

Many Affairs Given For Bride-To-Be

Marilyn Steinsieffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinsieffer of Eldorado street, is being honored at many parties and luncheons prior to her marriage this next week to Jack O'Neill, USNR, of Seattle, Wash.

She was given of honor last week at a shower and dessert given by three of her bridesmaids, Wanda Shaw, Merion Albrecht and Ann Mueller, at the J. R. Shaw home on Pacific Terrace.

About 30 girls were invited. The refreshment table was centered with a large white cake in blue and white with "Marilyn and Jack" written in the center and blue anchors at the corner.

Mrs. Steinsieffer poured at the coffee table and the three hostesses were assisted by Mrs. J. R. Shaw, Mrs. Emil Albrecht and Mrs. Helen Mueller.

On the mantelpiece were placed pictures of Marilyn and Jack, outlined in gold colored chrysanthemums. The gifts were put under the pictures and opened later in the evening.

The color scheme about the rooms was in navy blue and gold.

Several other affairs are being planned for the bride-to-be this weekend before her wedding which will take place Tuesday at Sacred Heart church.

AAUW Tea

The Klamath Falls chapter of American Association of University Women will open its fall activities with a silver tea on Saturday afternoon, September 22, from three until five p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ralph Stearns, 745 Pacific Terrace.

Members of the AAUW are asked to invite friends and any one interested in furthering the education of women. Proceeds from this tea will be placed in the organization's scholarship fund from which a $50 award is made each spring to a Klamath Union high school senior girl. This money is to assist her in her freshman year at college.

Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr. is president of the local chapter of AAUW and she has appointed Mrs. Stanley Woodruff as general chairman for the tea.

Her committees are Mrs. Howard Listoe, food; Mrs. J. A. Kerns, table setting; Mrs. Paul Buck, kitchen; Mrs. John O'Connor, flower arrangements; Mrs. Sam Mushen, publicity; Mrs. Orin Sizemore, telephone, and Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music.

Concert Series

An ODT order which has necessitated the cancellation of the Columbia Concert Opera company's appearance in Klamath Falls was announced this week by the Community Concert association. Transportation difficulties are so great for a large company that it would be impossible for the group to make its tour.

However, the dance team of Rosario and Antonio has been contracted by the local organization and will appear here on January 15. This team recently had a write up in Life magazine and has been with Billy Rose's concert varieties.

The program for the coming season as announced this week is as follows:

- Jan Pearce, October 24.
- Rosario and Antonio, January 15.
- Jean Watson, February 27.
- Bartlett and Robertson, March 20.

Jan Pearce, who will be the first artist to appear in Klamath Falls this season, will come here between engagements with the San Francisco opera.

Membership cards will be sent out within the next two weeks, it has been announced by Mrs. Mildred Mason, new secretary of the Community Concert association.

Officers' Wives

The Naval Officers' Wives club will hold its monthly luncheon on Wednesday, September 19, at one o'clock in the senior BQ at the naval air station. Bridge and other games will follow the luncheon.

A cordial invitation is issued to all officers' wives. Those planning to attend should phone reservations to Mrs. Harry Valentine, 5115, apartment 317, not later than Monday afternoon.

Sojourners

Several tables of bridge and pinocle were enjoyed at the last regular meeting of Sojourners held in the blue room of the Willard hotel on Wednesday afternoon, September 12. Awards in bridge went to Mrs. Harry Majors and Mrs. J. L. Mitchell and in pinocle to Mrs. Andre Lambert.

Guests present were Mrs. Virginia Kenyon and Mrs. Ward Sitton of McMinnville, Oregon. Preceding the social hour a business meeting was held with Mrs. Andre Lambert in charge. Emphasized at this time was the object of the club which is to help the ladies who are new residents of Klamath Falls to become better acquainted here. It is called to the attention of these newcomers that they are eligible to attend if they have lived in Klamath Falls for a period not exceeding 18 months. Whether or not they play bridge, they are invited to all meetings.

Mrs. J. O. Smith was welcomed as a new member. The hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. William Sheldon. Mrs. J. L. Mitchell will be the hostess at the next meeting, September 25, at the Willard hotel at 1:45 p. m.

Reames Ladies

Mrs. R. R. Macartney Sr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr were the winners of the two-ball foursome at the Reames Golf and Country club Friday, September 14, and were awarded prizes.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. John Merryman, Mrs. J. R. Shaw, Mrs. John Shaw and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw. Refreshments were served at noon.

The guest award for the day was awarded to Mrs. Wilford Lamb of Modoc Point. A visitor was Mrs. V. J. Fortune of Fresno, a sister of Mrs. Matt Finnigan.

