

BPW Board Plans Year's Activities

New committee chairman appointments for the Business and Professional Women's club were announced by the president, Hazel Morrison, at a board meeting held Friday evening, August 24, at the home of Ann Price on North Ninth, with Mary Stewart and Lorraine Quillen as hostesses.

The appointments include Mary Stewart, educational; Gertrude Tolle, emblem; Ann Price, properties; Lorraine Quillen, finance; Mabel Humble and Willie Uhlig, membership; Hattie Evans, social and calling; Agnes Geddes, communications.

Olive Cornett, legislative; Ellen Upp, program; Isabel Brixner, parliamentarian; Norma Miller, Camp Fire; Annis Struthers, health and recreation; Martha Keller, war activities; Lucile Tweed, international relations; Edna Russell, scrapbook, and Joy Rolph, publicity.

Part of the year's program was planned under the direction of Miss Upp, and it was decided that the scheduled Labor Day meeting would not be held, but that the regular meetings would start on September 17, which will be in the nature of a rally under the direction of the membership chairmen. All business women in Klamath county, who are interested in a BPW membership, are invited to be present at this time.

A brief sketch of the program shows an international relations meeting planned for October 1, and observance of National BPW week on October 15. National Education week will be observed on November 5, and a Thanksgiving party will be held at the November 19 meeting.

A legislative program will be given on December 3, and a Christmas party on December 17. Initiation of new members is scheduled on January 21, with the emblem committee in charge.

High school seniors will probably be invited to be guests for the February 4 meeting, which will be in charge of the health committee. A Valentine party with square dancing is on the book for February 18, while Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls will be invited to present the entertainment on March 4.

Officers of the club will make their own plans and be hostesses on March 18, and the annual birthday party will again be held on April 1. Just preceding the state convention at Hood River, postponed from last year, election of officers will take place on May 6, with installation on May 20.

Opening fall activities, BPW members have been asked to take over the USO center on Sunday, September 9. Lorraine Quillen is in charge of arrangements and will have more about this next week.

The next meeting of the executive board is announced for Monday, September 10, and will be at the home of Hattie Evans on Wall street.

Indoor Picnic

On the evening of August 15, Charlotte Martin, royal matron, gave an indoor picnic in the Masonic temple for officers and members of Friendship court number 11, Order of the Amaranth.

Decorations were in the patriotic theme with flags and flowers to commemorate victory. After a delicious picnic dinner, cards and games were enjoyed by the many members present.

The first meeting of the Order of the Amaranth in the fall season will be held on Saturday, September 8, in the Masonic temple at 8 p. m. At this time, Adah Martin, grand royal matron of the grand court of Oregon, will make her official visit. All members and visiting members are cordially invited.

Supper

Croquet was the main diversion at a potluck supper, held at the Oregon State college experiment station Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCambridge were honor guests with their daughter Bobbie, and E. R. Jackman, extension farm crop specialist of OSC.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schieferstein, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garrison and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dunwoodie and son and daughter; PFC and Mrs. Jack Jaskiewicz, Mrs. Walter Jendrzewski and daughter Ann; Mrs. Jon R. Grimes and Michael; Elizabeth Ann Jones, Blanch and Vera Ottoman and brother Norman; Barbara Nyhart, and Elenora Weatherford.

Farewell Dinner

Various organizations of St. Paul's church will give a farewell potluck dinner in honor of Bishop Remington at the parish house on Saturday, September 8, at 8:30.

All members and friends of the parish are cordially invited to attend.

Sewing Group

Mrs. Harold M. Brown, 1937 LeRoy street, was hostess to members of the Art Needle Work club and a few invited guests Wednesday afternoon for the club's initial meeting of the fall season.

Special guests were Mrs. Dorothy Luce, R. N., who was superintendent of the old Blackburn hospital about 30 years ago, and who is a guest of Mrs. Lyle O. Mills from her home in Idaho; Mrs. Ernest Moser (Edna Dunbar), who will be leaving with her husband in a few weeks for their missionary post in Africa; Mrs. C. H. Murdoch, Mrs. F. R. Olds and Mrs. Grace Bourquin. Fourteen club members were present, including Mrs. Samuel Edward Martin of Piedmont, Calif., an out-of-state member who is visiting relatives and friends in Klamath Falls for a few days.

Mrs. Brown exhibited two pieces of artistic needlework to the club whose members are always interested in this skill. One was a quilt of intricate design made by Mrs. Brown's grandmother many years ago. Another was an Indian doll fashioned from calf skin, real bear hair, nylon hose, and other things, and was recently presented to Dr. Brown by Mrs. Lyle O. Mills who made the doll.

Mrs. J. F. Goeller, 234 South Riverside, will entertain the club Wednesday afternoon, September 19.

The League of Women Voters will sponsor a rummage sale on September 6 and 7 from 10 a. m. until 6 p. m. at the Balsiger Motor company building. Rummage can be brought there or anyone wishing to bring rummage may call Mrs. Floyd C. Ranker at 7381.

Those on the committee are Mrs. E. K. Loosley, chairman, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. R. E. Wright and Mrs. Donald McKay.

Valley Garden Club Sponsors Fall Show

BONANZA—The Bonanza-Langell Valley Garden club sponsored a flower show in the library last Friday afternoon. There were many lovely flower displays entered by women of the community. Gladioli and a number of dahila bouquets were among the displays.

Also shown were several victory garden displays which included a large variety of vegetables and fruits. In flower arrangements, Mrs. Irene Hartley took first prize in the living room display which was made up of cosmos, dahlias and gladioli in shades of purple and lavender.

Mrs. Mary Sparks won the dining room award with a lovely bouquet of dwarf dahlias in various shades. Mrs. Lizzie Schmor won first prize in the miniature garden class. Her display was a small rock garden with tiny zinnias and moss attractively arranged.

Mrs. Alta Dixon's display of a large mixed bouquet took first award in the kitchen display. The flowers which were arranged in a large yellow bowl had the largest variety in the show.

An angel wing begonia, owned by Mrs. Irene Hartley, took first prize in the house plant display. Mrs. Lizzy Schmor's old fashioned bouquet of clover blooms and wild grass won first prize in that class. Mrs. Schmor also won the prize in the victory garden group.

Blue ribbons went to Mrs. Vesta Boggs for her Bessie Brown rose and dusty gladioli as the best specimens. Other ribbons given for best specimens went to Mrs. Daisy Cox for Giant Swiss pansy, Mrs. Alta Dixon for giant zinnia; Mrs. Mary Sparks for the best dahila and gladioli, and to Mrs. Schmor for the phlox and calendula.

Mrs. Blanche Gowan was chairman of the flower show and she was assisted by Belle Ross, Mary Dearborn and Mary Leidy. Tea and cake were served and the proceeds from the show went to the Red Cross.
