

Babcocks Honored At Several Affairs

Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, 2051 Erie, are being honored at a number of parties since his release from active duty with the navy. The Babcocks plan to leave Klamath Falls in the near future. Cmdr. Babcock was construction officer for the navy at the Marine Barracks for over a year until his discharge several weeks ago.

Mrs. Babcock was honored last Friday at a tea given for her by Mrs. Ray Oldenbach at her home on Pacific Terrace. Tea hours were from 3 until 6 o'clock for about 30 guests.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. B. Dubel and Mrs. I. R. Lisbony and at the tea table were Mrs. William Hagelstein. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. K. A. Moore and Mrs. R. E. Hooker.

The centerpiece of the table consisted of attractive arrangements of asters in acorn and gladioli and roses were used about the rooms.

On Wednesday evening, September 19, Mr. and Mrs. Babcock were hosts at their home to the office force and inspectors of the construction office at the Barracks. A supper was served at midnight.

Last Saturday evening, a group of navy personnel were entertained at the Babcock home.

Other parties and informal affairs are being planned for the Babcocks who have made many friends during their stay here.

Circus Party

A birthday circus party was an exciting event of last Saturday, September 22, for little Kathy Peterson, six-year-old daughter of Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Lauri Peterson of 5640 Harlan drive.

The interior of the garage of the Peterson home was transformed to a circus tent with the aid of a canopy of crepe paper streamers, and the walls were decorated with murals of circus animals drawn by Carol Sue Hunt.

In front of a large sign saying "Come and Get It," was placed a large table over which lunch, dogs, soda pop and potato chips were dispensed. Lt. Comdr. Peterson presided attired in a chef's cap and apron.

Animals were brought by the small guests and some were given blue ribbons for their entries who were displayed in cages decked out as circus wagons. Winners were the black panther and baby, a black cat and kitten owned by Carol Sue Hunt; "Black Fury," a cocker spaniel owned by Bobby Clark; "The Ferocious Cottontails," a pair of white rabbits belonging to Terry Beyer; "Sarah," the double-beaked chicken, exhibited by Carol Sue Hunt; four baby ducks and "Ruddiger the Great Dane," owned by Johnny, Buzzie and Kinky Burton.

Guests at the novel party were Kathy Peterson, the guest of honor, Peter and Chris Brown, Buzzie, Johnny and Kinky, Burton, Terry Beyer, Barbara and Billy Campbell, Bobby and Diane Clark, Carol Sue Hunt, Dorothy and Judy Lynch, Pat Mueller, Kirk Killian, Margaret Ann Oesment, Mike and Danny Popp, Jackie Pugh, Virginia, Ruth and Frederick Roenlecke, Dick Stoddart, and Sally and Jimmy Wengert.

Recent Wedding

Jeanne O'Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. O'Sullivan of this city, the bride of Vernon R. Baughman, chief radioman, USNR, of Tacoma, Wash., at an informal wedding performed by the Rev. T. P. Casey in the Sacred Heart church on Friday evening, September 14.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dressmaker suit of soft gold with black accessories. She carried an orchid on her prayer book. Dorothy O'Sullivan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and brother of the bride, Robert O'Sullivan, was the best man. Ushers were L. J. Martin, USMCR, and Charles Caldwell, USMC.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 332 N. 9th for relatives and intimate friends of the family.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Baughman, and his two sisters, Mrs. Kent McKenzie and Mrs. Fred Schroeder, all of Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Baughman will make their home in San Francisco for the present where the groom is stationed pending his discharge from the navy.

To School

Norma Lee Gienger, 1943 Chiloquin high school valedictorian, left last week for Northwestern university in Evanston, Ill., where she plans to enter medical school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gienger of Chiloquin.

A traveling companion was Linda Roser, resident of Chiloquin, but a graduate of the Vancouver, Wash., high school. She is to enter the dress designing course at the Chicago Art Institute.

Several farewells were held for the girls before their departure. In addition to many parties given by the younger set, Mrs. Gerald Wolfe honored the two who were leaving for Chicago and Eilda DeBoroli, a sophomore student at the University of Oregon.

Before the girls left on the train, Mr. and Mrs. Gienger held open house for the many friends who came to say goodbye.

Mrs. F. J. Barnett and young daughter, Patricia Joan, have left Klamath Falls to join Pl. Sgt. F. J. Barnett in Oceanside, Calif. Sgt. Barnett is stationed at Camp Pendleton. Mrs. Barnett is the former Patricia DeLap of this city.

