AFL LUMBER WORKERS MAY GO ON STRIKE

Lumber workers affiliated with the American Federation of Labor in four Pacific northwest states have voted to strike if such action is necessary to gain them a wage increase. Union officials for the AFL said when the strike vote was announced that they would make a last-minute attempt to settle the dispute with the operators.

The national labor relations board reported the Northwest and Willamette Valley councils of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers union had favored strike action, 12,754 to 2,818. Union officials said the councils embrace Washington, northern Idaho, Montana and northern Oregon. Ballots from councils in southern Oregon, northern California and southern Idaho are to be counted this week.

Minimum Wage
The union seeks a minimum wage of $1.10 for workers in sawmills and lumber camps, say officials for the AFL said when the present minimum ranges from 82 1/2 cents in the pine belt to 90 cents in the fir area.

Eligible Voters
Regional Director Thomas P. Graham of the NLRB said an estimated 30,000 workers were eligible to vote, but the union claimed its membership exceeded 60,000. Union leaders said the vote mirrored union sentiment.

WHEAT
SEATTLE, Sept. 10 (AP)—Wheat futures climbed more than a cent a bushel at times today and rye bounced back and forth, but trade was light pending issuance of the government's September 1 crop estimates after the close of trading.

Rye was nervous and the September contract advanced more than a cent early on short-covering, and strength at or above this price unsold, other late trade on professional selling. There was little news to affect wheat prices, but traders are not inclined to sell because of government support and export needs. What selling appeared largely was hedging operations.

Wheat closed 3/4 to 1c higher than the previous finish, September $1.85 1/2; corn was 1/4 to 1/2 up, December $1.14 1/2, oats were 1/4 to 1/2 higher, September 58 1/2, rye was 1/2 up, September $1.52 1/2, and barley was 1/4 to 1/2 higher, September $1.10.

Alaska Pilot Killed In Crash

JUNEAU, Alaska, Sept. 10 (AP)—Casey Roff, about 40, nationally known Alaska pilot, was killed late Friday when a wing of his Alaska Coastal Airlines plane dipped and the craft crashed in a takeoff from Excursion Inlet. SAYS SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE:
Despite Victory Used Fat Saving Must Go On!

Every woman in America should know that our country continues to face a serious fat shortage. And victory over Japan won't solve the problem immediately. We must keep on saving used fats in our kitchens!

Don't let a single drop of used fats go to waste! Little trimmings of fat left on plates, even the skimmings of soups and gravies are important. It is the consistent saving of these small amounts that counts.

Don't turn in fats that can be re-used! But some fats, such as those rendered from lamb and mutton, are not suitable for re-use. Put them immediately in the salvage can. And, with other fats, after you've got all cooking good out of them, there is always a little left. No matter how little it is, save it.

Your butcher will still give you 4c and 2 red points for every pound you turn in. Save consistently—save every drop you can—every day—until Uncle Sam says the job is done.
