Less than one in every 2,000,000 cod eggs survives to become a reproducing adult, but one female may lay 9,000,000 eggs.

Camp Name Honors Former C. O.

Here's the name-sign for the Marine Barracks side camp at Crescent lake. Camp Govo, in honor of Col. George O. Van Orden, former Barracks commanding officer, Col. and Mrs. Van Orden were active in sponsorship of the Crescent lake installation which provides recreation for the marines stationed here.

Women's Groups

TULELAKE—The women's societies of the Presbyterian churches of Merrill, Klamath Falls, and Altamont were guests at a delightfully planned autumn party with members of the guild of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church as hostesses on Wednesday.

"Peace" was the theme of the meeting and musical numbers, devotionals and prayers were on this subject. Mrs. Carl Jensen led the devotional hour "Peace and Friendship." Small Karen and Ty Keller with their mother, Mrs. Lynn Keller, at the piano, sang several numbers.

Mrs. Hugh Bronson had the yearbook of prayer, Mrs. S. F. Terry played the piano for the musical numbers, and Mrs. Ray Alkens reviewed the book, "Mama's Bank Account."

The lake covered tea table was centered with an interesting arrangement of small yellow and purple in a crystal bowl and a second interesting note was seen in the polished crab apples in the hand woven Mexican bowl.

Table arrangements were done by Mrs. D. M. Crawford, Poursing at the tea table were Mrs. Roy Easley and Mrs. Sam Anderson.

These two women with Mrs. Lester Vernon, chairman, Mrs. S. F. Terry, Mrs. Carl Jensen and Mrs. Crawford were all hostesses.

At the executive meeting the guild voted to sponsor a reception for the teachers of the high schools and elementary schools at Tulelake, Winema and Carr in the church annex on September 21.

The guild also served dinner in honor of the grand worthy matron of the Order of the Rainbow Girls of California, Phyllis McDonald, on Friday evening. The next regular meeting will be on October 3.

Roll call is to be answered by giving ideas on parents' responsibility toward our schools. Hostesses will be Mrs. Tom Toulouse, Mrs. Frank Mancou, Mrs. D. T. Reid, Mrs. Leonard Meshke, Mrs. R. S. Loisel and Mrs. A. C. Wright.

Outdoor Dinner

CHILOQUIN—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mudge were hosts to the Su-gool-gi-hoose-kungs Camp Fire Girl group on Friday evening, August 31. A delicious outdoor dinner was enjoyed by the group of girls including Gaynel and Patricia Hanlan, Gleta Mathis, Georgia Priebe, Juanita Buck, Mary Alice Blocklinger, Norma Lee and Bonnie Mae Geinger and the guardian, Mrs. Roy Geinger.

The early evening was spent in a game of croquet and later songs and musical games were enjoyed around an outdoor fireplace.

Birthday Dinner

MERRILL—Honoring Guy Sheldon of Macdoel on a birthday anniversary, a number of friends were entertained at dinner on Sunday, September 2, at the Sheldon home by Mrs. Sheldon. Invited for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Dieter of Tulelake, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. King, Marjorie and Keith, of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Yapple of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Gilmer and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Murray of Macdoel. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon are former residents of the Merrill and Malin communities and are farming this year in their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bower of Berkeley, Calif., have been visiting here for the past week. Mrs. Bower, the former Ann Otey, was here to attend the wedding of Shirley Katzmeyer to Don Doll, which was to take place in the Congregational church on Friday evening.

FOE Will Initiate Victory Class Sunday

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, aerie 2080, will hold its annual past worthy presidents' day, Sunday, September 9, at the F.O.E. hall, 6th and Walnut.

A large victory class will be initiated in honor of past presidents at a ceremony which will be conducted by past presidents at 1 p. m.

Delegations from Medford, Bend and Lakeview are expected to attend. Dinner for members and their families will be served after the ceremony and will be followed by dancing.

SEATTLE PETITION

SEATTLE, Sept. 8 (AP)—National civil aeronautics board officials have received Seattle's petition to intervene with the CAB in protest against by-passing the Pacific Northwest in airlines to Alaska and the Orient. Christy Thomas, executive vice president of the Seattle chamber of commerce, said yesterday, Thomas said Senator Warren Magnuson had talked to L. Welch Pogue, CAB chairman, and urged him to accept the petition.

KF MINISTER WILL LEAVE FOR CHINA

September 9 will be the last Sunday that the Rev. Albert L. Dwight will speak before the congregation of First Covenant church here. He and Mrs. Dwight will soon leave for China to conduct missionary work under the Covenant board.

No announcement has been made regarding a new pastor for the church.

The Dwight's first went to China in 1915. After the invasion of Japanese forces, Mrs. Dwight and children remained in the United States, while the Rev. Mr. Dwight returned to carry on missionary work. He was a prisoner of war of Japan, and returned to this country on the exchange ship Gripsholm in 1942.

The Rev. Mr. Dwight will speak on "The Indispensable Christ" at Sunday morning services, and "The Path of Full Salvation" in the evening. He will leave Klamath Falls immediately after the services, to prepare for his trip to China. He has served as pastor of the church here for the past two years.

Local Physician Receives Discharge

Major Neil F. Black, Klamath Falls physician and surgeon, arrived home today with a discharge from the U. S. army.

Dr. Black said he will take a refresher course at the University of Oregon medical school and will re-open his office here within a short time. The Klamath man saw 38 months service with the army air force, and was group surgeon with the 445th bomber group in England and on the continent. He has recently been at Fort Dix.

The average car is more in condition for an accident than ever. Be careful! Insure with Hans Norland, 118 N. 7th.

5 SERVICEMEN HERE TO ENTER AAU SWIM MEET

Five marines and a navy hospital corpsman from the Marine Barracks will take part in a rough water swimming meet at La Jolla, Calif., tomorrow afternoon. This meet is sanctioned by the Southern Pacific association of the AAU and is open to recognized amateur swimmers, both civilian and service personnel.

The Klamath Falls entrants are 1st Lt. Rob Fry, Cpl. John Sweet, Cpl. Caldwell Morgan, PFC Roland Fischer, PFC Wilford Curlanis and PhM 1/c Reno Rapagnani.

Kapagnani won a Golden Gate swimming event of this type last year, and his wife, a woman marine and amateur swimming champion, will also participate at La Jolla.

The swimmers will cover a three-quarter mile triangular course, starting on the beach in front of the La Jolla Beach and Tennis club and finishing on the beach at La Jolla cove.

All civilian swimmers entering this event must present AAU credentials, but that requirement is waived for members of the armed forces.

Police Make Traffic Arrest

One traffic arrest was made by city police yesterday when Richard Barlow, 44 Fleishacker, was cited to appear in police court charged with violation of the basic rule.

Seven drunks appeared in court this morning before Police Judge Harold Franey and five parking tickets were paid.