Herald and News

SOCIETY

By Nadine Palmerton

COLONEL AND MRS. CHARLES T. BROOKS AND DAUGHTER SARAH discuss the possibility that a picture in this week's Oregonian may be Mrs. Brooks' brother, Col. Charles Billingslea, commanding regiment in the 82nd airborne division now in Holland. Col. Brooks is the commanding officer at the Marine Barracks and has returned from service in the Pacific. Mrs. Brooks and Sarah made their home in San Francisco until recently when they moved to Klamath Falls. Sarah attends grade school at Roosevelt.

—Official USMC Photo by S. Sgt. V. M. Hanks.

Wed In South

Geneva Obrist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Obrist, formerly of this city, became the bride of Robert Book, United States navy, son of Mrs. Ida Gardner, 620 Division, in a ceremony read before friends and relatives in Los Angeles on Saturday, September 15.

The evening ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Blackmore with the Rev. John Woodard of the Presbyterian church officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by Delmar Holloway, a close friend, wore a suit of two shades of green with brown accessories and a large white orchid on her lapel.

Her only attendant was her sister, Jacqueline Obrist, who wore a gray blue suit with navy accessories and two small white orchids. Acting as best man was Vern Domarus, United States navy.

Mrs. A. R. Obrist, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Ida Gardner, mother of the groom, motored from Oregon for the ceremony.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Delmar Holloway. Guests were Mrs. Blanche Rubottom, Mrs. Pauline Deax, Mrs. Thelma Wilson, Loretta Brown, Vivian DiStefano, Joan Rubottom, Mary Ireland, Myralu Blackmore, Clarence R. West, USCG, Alfred W. Dean, USN, Dale H. Ehler, USN and George Blackmore.

The couple is now living at 8436 Fountain avenue, Los Angeles.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Sullivan of North Poe valley have announced the engagement of their daughter, Zella, to Dale Millett, CM 1/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Morehouse of Ashland.

No date has been set for the wedding ceremony.

Miss Sullivan is a 1941 graduate of Henley high school and is now employed as telephone operator at the Southern Pacific company.

Mr. Millett is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and is stationed with the navy at Camp Parks, Shoemaker, Calif.

Beta Sigma Phi

September marked the opening of fall meetings of Beta Sigma Phi, Kappa chapter, the first get-together being September 13 at which time a potluck dinner was enjoyed by 14 members of the group at the home of Elenora Weatherford. Mrs. Vera Whitlatch assisted as co-hostess for the evening. After dinner, plans for programs and social affairs for the year were discussed. Irma Wauchope was a guest of the evening.

On Thursday, September 27, Madge McLellan entertained the sorority at her home on Crescent avenue. A very interesting program was conducted by Lillian Redkey, Mrs. Howard Pernell, and Mrs. William Milne. Those attending the affair were Mrs. Ernest Hooley, Mrs. Howard Pernell, Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. E. J. Charon, Lois Coady, Lillian Redkey, Elenora Weatherford, Mrs. Kay Kaylor, and the hostess Madge McLellan.

Birthday Party

Marilyn Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Moore, entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Earhart for Gale Gowan on her 13th birthday Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Gowan assisted Mrs. Earhart.

Games were played and later Gale cut her birthday cake on a table set in the yard where the guests enjoyed refreshments of cake, ice cream and pop.

Guests were Claudette Gleason, Beverly Kohn, Eleanor Emery, Barbara Swanson, Pat Smith, Charlotte Ivory, Carl Van Doren, Flo Ann Perkins, Totie Liskey, Rosemary Murray, Jean Henderson, the guest of honor, Gale Gowan and her brother, Johnnie.

Fall Dance Plans Made By Reames

Plans are being made for one of the first large parties of the autumn season when Reames Golf and Country club members will entertain with a fall dance at the clubhouse Saturday, October 6, at 10 o'clock.

There will be a ham and egg breakfast served after midnight, members of the committee announced, and there will be a special presentation of golf trophies to this year's winners.

The affair will be semi-formal which means long skirts for the women.

Hosts and hostesses for the affair next weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. John Merryman and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Shaw.

