

Football Fans Hosts At Supper Parties

With the first snappy days of fall weather and the football season, thoughts turn to those cheerful get-togethers before and after the football game when there is a chance to talk over the happenings of the past summer and make plans for the winter days ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Conradi entertained for a group of friends at supper at their home, 2925 Homedale, just before the Grant-Pelican game last Friday evening.

Guests of the Conradi's included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. Bernice Britt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Erle Hamilton, and Dr. and Mrs. Miller E. Cooper.

Invited in for a buffet supper after the Salem-Klamath Falls game Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, 1130 Monclaire, were Mr. and Mrs. Delos Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Chesleigh Moore.

Several of the high school set also entertained before and after the game for members of the student bodies of Salem and Klamath Falls.

Charlotte Carter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, entertained at her home on Pacific Terrace after the game with an open house in honor of members of the two teams.

Also entertaining Friday evening was Lola Whisenant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whisenant of Portland street.

Catholic Women

Catholic Daughters of America met in the parish hall Monday evening, September 24, for a regular business meeting with Azita Kennedy grand regent presiding. The fall initiation is planned for Monday, October 29, in the KC hall. All applications for membership must be in by October 8 for the first reading. There was a very good attendance and following the meeting refreshments were served by a committee headed by Freda Newman, assisted by Dorothy Derrah, Nora Quinlan and Marie Edwards.

The following ladies of the Sacred Heart church served as hostesses at the USO center on Fridays during the month of August: Livia Bocchi, Ethel Brunner, Alice Carnini, Katie Carty, Lillian Dale, Helen Egan, Azita Kennedy, Lenore Gallagher, Helen Goekner, Mary Ann Granas, Emma Grey, Kathryn Hagen, Clara Heup, Agnes La Londe, Emilie Miller, Jenes Moty, Mabel Roman, Velma Fogarty, Mary Schnabel, Elizabeth Schuh, Mildred Smith, Marian Thurman, Louise Vaughn, Mrs. Jack Elie, Mrs. Andrew Honzel, Mrs. Lynn Roycroft, Mrs. J. H. Paul and Mrs. X. I. Nidorf. Members of the Catholic Daughters who donated home-made cakes to the USO during the month of September were Alice Abbott, Virginia McCormack, Agnes Ellis, Ellen Ely, Violette O'Connor, Carrie McMahan, Marie Edwards, Violet Piser, Cecelia Carty, Gladys Stephens, Marie Harrington, Emma Grey, Anne Zuran, Rosemary Zupan, Mary Schnabel, Frances Druliner, Eileen Bocchi, Alice Clark and Marlan Cronon.

Eastern Star

Members of the Malin and Tulelake chapters of the Eastern Star were guests of Aloha chapter when they met for their regular session on Tuesday at the Masonic hall.

Marian Wilson and Florence DeMerritt represented the Malin chapter and they presented a clever skit, "The Bashful Lover." Tulelake chapter was represented by Beulah Weise, deputy grand matron of California, who read an original poem, "The Vicissitudes of a Worthy Matron," which was dedicated to Worthy Matron Gladys Laird.

Alma Cofer, grand representative of the Grand Chapter of Tennessee, gave an interesting talk on "Friendship," and later supper was served to about 125 guests and members in the banquet room by a committee, Kate Peyton, Jessie Lyle, Mayme Thomas, Frances Bennet and Ruth Palmer.

The next meeting will be held October 9 when the men of the order will take charge of program and refreshments. The Masonic order will be entertained at this time. Sallie Wood, worthy matron, and Arthur Dickson, worthy patron, invite all members and visiting members.

GEORGIA MICKA, formerly of Malin, was married in a ceremony in Corvallis recently to James Kuehne of Palo Alto, Calif. The young couple will reside in Corvallis.

Former Malin Girl Is Corvallis Bride

Georgia Micka, daughter of Mrs. Marie Micka and Joe Micka, formerly of Malin, became the bride on September 9 of James P. Kuehne, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Kuehne of Palo Alto, Calif., in a ceremony read at the Mayflower chapel in Corvallis.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white Spanish lace and marquisette with a long train. Her fingertip veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls and she carried a white orchid surrounded with white carnations and rosebuds set in frills of pale blue lace and showered with white satin ribbon and Stephanotis.

Her sister, Bernice Micka, was her maid of honor and wore a gown of yellow taffeta and net. Her tiara was fashioned of orchid gladioli and pink rosebuds, and she carried an old-fashioned nosegay with satin ribbon ties.

Mark Youngs of Portland was best man and the ushers were John Crosby of Longview, Wash., and A. J. Burnham of Corvallis.

Baskets of white gladioli and tall white tapers in candelabra were arranged at the altar where the Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons read the service.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Baskets of white gladioli and yellow dahlias provided the floral background.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuehne left later on a wedding trip to Canada. For going away, the bride wore a powder blue gabardine suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will return to Corvallis where they will make their home and he will attend Oregon State college. Mrs. Kuehne has also attended Oregon State.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cushman of Tulelake, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Elmont Kenyon and Mrs. E. J. Lahoda of Malin.