On Friday, September 21, members will qualify in the nine and 18 hole for the Reames Golf and Country club ladies' championship.

Gale Motley Will Marry Lt. Sweet

Invitations were in the mail this week for the wedding of Gale Motley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Motley of this city, to Lt. William Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Sweet, also of this city. The wedding will take place on Sunday in the First Christian church.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Nina Nyback and Mrs. Vera Clemmens were hostesses at a bridal shower for Gale in the downstairs clubrooms of the library.

A table was cleverly arranged in a traditional white wedding gown with veil and surrounded by gifts.

Mrs. Emil Paul and Mrs. Leo Huls served at the coffee table which had as its centerpiece an attractive arrangement of fall flowers.

Each guest was asked to write out a favorite recipe which was then presented to the guest of honor.

Those invited to the shower were Mrs. G. C. Motley, Mrs. William S. Sweet, Mrs. R. Train, Mrs. W. Helfer, Mrs. Dave Bridge, Mrs. A. Motschenbacher, Mrs. George Moses, Mrs. Clinton Landis, Mrs. G. Inman, Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. C. McCandless, Mrs. H. Donaldson, Mrs. Ivy Propat, Mrs. Stanley Sirocky, Mrs. Margaret Dotson, Mrs. Olive Van Kirk, Mrs. Pat Hoque, Mrs. Emil Paul, Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, Mrs. B. Wilkes, Mrs. Victor Vassack, Mrs. Kathleen Hepburn, Mrs. Leo Huls, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Phillip Zalesky, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Charles Miner and Misses Mary Corrigan, Yvette Sweet, Marjorie Botens, Marelle Reynolds, Betty Merrill, Patty Schupp, Lolly Whisenand, Merion Albrecht, Jean Wiesenanger, Janice Bubb, Peggy Keating, Virginia Howard, Virginia Smith, Dorothy Collier, Norma Smith and Jean Hilton.

Engagement

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter of 1315 Pacific Terrace this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte, to Gerald Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks of 934 Pacific Terrace.

Charlotte is a senior student at Klamath Union high school this year and is active in school affairs.

Jerry, who was recently home on leave, is a seaman second class with the navy and is now stationed in San Diego. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1945. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Mrs. Russell LaFontaine of Pasadena, Calif., is a guest in Klamath Falls of Mrs. Roland Wright. Mrs. LaFontaine may be remembered as Mrs. Elmer Ludden when she lived here a number of years ago. Her son, Bennett Ludden, a teacher of music at Willamette university, will be here this weekend to join his mother.

ONE OF THE FIRST big social events of early fall was the Library and Garden club tea and musical with a fashion show sponsored by the League of Women Voters held last Saturday afternoon.

Fashions, Flowers Theme Of Afternoon

"Fashions and Flowers" was the theme of the immensely successful affair sponsored by the Klamath Falls Library club, Garden club and the League of Women Voters last Saturday afternoon in the Library clubrooms.

Two complete programs were presented during the afternoon, one musical and the other a preview of fall fashions sponsored by the League of Women Voters.

Appearing during the musical part of the program presented by Mrs. Don Zumwalt were a group of talented young girls including Joan Bennett, Marie Wright, Mariann Sexton, Barbara Zinn, Erlene Wheeler, Dorothy Collier, Mary Louise Sexton and Mary Lou Van Ripper. They were accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt and Mrs. George McIntyre.

Models in the fashion show, which was announced by Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, included Mrs. James Kerns, Mrs. Billy Jo Webber, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. Kidwell, Mrs. Wilkes, Ann Mueller, Sally Mueller, Norma Olson, Virginia Howard, Christina Demetrakos, Maryellen Wright, Helen Moore, Mary Jo Hallet, Dorothea Ellingson, Janice Bubb, Phyllis Foster, Shirley Dalton, Marilyn O'Neill. Music was furnished by Marie Obenchain.

As a special feature before the style show, Mrs. Edwin Schneebek, accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt on the piano and Mrs. Lewis Hornby on the violin, sang several numbers. Especially well received was "Alice Blue Gown," with Mrs. Schneebek dressed for the part in a floor length dress of Alice blue.

Flower arrangements around the room were made by garden groups of the county with entries in the non-competitive show from the Lost River club of Merrill especially outstanding.

A silver tea was held between the hours of three and four by the Library club.

Nancy Russell of Baker has been visiting for the past few days with Nancy Bennet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bennet of 1170 Crescent. The two girls left Klamath Falls Wednesday night for Oakland where they will continue their studies at Mills college.

