

MARLYS ANN STEINSEIFER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinseifer of this city, became the bride on Tuesday of Ens. John C. O'Neill of Seattle. Above, the wedding party is shown after the ceremony which was read in the Sacred Heart church. Left to right, they are Wanda Shaw, Bruce Curie, Ann Mueller, Alvin Parks, Robert O'Neill Jr., best man; Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, Hobart Jeter, Fay Steinseifer, maid of honor; Sanford Overstreet, Merlon Albrecht and Roberto Worley.

AT A WEDDING SOLEMNIZED LAST SUNDAY in the First Christian church, Gale Motley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Motley, became the bride of Lt. William E. Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Sweet. A reception was held later in the church parlors. Left to right they are Cpl. Don Phelps, Bud Selby, Dale Ring, ring-bearer; Charles McCandless, best man; Lt. Sweet, G. C. Motley, father of the bride; Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Charles R. Miner, matron of honor; Adele Bridge, ring-bearer; Yvette Sweet and Mary Anderson.

Marlys Steinseifer Is Tuesday Bride

One of the most beautiful weddings of the early fall season was solemnized this past Tuesday, September 18, at Sacred Heart church when Marlys Ann Steinseifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinseifer of this city, became the bride of Ens. John C. O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. O'Neill of Seattle, Wash.

The ceremony was read at two o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. T. P. Casey.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played on the church organ. For her wedding she chose a gown of satin brocade with a long train and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion net fastened to a Juliet cap of brocade satin. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia with long satin streamers.

Fay Steinseifer was maid of honor for her sister and the best man was Sgt. Robert O'Neill Jr., brother of the groom. Bridesmaids were Merlon Albrecht, Wanda Shaw and Ann Mueller, all of Klamath Falls, and Roberto Worley, sorority sister of the bride, from Seattle, Wash.

Ushers were Ensigns Alvin Parks, Hobart Jeter, Bruce Curie and Sanford Overstreet, all attached to the naval air station at Klamath Falls.

The maid of honor wore a floor length dress of gold taffeta and carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums trimmed with gold and green ribbons. The three bridesmaids wore emerald green taffeta dresses and carried arm bouquets of gold chrysanthemums with gold and green ribbons. All attendants wore shoulder length veils caught at the head with bands of matching chrysanthemums.

Before the wedding party entered the church, Pvt. Carl Hager of the Marine Barracks sang "Ave Maria" by Schubert. The church was beautifully decorated for the ceremony with palms and large baskets of white gladioli.

Mrs. Steinseifer and Mrs. O'Neill both wore black dinner dresses with shoulder corsages of single purple orchids. After the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the Reames Country club with about 150 guests greeting the bridal party. Greeting the guests as they arrived was Mrs. Marshall Cornett.

The bride's cake was in the form of a Maltese cross surrounded by fern and bouvardia. The table was beautiful with crystal candelabra at either end. After the first piece of the con-

Farewell Tea

Mrs. Ernest Moser was honored with a "Bon Voyage" tea this past Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck on Jefferson street. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Schnebeck were Mrs. Hugh Currin and Mrs. Harold Teale.

Guests were invited to bid farewell to Mrs. Moser who will leave soon with Mr. Moser and their two children, Janice and Barbara, to return to Africa where they were engaged in missionary work before the outbreak of the war.

Pouring at the attractive tea table were Mrs. J. A. Kincaid and Mrs. Cora Wirtz during the first hour and Mrs. Burt Hawkins and Mrs. Charles L. Moore for the second hour.

Honoring the guest of honor during the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Charles L. Moore, Mrs. Alvin Macartney, Mrs. William Borchert, Mrs. Herbert Hauger, Mrs. Cora Wirtz, Mrs. Tom Orr, Mrs. Bryant Williams, Mrs. Earl Mack, Mrs. Paul Buck, Mrs. Carl Hager, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. George McIntyre, Mrs. Calvin Peyton, Mrs. Arthur Dickson, Mrs. Jack Kimball, Mrs. David F. Barnett, Mrs. Burt Hawkins, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. Everett Dennis, Mrs. Lloyd Emery, Mrs. Gomer Jones, Mrs. John McCall, Mrs. Jean McBeth, Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mrs. Ross Raglund, Mrs. Hans Norland, Mrs. James Sloan, Mrs. Louis Ankeny, Mrs. Lawrence Rolph, Mrs. J. A. Kincaid, Mrs. Paul Edwards, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Paul Angstead, Mrs. T. B. Watters, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. H. A. Funk, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Frieda Wheeler, Mrs. M. S. West, Hazel Morrison, Augusta Parker, Helen Moore, Betty Jones and the hostesses.

The young couple left by car after the reception for their honeymoon in Vancouver, B. C. For going away, Mrs. O'Neill wore a brown suit of Forstman's wool with brown accessories and a kalinsky scarf, a gift of the groom. She wore an orchid at her shoulder.

Music Student

Madelon Adler, 14-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Adler of Pacific Terrace, has the unique distinction of being enrolled in the University of Oregon school of music while yet a first year high school student.

