

STAFF CHANGES AT JAP CENTER TOLD

TULELAKE—Guy Cook, high school principal at the segregation project, has announced five more changes in the high school staff. Mrs. Carrie Driscoll of the home economics department has resigned to take a similar position at the Tulelake high school.

Scheduled for relocation are Chozo Mitoma, biology and physiology instructor; Masami Masashi, bookkeeping and general business training; and Koya Iwamoto, physics and mathematics.

Howard Bugbee, former principal of the Heart Mountain project, has been added to the staff.

One of Lakeview's leading hotels, Hunters Hot Springs hotel, was sold recently to Les Passmore of Lakeview and his brother-in-law, Jerard Jacobson, now in the navy. The new owners took possession the first of the month.

Poe Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nork were callers in Tulelake and Malin Friday morning.

George Davis has been buying grain in the valley for the last several days to take to Talent. He took his sister, Betty Mae, and two children for a visit with him.

Some of the potato growers are commencing to dig on a small scale as vines are still green though frozen down some.

Mrs. Haines' father was a visitor at their home here from Portland for a couple of weeks.

Web Van Meter was a caller here one day this week from Bly where he is working as a mechanic at the Bill Raymond logging outfit.

The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Haines took their Jersey heifer for exhibit at the fairgrounds.

Viola Roberts was a shopper in Klamath Falls from here Tuesday.

A Christian Endeavor meeting was held at the hall Sunday evening for the local children with Margaret Prever and Marilyn Beightaupt as teacher and chorone.

Clara Webber was a business caller in Klamath Falls one day this week.

George Reiling was a caller at Mallory's the first part of the week. He and his brother are storing some grain in their cellar.

Joe Sullivan is helping Rex High with some work this week.

Ben Nork from Langell Valley was helping his brother, Joe, put up hay one day this week.

Buck Rodgers sold some of his grain to George Davis this week.

Glen Kester is combining his barley this week.

Jean Tusker took a calf to the 4-H club show at the fairgrounds in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adkison of Oswego have moved to Cascade Summit and are taking over the business of Roy Temple which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simkins, who have been cooks at the Southern Pacific diner here are leaving Cascade Summit. They have had charge of the diner since February. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Malone now are in charge of it.

Roy Temple has completed the building of dams and other work on the water intakes of the Southern Pacific company.

Walter Pierce, B. & B. foreman, is now at Cascade Summit with a gang of 12 men. He is supervising work done on the bridges and culverts in the vicinity of Cascade Summit.

A large black bear was seen near Cascade Summit feasting on some huckleberries. So far as is known this is the first bear that has been seen at Cascade Summit this fall. In other years bears have been extremely numerous at this time of the year.

At Summit Lodge the season is drawing to a close. The Halls, who operate it, say that this has been a very good season and that at times they were obliged to turn away guests for lack of accommodations.

Janet Benson started school in Eugene last Monday. She is staying at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis White.

Charles Hebert of Oakridge has been doing carpenter work on the outfit car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Richards.

Last Rites Held For Fort Klamath Man

FORT KLAMATH—Services for the late Edmondson M. Leever were held Monday at 10:30 a. m. in the Earl Whitlock chapel in Klamath Falls, with the Rev. F. C. Wissenbach of St. Paul's Episcopal church in charge. Mr. Leever had made his home in Fort Klamath for nearly 50 years until he and his wife moved to Klamath Falls about four years ago, after he suffered from a paralytic stroke while at work on his ranch two years previous. He failed to recover from the attack and was an invalid until the time of his death on Friday, September 21. Mr. Leever would have reached his 78th birthday on October.

Honorary pallbearers were H. B. Loosley of Malin, E. R. Cardwell of Klamath Falls, and Frank M. Denton, Charles M. Noah, Fred C. Bishop and Raymond S. Loosley, all of Fort Klamath.

Following the services in Klamath Falls, the remains were shipped to Jacksonville, Ore., for interment in the family plot.

Residents of Cascade Summit and surrounding country awoke Friday morning and found Old Man Winter standing at their doors with six inches of snow already on the ground and snow still falling. This is the first snow of the season. Old timers here say snow has fallen each month of the year here.

One of the old-time residents, Frank Burnett, recently discharged from the army is back at Cascade Summit working for the Southern Pacific company in the Mike Lee powder gang. He was a sergeant in the ground crew of the air force in the European theater of war stationed in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adkison of Oswego have moved to Cascade Summit and are taking over the business of Roy Temple which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simkins, who have been cooks at the Southern Pacific diner here are leaving Cascade Summit. They have had charge of the diner since February. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Malone now are in charge of it.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE . . . with . . . MAJOR HOOPLE . . . OUT OUR WAY

EGAD, MARTHA! YOU STARTLED ME!—THIS DOOR? OH, WHY, ER, YOU SEE—WELL, TO MAKE A LONG STORY SHORT, I'M REMOVING IT!—I MEAN TO USE IT FOR DEMONSTRATING AN ASTOUNDING 'NEW INVENTION' I'M BREWING!

LET ME GUESS! YOU'RE GOING TO TRY TO FIT YOUR HEAD TO IT FOR A KNOB? WELL, I CAN TELL YOU, YOUR HEAD WOULD MAKE A BETTER BOWLING BALL!—LEAVE THAT DOOR ALONE BEFORE I SLAM YOU WITH IT!

SHE MAY BE SHUTTING THE DOOR ON A GREAT INVENTION!

