washington's football squad closes out its delayed "spring practice" today and packs away the moleskins for a week—until the official opening of fall practice September 8.

Naval trainees at the school have been the candidates to go through this off-season practice program. Civilian students will join them with the regular opening and Coach Pest Welch is hoping to find a number of former high school standouts on the list.

He mentioned especially Norm Sansregret of Bellingham, 193-pound lefthanded passer who could fit nicely into the T-formation planned by the coach.

The intra-squad game climaxed the practice program was held yesterday, with End Louie Bevonditch catching two touchdown passes as the "purples" beat the "reds" 12 to 8.

Four Top Favorites In Semi-Final Round Of Women's Golf Bee

DENVER, Aug. 31 (AP)—The four top-heavy favorites in the fourth annual Broadmoor women's invitation golf tournament—which so far hasn't produced an important upset—squared off against each other in the semi-finals today.

The powerful Mildred (Babe) Didrikson Zaharias of Denver and Los Angeles tackles Mrs. Virgil Proctor of Colorado Springs, and medalist Dorothy Kieley of Los Angeles measures her skill against Mrs. Ernest Blanton of Enid, Okla.

Tar Heels Gain Finals Of Legion Baseball Tourney

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 31 (AP)—The 19th annual American Legion junior baseball finals is turning out to be one of the most hotly-contested in the annals of the classic.

Four games thus far have produced three heart-pumping contests, each of which has been decided by one run.

And the host state's entry, Shelby, N. C., has won two of these pulse-quickeners. The Tar Heels took 10 innings to cash Roy "Boots" Kent's one-hit hurling last night, 2-1, over Oak Park, Ill., and gain the final round. Shelby's first game victory was a 3-2 ninth inning affair over Tucson, Ariz. Oak Park won its opener, 3-1, from Trenton Monday, although outhit, eight to four.

Shelby now awaits the result of tonight's semi-final game between Oak Park and Trenton, the loser of which will be eliminated. Shelby and the winners will meet tomorrow night, with a Shelby victory giving the Tar Heels the title. However, if Shelby loses, a deciding game will be played Monday night.

George (Sonny) Horne, Niles, O., middleweight, and Artie Levine of Brooklyn, who are scheduled for 10 rounds.

Horne served in the navy while Levine put in a hitch with the marines. Both received discharges last February and since then Horne has engaged in five bouts and won them all, while Levine was victorious in seven of his last eight bouts.

Don Hutson Leads Packers To 19-7 Win Over "Stars"

By JIMMY JORDAN
CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP)—Who ever first decided that a good, alert defense is the best sort of offense in football apparently had that knowledge carried along to Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau, head coach of the Green Bay Packers.

At least, it was that alert defense against the vaunted passing of Coach Bernie Bierman's college all-stars that carried the national football league champions to a roaring 19 to 7 victory in the 12th annual all-star football classic in Soldier field last night.

7th Pro Victory

There was plenty to cheer about—and plenty for the partisan crowd of 92,753 to groan about, too—as the Packers roared to the seventh victory for the pros over the collegians, and the second for the Packers, personally. But it was that pass defense that fashioned one Green Bay touchdown, the second on a thrilling 82-yard run by the Veteran Don Hutson less than a minute after the last period opened, and halted almost every all-star threat.

The Packers found the aerial weapon, their usual forte, outclassed more than three to two by the collegians. Bierman's charges used a more daring pass-attack, with longer throws, but in every other department the Packers were definitely superior.

All-Stars Outgained

They outgained the all-stars almost two to one on the ground—32 yards to 68—and roared into action with a running attack at the start that put the college boys back on their heels and set up the first Packer score, a field goal by Hutson.

They mixed two passes into a drive from the 44-yard line after the first kickoff and the incomparable Hutson, playing his eleventh year of pro football, booted the three-pointer from the 20-yard line.
