

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

By JOAN O'NEILL

School started at 10 o'clock this morning, but all clocks read "nine." KUHS is back on standard time along with the rest of the nation after three years of being an hour ahead of schedule.

Loney III

Andrew Loney, music director at KUHS, was taken to Hillside hospital last Thursday. However, it was learned he is improving and should be out soon.

Girls League

There is one club in school that every girl is eligible to belong to and in fact becomes a member upon registration in high school. That club is the Girls League. The club is divided into several divisions that are responsible for certain types of activities.

The list of girls in different clubs has been posted in the main hall. Club 1 is the Big and Little Sister club which sponsors the dance by the same name. The Big and Little Sister dance is primarily for the freshman girls so that they may become better acquainted with the upper classmen.

Ernie Botens is president of the Girls League. Lois Cada holds the office of vice president and Janice Blythe, secretary.

Half-time Drill

GI Homecoming was the theme of the half-time drill put on by the band, Pep Peppers and twirlers at the game Friday. The three units formed "HGI" and then marched into line for "KUHS." The band played appropriate songs throughout the drills and a folk dance was demonstrated by the Pep Peppers.

Pep Pepper Initiation Soon

Pep Pepper initiation is scheduled for Wednesday when 26 new Pep Peppers will go through the paces set up by the older members. To belong to Pep Peppers a girl must have a 2.7 average and meet certain requirements specified by the club.

ONE BILLION SLATED FOR POSTWAR ROADS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Authority to begin a $1,073,250,000 federal postwar roads program won unanimous approval today from the senate postoffice and post roads committee.

Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn.), said he would seek senate consent for speedy consideration of the legislation already passed by the house. The senate was in recess today but will meet Tuesday.

H. S. Fairbank, deputy public roads commissioner, told senators that states already have plans completed for $600,000,000 in highway projects. He said he believed men and materials

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR?

SEATTLE, Oct. 1 (AP)—Deputy Sheriff P. P. (Pat) Bliss wants one thing straight about his international mail chess match with Emir Abdullah of Transjordan.

A recent page-one article in a Paris newspaper carried the headline: "Emir's Pawn Moves to Check Chess Threat by Commoner."

"Commoner," snorted Bliss. "I'll sue."

A few minutes later, he said: "He must have meant 'commuter.'"

Bliss won the commuter's championship aboard the ferry Illahee before challenging the middle eastern potentate.

BIDS TO BE ASKED

PORTLAND, Oct. 1 (AP)—Bids for a $500,000 water main—first step in the city's $1,000,000 sewer and water system construction program—will be asked soon, Public Works Commissioner W. A. Bowes reported today.

The project will give the city a second pipe line from Mt. Tabor reservoirs to the west side of town, passing under the river.