OUT OUR WAY

IT'S RUDE TO POINT, BUT IT'S ACTUALLY CRUEL FOR TH' BULL O' TH' WOODS TO POINT AT A TIME LIKE THIS—YOU WONDER IF YOU'LL BE POINTED OUT NEXT?

THAT GUY THERE WAS A LITTLE TOUGH WITH TH' ARMED FORCES AT TH' FRONT—NOW TH' BULL IS GETTIN' A LITTLE TOUGH WITH TH' UNARMED FORCES AT HIS BACK!

Canby

CANBY—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ivory at San Francisco, Calif., on September 16, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morris of Berkeley, and George Goucher of La Grande, were visitors at the Tom Ivory home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Guss and family left Tuesday of this week for Kansas where they will visit old friends and relatives.

Fire of unknown origin burned down the cabin on Joe Walker's place on Adin mountain last week. It was occupied at the time, but no one was home. A friend passing by noticed smoke and investigated, finding the ceiling on fire. It is thought that defective wiring was the cause of the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stumbaugh leave this week for Kansas where they will visit relatives and bring their daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Blevins, and children home with them.

Deer have not been too plentiful this season. A few nice ones have been brought in. With the strike in full swing everyone has the opportunity to hunt and get in a little extra meat for the winter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Pepperdine of Livermore, Calif., on September 24, a son. Mrs. Pepperdine is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sherer and Pepperdine is from Alturas.

Around 150 men are idle at this place as a result of the AFL strike which was called for Monday, September 24. Both Ralph L. Smith Lumber company mills are down, and the cookhouse which fed the employees served their last meal Monday. Many, afraid of a shut-down for the entire winter, have left, either to look for other work or to return to their homes. Some of the latter, from Oklahoma, Arkansas and other states east, are ready to take their earnings and plan to return to their farms in the middle west. Others, more optimistic, feel that the strike will not last long, so are staying here. There has been no violence and no picketing. There are some even who are wondering what it is all about.

ROY TEMPLE has completed the building of dams and other work on the water intakes of the Southern Pacific company.

Walter Pierce, B. & B. foreman, is now at Cascade Summit with a gang of 12 men. He is supervising work done on the bridges and culverts in the vicinity of Cascade Summit.

JAPAN AT LAST! IT'S BEEN A LONG HARD ROAD, EASY!

I'LL SAY, GUY! BUT IF IT MEANS AN END TO WAR, IT WAS WORTH THE TRIP!

WE'LL FIND OUR DUTIES HERE A LITTLE MONOTONOUS, BUT IT MAY BE A RELIEF!

AND WE'LL BE ON HAND IN CASE WE'RE NEEDED!

HELLO, COLONEL BRILL! HI, EASY! I'VE BEEN HERE THREE DAYS, WHAT HELD YOU UP?

9-28

Freckles and His Friends

HERE SHE IS, CHIEF! SHE SAYS SHE'S BEING INITIATED!

WHY DID YOU PUT THAT 'DEAD-END STREET' SIGN ON THE NATIONAL HIGHWAY?

WE DIDN'T WANT PEOPLE TO DRIVE PAST THE DEAD-END AND HAVE AN ACCIDENT!

ACCIDENT?—ARE YOU CRAZY? THAT HIGHWAY RUNS FROM THE ATLANTIC TO THE PACIFIC!

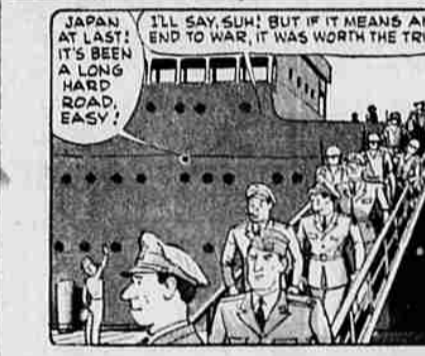

THAT'S JUST THE POINT!

SOMEBODY MIGHT HAVE GONE TOO FAR, AND DRIVEN RIGHT INTO THE OCEAN!

I KNOW WHEN I'M LUCKY!

NOPE! I'M PERFECTLY CONTENTED WHERE I AM! IF YOU TWO WANT TO DO THE TOWN GO RIGHT AHEAD!

COME ALONG, DR. BRONSON—THE LITTLE I CAN SEE IS SO ATTRACTIVE I'D LIKE TO SEE ALL OF IT!

ALL RIGHT, OOOA... I COULD DO WITH A LITTLE WALK!

ISN'T IT A SHAME ALLEY DOESN'T CARE FOR A PLACE LIKE THIS? BECAUSE SEEM TO HAVE SO MUCH FUN!

YES—TAKE THAT BEACH ROOSTER UP AHEAD THERE—ISN'T HE HAVING A TIME?

HA! LOOK! THERE IT IS! WHAT DID I TELL YOU?

OH, IT IS A BEAUTIFUL BOAT!

WOW! YOU SAID IT!

9-28

BUT TO GO ALL THE WAY OUT TO THAT ISLAND, WITH A STRANGER— I DON'T KNOW—

OH, BE SENSIBLE, SONJA! MUST YOU KNOW AND APPROVE THE SOCIAL BACKGROUND OF EVERY FERRYMAN THAT YOU PATRONIZE?

JUST WAIT TILL YOU SEE HIS BOAT! NONE OF THESE LEAKY, SMELLY, FILTHY OLD FISHING TUBS, YOU MAY BE SURE!

HA! LOOK! THERE IT IS! WHAT DID I TELL YOU?

OH, IT IS A BEAUTIFUL BOAT!

WOW! YOU SAID IT!