Wedding

A beautiful wedding was solemnized this past Saturday, September 22, at 7 o'clock in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Snyder when their niece, Macquie Blaine, became the bride of Barney V. Childers, recently discharged from the army, and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Childers of this city.

Merian Webster sang "Because," before the ceremony and was accompanied by Patrick Hambrick.

The bride chose a suit of dusty blue with pink accessories for her wedding. She was attended by her sister, Billie Jean Blaine of Portland and the best man was Bob Stapp, USMC.

After the ceremony, a reception was held for the young couple. The bride's cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and after the first piece was cut, Mrs. Snyder presided. Serving were Ramona Baker and Barbara Homer.

Contract Club

Bertha Hewitt of 2225 Darrow was hostess to the Thursday Contract club on September 20. After dessert the afternoon was spent at cards. Mrs. Jen McClintock, the guest of Idoline Schupp, held high score, Alice Lawrence, second, and Willa Bark received the traveling award. Alice Lawrence of 3506 Anderson, will be hostess for the next meeting.

Silver Anniversary Observed Thursday

Soroptimists meeting for dinner at the Pelican party room Thursday night participated in a profitable and hilarious auction, raising $300 for the Madame Noel fund, with Ida Odell as the capable auctioneer. Merchandise included a hand-woven Canadian basket, Irish linen, pillow cases and other hard-to-get items, such as sugar, 51 gauge hose, Hershey bars, bacon and the fresh eggs to go with it. O.P.A. prices were definitely discarded as Mrs. Odell kept members wildly bidding.

Mrs. Odell was assisted in the sale by Sylvia McClelland, Rita Whisenant, Olive Cornett and Ruth Adams, who auctioned off a 100-pound sack of her own potatoes.

Kathleen Thompson, president of the group, presided at the dinner and introduced Mrs. Ruth Hattan, a new Soroptimist member, to the club. Nancy Gaylord and the Venture club members were guests of the group, each being presented with a gift bought at the auction.

The dinner meeting celebrated the founding of the first Soroptimist club 25 years ago in Oakland, Calif. The Klamath Falls club, a member of what is now the largest classified service club for women in the world, marked the silver anniversary by raising the $300 contribution for the rehabilitation of their sister clubs in the recently liberated countries of Europe and in China.

This fund has been named the Madame Noel fund in honor of the famous plastic surgeon of World War I, who won France's highest decorations as well as honors from other nations. The money raised by 200 Soroptimist clubs of the United States and Canada will be used to revitalize the Soroptimist clubs in war-torn countries, and through them begin again the work of service to their communities.

The committee in charge of the party was headed by Sylvia McClelland, chairman, with Rita Whisenant and Ida Odell. Table decorations of silver pine cones and silver candelabra carried out the anniversary theme.

Hazbins

The Hazbins of the Eagles auxiliary met on Friday evening, September 14, at the home of Peggy Long with Betty Wood as hostess. Pinochle was played and high score was held by Mildred Mosby, second by Stella Persell and consolation by Fannie Mae Thompson.

Refreshments were served later in the evening.

The annual past madam president's night will be held in the upper FOE hall on Friday evening, October 12. The honor of the position of madam president for the evening will be given to Dolly Machado, who has a birthday on that day. Other past madam presidents taking part that evening will be Fannie Mae Thompson as past madam president; Frances Herbert, vice president; Maudie Larson, chaplain; Betty Wood, conductress; Stella Persell, captain; Mary Lewis, secretary and Mae Eck, treasurer.

A large class of candidates is expected in honor of the women.

Book Club

Mrs. Phil Brixner entertained the Edith Canning Book club at dinner at her home on Lakeshore drive, Monday evening, September 24. Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Twyla Ferguson and Mrs. A. C. Backes. Those attending besides the regular members of the group were Mrs. Mabel Randall, Mrs. Lucille Willis, Mrs. Barbara Wardell and Sheila Gillen.

After dinner a book review of Russian fiction was given by Elenora Weatherford.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Michael L. Erickson of 3222 Cannon entertained a group of friends, members of the Sons of Norway, on Saturday evening, September 15.

Three tables of pinochle and Norwegian tables were played during the evening. Awards went to Mrs. Florence Nelson, Mrs. Sverre Munson, Jalmer Rothe and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson.

A supper was served by the hostess and Mrs. Pete Berg. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Munson, Mr. and Mrs. Swendsen of Chiloquin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Jalmer Rothe, Mrs. Florence Nelson, Agner Jordanger and Earl Barnes Jr., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson.

Future Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlson, 323 S. 5th, have announced the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Ruth Cunningham, to PFC Robert T. Troll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Troll of Youngstown, Ohio.

Plans for the wedding are being made for October 21.

Miss Cunningham is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1945 and PFC Troll is stationed at the Marine Barracks here.

Ye Olde Pinochle club met on Thursday, September 20, with Kathryn Billings at her home on the Keno highway. Lunch was served at 1 p. m. and pinochle followed. Arthur Stone, a guest, received the award for high score, Nona Hall second, Fannie Goddard the pinochle award and Maggie Upton low. Mrs. Upton will be hostess to the club on Thursday, October 4, at her home at 2346 Kane.