Eastern Star Club

Three tables of bridge were in play when the Eastern Star Social club met on Friday, September 7, at the Masonic hall. High score was won by Mrs. Orva E. Beard.

Colorful fall flowers were used as centerpieces for the tables. Special award of the afternoon went to Mrs. L. Blackwell. Mrs. W. C. Poole and Mrs. Victor Palmer were the hostesses.

A group of Sojourners, their children and guests enjoyed a picnic lunch and social afternoon at Moore park on Wednesday, August 22. While the children played games, the mothers and guests enjoyed cards. This is an annual affair of the club and is held the second meeting day in August each year.

Other guests of the club were Merion Albrecht and Mrs. Nicholas Long. Various members brought gifts of tea, cosmetics and lingerie to be sent to the sister club in Brighton and Hove, England. These are some of the articles they find difficult to get in the European countries.

An evening party will be held in the Pelican cafe party room on the 27th of September, and an auction sale will be the order of entertainment. The funds to go to the Mme. Noel fund to help in the re-establishment and rehabilitation of women's clubs in the war-torn countries. Sylvia McClelland and Ida Odell are co-chairmen for this event and it promises to be an evening of fun, as well as being profitable for the fund.

Reunion

All together for the first time in four years was the D. V. Kuykendall family when a family reunion was held at their home on California avenue last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. John Kuykendall and three children, Linda, Billy and Judy, came here from Eugene. He was just recently released from the army after service in Australia and the Philippines.

Also recently discharged from the navy was Vernon Kuykendall, who came with his wife and two boys, Roger and Robert.

Bill Kuykendall and children Ailsa Luan and Johnny were present as were John's brother-in-law and family, Sgt. and Mrs. Edward Remillong and Elizabeth Ann. Sgt. Remillong is stationed now at the Marine Barracks.

A family dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall.

Luncheon

Mrs. Rose M. Poole was honor guest at a luncheon last Friday at the Willard hotel. Members of the Business and Professional Women's club and the Soroptimist club were hostesses and presented Mrs. Poole with a beautiful gift in token of the untiring service which she gave in the recent war loan drive. The two service clubs were co-sponsors in the direction of the mighty Seventh War Loan for Klamath county, and chose Rose Poole for their general chairman. The success of the drive, they feel was largely due to Mrs. Poole's fine leadership.

Shirley Katzmeyer Navy Man's Bride

Shirley Katzmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Katzmeyer of this city, became the bride of Don G. Doll, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Doll of Bakersfield, Calif., at a double ring ceremony read in the First Congregational church on Friday evening, September 7.

The wedding was performed by the Rev. Godfrey Matthews in the presence of friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a soft dressmaker suit of aqua blue with brown accessories. Her corsage was a dark lavender orchid and white stephanotis.

Informal Wedding

The home of Mrs. Wilbur Gherkin on Division street was the scene of an informal but lovely wedding on Sunday, September 9, at 1:30 in the afternoon, when her sister, Ruth Katherine Zimmerman, became the bride of Ens. John David Clark of the naval air corps.

The young couple took their vows unattended, standing before the fireplace. The Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church officiated.

The bride wore a powder blue street length dress with matching hat and a corsage of gardenias. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Ruth is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Zimmerman of route 3 and Ens. Clark is an only son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Clark of Menloway. Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union high school and the groom was a student at the University of Oregon at the time of his enlistment in the naval air corps.

Bowls of pink gladioli, chrysanthemums and roses were placed about the rooms and the table was centered with the traditional wedding cake and candles.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom cut their cake which was topped with a miniature naval officer and his bride. The confection was then served with coffee to the guests.

Ens. and Mrs. Clark left immediately after the wedding for a two weeks' honeymoon at Diamond lake.

They will make their home in Seattle where Ens. Clark is stationed with the navy.

Mrs. H. W. Moore played the organ before the ceremony.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 2135 Garden. The table was centered with the large white wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom and after Shirley and Don had cut the first piece, it was served by Mrs. A. N. Kelsey, Mrs. Lawrence Hipke and Marianne Lion presided at the punch bowl. Taking charge of the guest book was Mary Stivers.

Out-of-town guests for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Braton of Detroit, an aunt and uncle of the bride, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. Kohne of Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Doll left Friday night for Los Angeles and Bakersfield and they will return here to make their home after September 23.

The new Mrs. Doll is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1943 and later attended Armstrong's college in Berkeley. Since her return to Klamath Falls she has been employed at the Klamath Medical service bureau.

The groom is stationed at the Klamath naval air station.