Musical Evening

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Voye of 419 High were hosts at their home Thursday evening to a group of friends who dropped in to honor Marie E. Green of Hollywood, daughter of the late Dr. C. A. Rambo of this city, and PFC Conrad Schultz, a member of the marine corps who just recently returned from overseas duty in the Pacific.

An informal musical program was enjoyed with Marie Green, a talented pianist, and Conrad Schultz, an accomplished singer presenting numbers during the evening.

Coffee was served later to the guests by Mrs. Voye.

Both guests of honor are visitors at the Voye home and PFC Schultz was accompanied here by his father, Otto A. Schultz, formerly of Tulalake and now of Santa Ana, California.

Hayride

A hayride and wiener roast were enjoyed Thursday evening when Norma Smith entertained a group of the younger set. After meeting at the home of her parents on Summers lane, they proceeded by wagon to Klamath river where the wiener roast was held.

Guests included Marilyn McLellan, Ruth Landry, Jean Hilton, Connie Hunt, Joyce Sample, Mary O'Brien, Mary Ann Mills, Dorothy Collier, Joanne Bennet, Joanne Albee, Irma McBride, Marilyn Nethercott, Yvette Sweet, Howard Halsey, Larry Klahn, Dick Yates, Gene Peyton, Charles Martin, Phillip McGillivray, Frank Matthews, Ronnie Larson, Joe Williams, Clarence Bussman, Buster Carleton, Jack Ellitrem, Charles Hellbronner, Alfred Astott, Gary Smith, Jimmy Wewer, Mrs. Walter Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Landis, Mr. Highley, and Norma Smith.

Women Voters

The League of Women Voters, headed by Mrs. Donald McKay, opened the year's work recently with a discussion meeting centered around the work for the winter ahead.

In line with the national program the coming meetings will be devoted to the study of world problems so that women may be more fully informed on the important changes in world ideology and politics.

A paper prepared by Mrs. John Yaden will be given at the October meeting, this being written around the vital food situation in western Europe. Mrs. Yaden will discuss this under the title "Food for Peace," enlarging upon the critical conditions existing in France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Poland and Russia.

Following Mrs. Yaden's discussion, Mrs. O. K. Puckett will develop the peace theme further with a paper on the subject, "Trade Agreements—a Bridge to Peace."

Mrs. McKay announced a meeting of her board to be held at her home on Thursday, October 4, at which time the board will decide whether or not to bring in several outside speakers for winter programs.

Members were asked to remember to mail their dues to Mrs. F. C. Ranker at 212 N. 2nd. Much work is being put into the programs prepared for the year and the league extends a cordial invitation to all women of the community to hear these. It is not necessary to be a member of the chapter to attend the meetings and it is hoped that the vital subject of peace, around which the programs are built, will be of enough interest to the women of the community that they will hold the third Wednesday afternoon of each month open to attend these meetings.

Among the sorority pledges at the University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho, is Bettie Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hopkins formerly of this city, and now of Nampa, Idaho, who pledged Alpha Chi Omega.

Major Zed Barnes Weds Illinois Girl

Wed at a beautiful ceremony on Sunday, September 2, were Arlene June Mighell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Todd Mighell of Sugar Grove, Illinois, and Maj. Zed William Barnes, son of William B. Barnes and the late Mrs. Barnes of Klamath Falls. The wedding took place at the Methodist church in Sugar Grove with the Rev. James D. McKelvey of Sterling, Ill., performing the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white gladioli banked on either side of the altar.

Byron Healy, with Herman W. Barnard at the church organ, sang "Because" and "God Gave Me You" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service while the bride and groom knelt on a white satin pillow.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her lovely gown designed by her sister, Mrs. Shirley Mighell, chery of Columbus, Georgia, was of white satin fashioned with fitted bodice and a modified U neckline. The overskirt of net edged with a satin band ended in a long circular train. Her fingertip veil was of net and hung from a garland of white flowers in her hair. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Garnet Glinther Dalrymple of New Holland, Ill., a Kappa Beta sorority sister of the bride at the University of Illinois. Her gown was of a rose shade and she carried an arm bouquet of fuchsia gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ann Gersib Heiliger of Ottomwa, Ia., a classmate of the bride when she attended the University of Washington, who wore a lavender jersey gown, and Dorothy Myers of Sugar Grove, a cousin of the bride, who wore a jersey dress in shade of lime yellow.

Both carried arm bouquets of gladioli in shades blending with their gowns. All attendants wore matching flower bands in their hair.

