

Erma Self Marries Army Captain Here

Erma Lee Self, daughter of Mrs. Velma Lee Self of this city and J. P. Self of Oakdale, La., became the bride of Capt. William Grady Fort, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fort of Canadian, Tex., at a double ring ceremony on September 9, at 1 o'clock in the First Methodist church. Rev. Victor Phillips officiated.

The bride wore a pale gold suit with royal purple accessories and a corsage of light purple orchids. She carried a white prayer book.

Mrs. Albert Angel, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Albert Angel was the best man. Mrs. Angel wore a royal purple dress with a white gardenia corsage.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Self chose a black ensemble and gardenia corsage.

The sanctuary was beautifully decorated with baskets of colorful gladioli and asters.

Mrs. John O'Connor played the wedding music.

A reception was held afterward at the home of Mrs. J. J. Angel. Assisting were Mrs. R. L. Hunsaker, Kathleen and Janet Angel.

After a honeymoon in San Francisco and the Yosemite national park, Capt. and Mrs. Fort will journey to Canadian, Tex., to visit his parents. They will then go to live at Fredrick, Okla., where Capt. Fort is a member of the army air forces.

Rainbow Girls

TULELAKE — Phyllis McDonald, grand worthy advisor of the Order of Rainbow for Girls in California, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of San Jose, were guests of the Tulelake assembly on Friday evening, September 7, when she paid her official visit. Seventeen members of the Alturas assembly and their mother advisor, Mrs. Amy Jarmen, were also guests at the seven o'clock dinner and ceremony which followed.

Presentation of the Grand Cross of Color degree to several candidates high-lighted the meeting.

Table appointments for dinner served in the church annex carried out the patriotic theme of victory. At the head table were the honor guest, Miss McDonald, her parents; the mother advisor of the local assembly, Mrs. C. C. Colson; worthy advisor of the Tulelake assembly, Bernice Hartley; mother advisor of the Alturas assembly, Mrs. Jarmen; Mrs. Mabel Rowan, Tulelake deputy of district one; and Eva Jo McGhee, worthy advisor of the Alturas assembly. They were all presented with red and white gladioli corsages.

The invocation was given by Rev. Hugh Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church.

Guests from Alturas, Klamath Falls, Merrill and Malin were also introduced at the dinner where places were marked for 75.

Receiving the honorary degree, the Grand Cross of Color, given for meritorious work in the order, were Mrs. Walter Golden and Mrs. Anola Edwards of Tulelake; Mrs. Vaela Kalina of Malin; Fanny Adams and Harriet Colson of Tulelake; and Betty Bayne of Alturas.

Assisting were Mrs. Maude Heaton of Merrill, past mother advisor, as marshal; Mrs. Mabel Rowan, officer in charge; Mrs. Nola Hemstreet; Joyce Turnbaugh, grand flag bearer, a state officer; Patsy Warring, Jean Wolfe, Mrs. Ival Wolfe, past mother advisor, all of Tulelake, and one Alturas girl.

Mary Robertson read a poem on "Peace" and a vocal solo was given by one of the Alturas girls.

Alpha Chapter

First meeting of the year for Alpha chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma society, was held on September 8, at the home of Nett Peterson on Summers lane when a luncheon was served on the lawn, followed by a business meeting at which new officers were elected.

Olive Wilson was elected president of the chapter for the coming year. Stella Bowne, first vice president; Josephine Penrod, second vice president; Nell Olson, recording secretary; Dorothy Baillie, corresponding secretary; and Mabel Humble, treasurer.

Geraldine Owsley, program chairman, outlined the year's program.

Serving on the luncheon committee were Ida Edsall, Maye Wells, Bernice Elliott and Mrs. Peterson.

During the social hour, each member gave a brief description of happenings during the summer vacation.

For the chapter's next meeting on October 6, members have been invited to meet with Isabelle Brixner at her home on Lakeshore drive.

Luncheon

MALIN—Ruby Rice, daughter of Mrs. Ken Wilson, who returns to Oregon State college soon, was honored with a delightfully appointed luncheon at 1:30 o'clock on Saturday, September 8, at the home of Mrs. Jess Whitlatch.

A color scheme of blue and white was carried out in the table appointments with the central note being a "Golden Girl" dahlia on a silver tray. Fall flowers about the room further complemented the color note.

Places were marked for the guest of honor, Miss Rice, a sophomore at Oregon State, Mrs. Vern Whitlatch and Mrs. Van Thome, Klamath Falls. Mrs. K. C. Wilson, Mrs. George Fabianek and the hostess, Mrs. Whitlatch.

Friendship court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, held a potluck dinner at 6:30 p. m., September 8, after which the court met in special session in the Masonic temple.

The special meeting was held on the occasion of the official visit of Ada Martin, grand royal matron, and Lewis H. Alexander, grand royal patron, of the grand court of Oregon. Francis Hulbert, grand secretary of the grand court, acted as grand marshal.

There were 29 visitors from Portland and nine Oregon courts were represented at this meeting. The nine courts were represented by the royal matrons of each court, and a lovely friendship bracelet from the royal matrons was presented to Charlotte Martin, royal matron of Friendship court.

Francis Reeves was in charge of the dinner and also the no-host breakfast which was held at the Winema hotel on Sunday morning for the visitors from Portland.

The banquet room and hall were decorated in lovely fall flowers and presiding over the meeting were Charlotte Martin, royal matron, and Jack Schulz, acting royal patron.

THE NAVAL OFFICERS' WIVES CLUB has been meeting once a month to work on scrapbooks which will be sent to wounded veterans. Around the table in the BOQ lounge at the air station are Mrs. Edward Nichols, Mrs. Paul Cooley, Mrs. Lee Jenkins, Mrs. Lauri Peterson, Mrs. W. E. Glidewell, Mrs. D. Rosch, Mrs. W. Lewis, Mrs. M. H. Ireland and Mrs. Will Jenkins.
