

Judith Brown Is Bride Last Sunday

At a lovely ceremony read at home, Judith Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gail B. Brown, 2025 Vine, became the bride of Richard M. Lepley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lepley, also of this city.

The wedding took place at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 23, with the Rev. Bertrand Peterson of the First Nazarene church officiating.

For her wedding Judith chose to wear a soft green suit with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of Tulliaman rosebuds.

The young couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ardis Lepley, a brother and sister-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Lepley wore a dressmaker suit of gold wool with a corsage of gardenias.

The house was filled with bouquets of white and pink asters and gladioli.

A reception for the wedding party and about 35 guests was held after the ceremony when the large three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom. It was served by Mrs. Max Lepley of Tulelake.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Willa Brown of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Caldwell of Canby, Calif., Mrs. Grace Simonson of Alturas and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor of Redding.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Lepley left for a two weeks' trip to Boulder dam. They will return home by way of the coast.

The groom was discharged from the army air forces two weeks ago where he served as a radar man in a reconnaissance group on duty in Africa and Italy. He will be employed on his return by the Southern Pacific company and Mrs. Lepley will return to her position at the chamber of commerce.

VFW Auxiliary

The auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars held a regular meeting in the library clubroom Thursday evening, September 20, with Mrs. Walter Thompson presiding. State Department Secretary Edith Alderman of Portland was a guest and gave an interesting talk in which she complimented the lodge upon its floor work and general organization. Another guest was Mrs. Charles Stains of Los Angeles, junior vice president of Los Angeles auxiliary.

The altar was draped in memory of Florence Miller who passed away on September 10. Just before her death the lodge had taken out for her a life membership in the National Home. Charlotte Canoy thanked members of her committee who did such excellent work in preparing and carrying out plans for the district meeting and banquet, and Patricia Henry reported upon the meetings. Mrs. Henry also received the special award given at each lodge meeting.

Following the session, members of Pelican post 1383 were served refreshments by members of the auxiliary. Special guests were Charles Stains, commander of the Los Angeles VFW post 1534, Mr. Alderman, special service officer of the Portland post, and PFC Billy Miller of the marines, who had just been taken into membership in Pelican post 1383. He is the son of the late Florence Miller and was returned from four years in a prison camp near Tokyo just one week after his mother's death.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held on October 4, and a class of candidates will be initiated at this time. All officers are to appear in uniform.

Reception

TULELAKE—Teachers of the Tulelake high school and the elementary schools of Tulelake, Winema and Carr were guests at a reception given Friday night, September 21, in the annex of the Tulelake Presbyterian church. Members of the church Guild were hostesses. Eighty five guests enjoyed the affair.

Born Again At 71

John Levin sat by the kitchen stove that day listening to the broadcast of the Seattle Christian Businessmen. As the words flowed in, John saw himself a sinner and lost. Down to his knees he went to receive Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord. He counted the blood of Christ as having cleansed away his sins. Says his daughter—Father could hardly wait for the evening meeting nearby to tell them his joy.

Now look back through the years to Sweden and see Charlotte Munson all set for the dance. That was her life—the dance. Later she came into the Christian faith and married. Her prayer was that the child about to be born, should never learn to dance and should become a Christian. The child proved to be a son, John Levin, as above. John never learned to dance and he finally became a Christian.

In America he worked in the mines and woods and bought the pear orchard in Yakima. All his life he was a good man and upright but only in his 71st year did he receive Christ and the forgiveness of sins—salvation. The man is now 81 and out of much Bible and prayer, the Spirit of God has made Christ actual to him and through him to others.

God did not save you for a 50-50 life. Yield yourself over to be used of Him when and where He wills. So comes joy here and eternal reward over there. It is appointed unto men once to die and after that the judgement. What has Judgement Day for you?

CELEBRATING his second birthday on September 9 was little Ralph Charles Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams of 743 N. 11th. —Kennell-Ellis.

RUTH CUNNINGHAM will marry PFC Robert T. Troll of Youngstown, Ohio, it was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlson of this city. —Kennell-Ellis.