Little Patty Mighell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mighell of Aurora and also a cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. She wore a floor length frock of aquamarine jersey with flowers of the same color in her red gold hair. She carried a white basket tied with a large bow of aquamarine from which she strewn rose petals in the path of the bride.

Mrs. Mighell wore a gown of shocking pink print with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Lt. Col. Robert S. Puckett of Ashland, became the bride of Ens. R. Lester Farrell of Minneapolis, Minn., in a ceremony read at the First Baptist church in Reno on September 22.

The young people are now making their home with Mrs. J. J. Parker of Lincoln street.

Mrs. Farrell has been employed at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and Ens. Farrell is attached to the Klamath naval air station.

Recent Bride

Christina M. Russell, daughter of Mrs. Alneida Russell of Birmingham, Ala., stationed with the army air forces at Washington, D. C., was the best man. He was Maj. Barnes' first commanding officer when the two men were stationed in India.

The ushers were A/C Russell L. Mighell, brother of the bride, of Fort Sill, Okla., PFC Fred V. Mighell Jr., a cousin of the bride from Eglin Field, Fla., PFC Allan Becht of Maywood, Ill., and Lt. (jg) Kenneth Heiliger of Lincoln, Neb.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Sugar Grove Community house for over 200 guests. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with arrangements of garden flowers in baskets and large vases.

The refreshment table was ornamented by white gladioli and tapers and centered with a large four tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Nola Arnold, a roommate of the bride at the University of Illinois, cut the cake after the bride and groom had cut the first piece with a French saber used in 1869.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Illinois and also attended the University of Washington at Seattle for one year as an intern in the administrative dietitian training course after which time she was connected with the university for some time. She attended as a dietitian in the station hospital at the Portland Army air base in Portland. For the past two years she has been associated with United Air lines in San Francisco.

Maj. Barnes attended Oregon State college at Corvallis where he majored in business administration and was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. He was called to active duty with the air corps in 1941 and has served overseas in the China-Burma-India theater for 28 months. He is now the troop commander at Hammer field in Fresno.

After the wedding the couple drove to the west coast and on the way to Fresno stopped at Klamath Falls where they visited Maj. Barnes' father, his brother Marion and family at Olene, and his sister, Mrs. Webb Kennett, and family at San Jose. They will live at 3003 Blackstone, in Fresno.

Reames Women

Bright fall weather brought out a large group of women to the Reames Golf and Country club Friday with the first championship match of the season being played and won by Mrs. J. J. Steiger. She played with Mrs. Matt Finnigan.

Mrs. E. M. Raymond defaulted to Mrs. William Grove. Hostesses of the day were Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mrs. W. L. Bruce, Mrs. Wilbur Shannon and Mrs. George Bratton Jr. Guest awards were received by Mrs. Peter A. Albertson and Mrs. Stanley Miller. Mrs. Roxa Moyer of San Diego, a visitor at the home of Mrs. Oscar Shive, and Mrs. Leslie Avrit, visiting Mrs. R. R. Macartney, were guests of the day at the club.

On Friday, October 5, matches to be played include Mrs. J. J. Steiger and Mrs. George Merryman, Mrs. William Grove and Mrs. Tom Jerrow, Mrs. Martin Swann and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, and Mrs. W. O. Smith and Mrs. Paul Farrans.

YWCA President

Mary Corrigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Corrigan, opened the year's activities for the YWCA at the University of Oregon with a party for all freshmen students this past Thursday evening.

The Klamath Falls girl, president of the university YWCA, has also been instrumental in setting up a women's coordinating council at the university. The purpose of the council is to coordinate women's campus activity groups and to encourage a maximum number of girls to get into activities. Council members include, besides Miss Corrigan, presidents of women's campus organizations.

With international relations as the program subject, an interesting evening is in prospect for members of the Business and Professional Women's club on Monday, October 1. Lucile Tweed, international relations chairman, and members of her committee will be in charge.

Dinner is at 6:30 at the Willard hotel and those planning to attend are reminded to be sure and make reservations by calling Hattie Evans at 7354 before Monday noon.

MAJOR AND MRS. ZED BARNES cut their wedding cake with an old French saber after their wedding in Sugar Grove, Ill., September 2. Mrs. Barnes is the former Arlene Mighell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Todd Mighell of Sugar Grove, and Major Barnes is the son of W. B. Barnes and the late Mrs. Barnes of this city.