Today's Roundup

By MALCOLM EPLEY
THERE'S an old axiom around this newspaper office that when both sides in a warm local controversy complain to us, we can be satisfied with our fair handling of the situation.

How It Happened
HERE'S what happened:
The CIO advertisement and the companies' advertisement were handed to our advertising department on Wednesday and authorized for publication Thursday.

Our Conscience Is Clear
NOW, when our news representative called the following day, he was told by a union official that there would be no more news for this paper, on the indicated ground that the union had not been treated fairly.

Chiang Compromise
THUS Chiang is being asked to compromise on his principles. It is a tense moment. If he compromises it means at least temporary peace.

Conciliator
THIS brilliant, American-educated woman, who ranks among the world's great personages, long has been her husband's right hand.

Drop in Jobless Pay Claims Seen
SALEM, Sept. 1 (AP)—Claims filed with the unemployment compensation commission during the second post-war week totaled 1640, compared with 2170 during the first week after the war ended, the commission said today.

Two Men Fined On Drunken Charge
TULELAKE — Two drunks were fined in police court this week with police judge Irving Capek setting a $100 fine on A. L. Kitchen, 47, former Washington resident, who was picked up on a drunken driving charge.

Flash of Life
BARGAIN?
MIRAMIR, Calif., Sept. 1 (AP)—A polyesian chief in the Central Pacific thought his daughter a good trade for a briar pipe, but 1st Lt. John H. LaVoy, marine dive-bomber pilot from Sparks, Nev., declined the chief's offer.

Academy to Open on September 4
Sacred Heart academy will be open for registration on Tuesday, September 4. Both grade school and high school departments have been fully standardized by the state department of public instruction.

strike is for both sides to give news frankly and openly to the press. Handouts filled with propaganda and generalities aren't likely to do the job.

The War Today

By DeWITT MacKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst
OVER in Tokyo bay the great man-of-war Missouri swings at anchor amidst the armada of fighting ships, component in its massive strength, its decks gleaming and its brass gleaming.

Active Threat
THIS Chinese development in a way is as important as the official surrender aboard the Missouri. For Japan already is beaten and has lowered her flag, while the fierce quarrel between the Chinese, communists and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's government is an active threat to peace in Asia.

Step Forward
THAT was a step forward, but with the arrival of the communist leaders in Chungking their central committee issued a manifesto demanding the immediate formation of a coalition government, giving the communists a full place.

uses this train. Anyway, it is a transportation gem in the general mass of rubble that musses up travel in these days of war restrictions and shortages.

AS a whole, British day trains are unbelievably crowded, unbelievably dirty and shabby and fantastically war-worn and dilapidated—as they have a perfect right to be, since they are in their sixth year of war service with neither time nor materials for slipping up.

YOU soon learn the prime racket, which is to buy a third-class ticket, drop into a seat in the first-class compartment if you can find one empty and when the conductor comes around you pay him the difference and all is rosy. If you can't find a first-class compartment with a seat left you've still paid for no more than the service you get.

Fire Damage
LEBANON, Sept. 1 (AP)—Round Top Logging company officials yesterday estimated damage done by a three-day forest fire controlled Monday at $45,000. Origin of the 500-acre blaze, which burned mostly cut-over land, was not determined.
