

HEAVY RAINS IMPROVE LAND IN NORTHWEST

PORTLAND, Sept. 6 (AP)—Heavy rains in northwestern Oregon improved pastures last week, but elsewhere in the state ground was very dry, the weather bureau reported today.

La Grande and Ontario registered 98, highest temperature for the week. Klamath Falls, Madras and Burns all hit the 36 low. Portland, with 1.31 inches precipitation and Salem with .86 of an inch were the only two cities to top half an inch, and most other cities got little or no rain.

Harvest Progress
Harvest of spring grain and cutting of late crops of hay and legume and grass seed made good progress, and corn developed well. Rain which delayed hop picking in the Willamette valley was of benefit to late potatoes and fall truck crops. Picking of Bartlett pears and peaches progressed satisfactorily except in northwest counties, where rain did some damage.

New Pine Creek

Due to the Round-up week, the regular meeting of the East Side grange to have been held last Saturday night was postponed to September 8. The Home Ec club meeting was also postponed to Thursday, September 6.

R. W. Odle left last Wednesday for Vancouver, where he will spend part of his vacation which was forced upon him when he pulled some ligaments in his back and was unable to continue with his work at the Keller mill.

Raymond Fisher and family returned last Wednesday from a trip along the coast from Crescent City, Calif., to Newport, Ore.

Mrs. Allie Hammersley left last Saturday morning for Alturas to visit with relatives.

Clifford Partin took the stage last Saturday morning for San Francisco where he will be re-assigned.

Jimmy McGrew, who was home on a 10-day furlough, was taken to Klamath Falls last Saturday by his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Blunt, and her husband, to board the train for Camp Albany, Ore.

An additional $5 was donated to the cemetery this week by Harold Smith of Tionesta.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mossman moved to Willow Ranch last week where they will be closer to their work.

Jessie Steward of Sacramento arrived last Saturday to take over her duties as teacher at the State Line school.

The former presidents of France received more than double the salary of the president of the United States.

Postwar Problems for President and Congress

Illustrated above are some of the major headaches facing President Truman and Congress. Of first interest to everyone is the unemployment situation. Millions of servicemen are being discharged and millions of workers released from war plants. Full employment, unemployment compensation, job-making public works and similar measures contain dynamite for many a congressional fight. Another headache is how best to dispose of the millions of dollars worth of industrial plants, built in wartime, by selling or leasing to producers. Many draftees now resent being taken into the Army. Congress may order a 30-day "draft holiday." That eternal headache, taxes, becomes a migraine case, as citizens look for postwar tax reduction. President and Congress must decide how much, and who benefits—the little fellow or the big taxpayer. With the services anxious to keep a large Army and Navy for defense, and millions of servicemen with just one desire—to get home as quickly as possible—demonstration is another prime problem.

Wainwright Felt Sadistic Abuse From Jap Jailers

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6 (AP)—A graphic, bitter story of sadistic abuse of American prisoners by the Japanese, including the slapping and beating of Lt. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, was told by Maj. Gen. Albert N. Jones, on his arrival home.

Surrounded by his family, the general told his story quietly. The warm homecoming he had received just a few hours before seemed to have taken some of the bitterness from his feelings.

When he was through he said: "I don't like Nips. I don't like them at all."

In Death March
Captured on the west side of Bataan April 11, 1942, he and his troops took part in the "death march" to Camp O'Donnell where they were "turned over to the devil."

The general saw his men die by the hundreds for lack of water, medicine and food. "The air was stifling with the stench of the dead."

Camp Starvation

In August he was transferred to Krenkow, Formosa, to Camp Starvation, where he stayed until June, 1943.

"It was the camp for high ranking officers. It was the camp where the Nips slapped and beat 'skinny' Wainwright and Percival (British general). We worked and starved. We were stripped in parade. We were slapped in public. We were forced to pray three times a day to the emperor. We were made to bow to Jap privates and Jap civilians.

Dreamed of Food

"There was no food. There was nothing . . . All we did day and night was to write recipes. We dreamed of food. We knew nothing of what was going on . . . Nothing."

"We were transferred to Taka. We were forced to work in the cane fields. Our next camp was Cheng Chai Tung in Manchuria. It wasn't so bad. Then we were transferred to a camp in Mukden.

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Recent medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and grown-ups may be victims of Pin-Worms—often without suspecting what is wrong!

Watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself—especially the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch. Because now you can and should do something about it. After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a highly effective way to deal with them has been made possible. It is based on the medically recognized drug called gentian violet.

This special drug is the vital ingredient in P.W., the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. P.W. tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.

So if you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P.W. and follow the directions. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back.

It's easy to remember: P.W. for Pin-Worms!
