

33 Gridders Selected To 1945 Pelican Squad

Stranopus Scrimmage Session Held Saturday Afternoon on Modoc Field

By PAUL HAINES
Head Coach Paul Angstead and Assistant Coaches Ed Ryan and Clyde Roberts selected 33 gridders Saturday afternoon to form the 1945 edition of the Klamath Pelican football squad. The boys went through a rigorous scrimmage session on Modoc field and showed vast improvement over earlier workouts.

Several Look Good
In the backfield department Bob Redkey, Tommy Edwards, Ben DeVore and Ray Craig looked outstanding. Leroy Coleman and Malcolm VanMeter directed.

Dusette Gets Return Crack At Lipscomb

By popular demand of Klamath Falls met fans Georges Dusette will get a return shot at Jack Lipscomb Friday night in the local arena in a no-time limit tussle.

The two gladiators will tangle with the understanding that the winner will reap all the geetius with the unfortunate loser just along for the ride.

Dusette challenged Lipscomb from the ring last week and then entered a formal challenge with Promoter Mack Lillard. The French-Canadian Hercules has sworn vengeance upon the brutal Hoosier who held Dusette to a draw in a titanic title tiff here two weeks ago.

Klamath rassing enthusiasts have been besieging Lillard for this fracas and he has managed to secure the services of both maulers, although Lipscomb sneered that Dusette did not extend him enough to make the fight worth his while.

Rough Rufus Jones, negro grappler who has been tossing the boys right and left since his debut in the northwest, will appear in the semi-windup against some top opponent. Rufus has said he has served notice on Lillard that this is the last time he will consider anything but a main event booking.

Hot Competition Seen This Season

By The Associated Press
The revived northern division, Pacific coast conference goes into its second post-war practice session today and the consensus seems to be that while the quality of the football undoubtedly will not be up to pre-war standards, at least the competition will be keen.

None of the coaches are signing the customary September dirges. They don't have to. The "unknown" quality of the material speaks for itself and all five schools start out on about equal footing.

Reynolds at Oregon
At Oregon Saturday Coach Tex Oliver found 10 war veterans in a group of 46, with only one letterman, 1942 Halfback Bobby Reynolds, in the lot. Another letterman, Ray Blatchley, is expected later in the week. After a quick check Oliver announced he had plenty of backfield aspirants but was woefully low on linemen. The Webfoots open against Washington September 29.

Coach Lon Stiner of Oregon State was the most optimistic of the grid mentors. He said his squad of 45 looked almost as good as an average pre-war year. Bob Stevens, a back, was Stiner's only letterman, however. The Beavers open against Camp Beale September 29.

70 Huskies Turn Out
Washington, with 70, had the biggest turnout. Most of them were freshmen, but this group included some of the state's outstanding prep performers.

Black Tornado Looms As Threat

MEDFORD, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Medford Black Tornado which captured the Oregon state gridiron championship last year was back in practice again today and promising to be another pennant threat.

Six regulars from last year's powerful squad turned up for practice, plus four lettermen from the reserves.

Bob Watson, captain and key man in last season's T-formation, is expected to handle Marvin Doty's fullback spot this year. Medford opens its schedule against Albany here September 21.

Season Reserved Seat Tickets Go On Sale Friday

Season reserve seat tickets for the Klamath Union high school football season will go on sale Friday, September 14, at 8:00 a. m. at the chamber of commerce office. There are five games on the home slate this year, running in this order: Grant, Salem, Ashland, Medford, and Eugene.

The price of a season reserved seat ticket is $5 with 20 per cent tax included. A general season ticket is $4 and tickets for each game are as follows: reserved, $1.10; general adult, 80 cents; and general student, 40 cents. All military personnel in uniform will be admitted at the student rate although there will be no reduction for servicemen in season reserved seat prices.

Bevos Appear Cinch To Cop PCL Pennant

By PAUL WELLS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The long, hard pull for the Portland Beavers is nearly over, and nothing but an epidemic of general paralysis, fractured legs and cracked noggins can prevent them from ending a nine-year championship drought in the Pacific Coast league.