Madelon, accompanied by her parents, left last week for Eugene. She completed enrollment in Roosevelt Junior high school with rating as a freshman. Madelon will study two hours of music daily at the university under George Hopkins, professor of piano. She will live on campus in Gamma hall, 1411 Onyx street. In addition to her other work, Madelon was asked to serve as pianist with the junior high school a cappella choir.

A student of Mrs. E. D. Johnson, Madelon has been heard frequently in piano recitals. The talented youngster's acceptance at the University of Oregon's school of music was unusual due to her age and the fact that she is just now entering her high school years.

Bridal Showers Event Of This Week

Honoring Frances Lee McMullen, one of the most charming of the season's bridal showers was an event of Thursday night when she was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. R. Campbell on the Lawevlew highway. Co-hostesses for the affair was Mrs. William Kittredge.

Assisting during the evening were Mrs. E. M. Bubb, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Irving Campbell, Mrs. Gus Hilyard, Mrs. Henry Gerber and Mrs. Sam Ritchey. The rooms were colorfully decorated with early fall flowers in colors ranging from pinks to deep reds. The gifts were opened on a table covered with a lovely lace cloth and with a centerpiece of red roses.

Small individual white cakes and coffee were served later in the evening.

Guests invited to the shower were Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Mrs. Stephen Sabo, Mrs. E. M. Hammond, Mrs. Carl Colson, Mrs. William Hammond, Mrs. A. Geary, Mrs. J. Frank Adams, Mrs. V. J. O'Neill, Mrs. Carl Smykl, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. V. E. Newman, Mrs. Gretchen Thompson, Mrs. Lloyd Low, Jessie Johnson, Mrs. Harry Goeller, Mrs. Sanford Jones, Mrs. Tom Laird, Mrs. Angus Newton, Mrs. Beauford Hayden, Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Sylvia McClelland, Mrs. Henry Gerber, Mrs. George Merryman Sr., Mrs. I. E. Campbell, Mrs. C. W. Strong, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. Dave Liskey, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Gus Hilyard, Mrs. V. J. Josephson, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. W. A. Ser-rucy, Mrs. Fred Fleet, Mrs. Sam Ritchey, Mrs. Wortley, Mrs. E. M. Bubb, Mrs. Ray Michels, Mrs. Neil Hurley, Mrs. Effie Paul, Mrs. U. E. Reeder, Mrs. Viola Hicks, Mrs. Henry Semon, Mrs. Avis McConnell, Mrs. Myrie Adams, Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. Lee S. McMullen, Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mrs. Lee Holliday, Mrs. Jack O'Connor, Janice Bubb, Stella Bewne, Irene Fawyer, Ida Gerber, Nora Rinker and the hostesses.

A formal dinner party at the BOQ at the Barracks was given for the couple last weekend when 24 guests honored them. The color scheme of the decorations were the red and gold marine corps colors carried out in the red asters and yellow marigolds throughout the room. Mrs. Perry herself wore a red dinner dress and was given a corsage of yellow roses.

They left this last Wednesday for San Francisco and leave many friends who wish them luck at their new station.

Members of the Klamath Falls Nile club will meet for a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Pelican party room on Wednesday, October 3. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mrs. Harry Wayne.

Mrs. Harold Hendrickson was honored on September 18 with a surprise birthday party given for her by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul F. Butler, and Mrs. Bert Johnson of Tulelake.

A large birthday cake with pink and white decorations was given to Mrs. Hendrickson. Honoring her were Mrs. Me-Govern of Bishop, Calif., Mrs. Frank Dearborn, Mrs. Alfred Flora, Mrs. Eugene Rollie, Mrs. Louis Cooley and Mrs. Betsie Matson of Tulelake.

In the evening, Mrs. Hendrickson motored to Merrill with Mrs. William Colbert and there they enjoyed a traditional birthday dinner with Louis Stewart, whose birthday comes on the same day.

Mrs. Butler's husband, who is in the Seabees on Okinawa, is expected to return home shortly.

Prizes during the afternoon were taken by Mrs. O. A. Braudel and Mrs. J. F. Claeys.

Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. O. A. Braudel of Los Angeles, Mrs. W. J. Kenny and Mrs. E. J. Caulfield, both of Klamath Falls.

Everything had been taken care of for the birthday celebration from the reservations for dinner at Cal-Ore to the ordering of champagne for the occasion. But the biggest surprise of all came when a large box was brought in to Mrs. Thompson and when opened revealed the smiling Major Thompson.

He had driven from Asheville and had timed his arrival to coincide with his wife's birthday celebration. The only members in the party who had been let in on

Knife, Fork Club

The reception committee for the first meeting of the newly organized Knife and Fork club which will have its first dinner meeting this next Wednesday, September 26, at the Willard hotel, was announced this week by the board of directors.

Archduke Felix of Austria will be the speaker of the evening for the program which will begin at 6:45.

Members of the reception committee are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lamm, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Owens, Dr. and Mrs. John Merzeman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Skeen.