Their lead was cut to six games over the weekend, but with only two weeks and 14 tilts to go the pennant is as good as won. The loop's single remaining contest is for third place, which the Sacramento Solons hold one game ahead of the San Francisco Seals.

The Beavers split twin bills with the Seals both Saturday and Sunday, dividing the first 5-4 and 2-3 and yesterday's engagement 1-2 and 8-6. The last series between the two clubs wound up at three-all.

Seattle's runner-up Rainiers made it four out of six over the Hollywood Stars, sharing Saturday's doubleheader 4-3 and 1-5 and sweeping Sunday's encounters 11-1 and 2-0.

Tigers Hold Slim One-Game Lead Over Onrushing Nats

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The hectic American league flag race entered the final three weeks of the season today with the first place Detroit Tigers only one game ahead of the persistent Washington Senators following yesterday's double triumph by the Nats and a victory and tie by the Bengals.

Mickey Haefner, sturdy little southpaw, had little trouble annexing his 16th victory in a 4-2 opening game triumph for Washington over the White Sox. But Santiago Ullrich had to come to the rescue of his fellow Latin elbow, Alex Carrasquel in the nightcap to eke out a 5-4 decision for Oasie Bluege's men.

The Tigers also were forced to stage late inning rallies to vanquish the Boston Red Sox 6-3 in the first and obtain a 3-3 11-inning tie in the second. Catcher Paul Richards was the whole show for the Bengals in the opener. His three doubles socked in five of the six runs including three in the ninth, and he scored the other himself.

The feverish National league title chase remained at a stalemate when the top-perched Chicago Cubs and the second rung St. Louis Cards each swept their twin bill leaving the Braves still three and a half games in front.

The Cubs made short work of the Braves as Ray Prim and Claude Passeau, in rare form, prostrated the Hubmen 9-1 and 4-0. Prim's five-hitter was his 12th triumph while Passeau registered his 16th with a superb three-hit shutout.

The Redbirds had to win theirs the hard way. After coming from behind to sneak in with the opener 5-4, they made it two successive one-run decisions over the New York Giants by winning the second 3-2.

Slammin' Sammy Wins Dallas Open

DALLAS, Sept. 10 (AP)—Slammin' Sammy of the Virginia Sneads, sub, hid himself down to Temple today to give a golfing exhibition for the wounded veterans of McCloskey General hospital, $2000 in war bonds tucked in his pocket for winning the Dallas Open.

Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N. J., who finished seventh in yesterday's tournament windup, also will go to McCloskey hospital to demonstrate golf shots to the veterans, but other members of the touring professional links troupe, except Byron Nelson, who has a dinner date in Fort Worth, were on the way to Tulsa to participate in an invitation tournament scheduled to open Thursday.

Beavers Meet Suds In PCL Cup Playoff

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 10 (AP)— It will be Portland vs. Seattle and Sacramento vs. San Francisco in the first round of the Pacific Coast league Governor's Cup playoffs.

Circuit directors decided here Saturday to have the first and second place northwest teams meet in the initial round to save unnecessary travel. Both finish the season two weeks from now in home series.

Flyers Outspeed Ft. Warren, 25-0

SPOKANE, Sept. 10 (AP)—The fourth air force flyers of San Francisco, flashing a jet-plane backfield behind a B-24 line, today planned future conquests in the style of their 25 to 0 drubbing Saturday night of the Fort Warren, Wyo., football team.

Opening the west's top-flight football season, the alrmen convinced 10,500 fans in Gonzaga stadium that they have backfield speed to spare and an aggressive, medium-weight forward wall able to pin down heavier opposition to clear a path for the darting ball carriers.

Second Lt. Eugene Meeks of Kentucky, scoring two touchdowns in the second quarter, and dashing 12 yards to set up a third on the 3-yard line, dominated the speed exhibition.

Portland Open Will Start Next Sunday

PORTLAND, Sept. 10 (AP)—The second annual $14,333 Portland Open golf tournament will open next Sunday with qualifying rounds for amateurs.

Players for the qualifying round must reside within the area bounded by the coast, Walla Walla, Wash., Eugene, Ore., and Olympia, Wash.