Table decorations will be done by Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. Glenn Kent and Mrs. Andrew Collier.

There will be souvenir programs at each plate.

Reames Women

Rain combined with a chill wind kept women golfers off the course at Reames this past Friday and the day was enjoyed around a blazing fireplace where luncheon was followed by cards.

It was announced that golfers are asked to qualify for the 18 or 9-hole championship tournament with a lady member whose tournament fee has been paid. They should qualify before Wednesday evening, September 26, it was stressed. Cards must be turned in to either Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. J. J. Steiger or Mrs. Martin Swanson.

Helen Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Peterson of 1405 Lakeview, left this week for San Francisco where she will enter Mary's Health College of Nursing. She graduated from Sacred Heart academy in 1945.

Members of the Klamath Falls Nile club will meet for a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Pelican party room on Wednesday, October 3. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mrs. Harry Wayne.

Gale Motley Bride Of Lt. Sweet Sunday

At a lovely ceremony in the First Christian church on Sunday, September 16, Gale Motley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Motley of this city, became the bride of Lt. William E. Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Sweet, also of Klamath Falls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Howard Hutchins at three o'clock before a large group of friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore traditional white satin with long sleeves and yoke with a trim of seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was caught at the crown of her head by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a large bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia with white satin streamers.

The bride's dress was the one worn by her sister at her wedding two years ago. The twin sister of the bride, Mrs. Charles Miner, was matron of honor for the ceremony and bridesmaids were Yvette Sweet of Klamath Falls, sister of the groom, and Mary Anderson of Eugene, who has been on tour with the bride and who also attended the University of Oregon at Eugene with her.

An original note was in the costumes of the bride's attendants which were all of black net fashioned with full skirts and large lace picture hats and long black gloves. They carried large bouquets of white gladioli. The matron of honor wore a dress of similar design but with a border of white applique around the hem of the skirt.

Best man for the wedding was Charles McCandless and the two ushers were Cpl. Don Phelps and Bud Selby.

Carrying the two rings were little Adele Bridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bridge, and Dale Ring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ring.

The church was decorated with large baskets of white gladioli and palms and large candelabra with tall white tapers. Before the ceremony Patricia Brown sang "I Love Thee" and "Sweetheart of All My Dreams," accompanied on the organ by Mary Hayden, who also played the wedding marches.

Mrs. Motley chose to wear for her daughter's wedding a fringed purple suit with a flowered hat and orchid colored veil. She and Mrs. Sweet, mother of the groom, both wore gardenia corsages.

After the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake it was served by Mrs. Miner. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Philip Zalesky, Lola Whisenant, Patricia Brown, Mary Anderson and Yvette Sweet.

Also assisting during the reception were Mrs. Vera Clemmens, Mrs. C. S. Robertson, Mrs. Ralph Clapp and Mrs. Scholer.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. James Vincent of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Clayton of Prospect, grandparents of the bride.

Lt. Charles R. Miner flew to Klamath Falls Saturday from Luke field in Phoenix, Ariz., and was expecting to be one of the ushers but was called back to Phoenix on Sunday noon.

Lt. and Mrs. Sweet spent a three-day honeymoon at Lake O' the Woods before he left to report for duty. He has just recently returned from overseas.

Little JoAnne Dingman was honored on her tenth birthday recently when she was given a birthday party at her home at 834 Doty. Games were played during the afternoon and party refreshments were enjoyed.

Those invited to help celebrate included Shirley Dupuy, Doris Dingman, Marilyn Paup, Sue Branson, Diane Carlson, Patty Jean Duke, Joan Estes, Alona Pool, Carol Rae Dingman, Alice Baker, Beverly Calhoun and Linda Williams.

A "BON VOYAGE" tea last Saturday afternoon honored Mrs. Edna Dunbar Moser who is leaving soon with her family to return to their missionary work in Africa. Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck, Mrs. Moser, Mrs. Harold Teale and Mrs. Hugh Currin are shown above.

Birthday Surprise For Mrs. Thompson

Coming as a complete surprise to his wife on her birthday was the return of Maj. Robert A. Thompson of Klamath Falls, who returned home from duty with the army air forces at Asheville, N. C. Thursday night in a novel fashion.

Mrs. Thompson was surprised on the occasion of her birthday with a party which had been arranged for her by mail by her husband through the help of Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Moore.

Everything had been taken care of for the birthday celebration from the reservations for dinner at Cal-Ore to the ordering of champagne for the occasion. But the biggest surprise of all came when a large box was brought in to Mrs. Thompson and when opened revealed the smiling Major Thompson.

He had driven from Asheville and had timed his arrival to coincide with his wife's birthday celebration. The only members in the party who had been let in on

MRS. RUSSELL B. LaFONTEINE of Pasadena and her son, Ben Ludden of Salem, were visitors at the Roland Wright home last week. Mrs. LaFontaine lived in Klamath Falls a number of years ago and will be remembered as Mrs. Elmer Ludden. Ben Ludden is a professor of music at Willamette university and came south to meet his mother and accompany her north where she will visit for a short time.