Mary Jane Drake Is Bride Of Army Man

The Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland was the scene of the lovely wedding on Sunday afternoon, September 24, of Mary Jane Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Drake, and Capt. George R. McDannold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDannold of Tulsa, Okla.

The Drakes are former residents of Klamath Falls, having moved to Portland several months ago.

The ceremony was read at four o'clock by Dr. Franklyn Thomas Hudson.

The bride wore a dress of white satin with a long train and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. She wore a full-length lace veil held in place about her head with a band of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white orchids, gardenias and stephanotis.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Rigdon of Gilchrist announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Christine, to Melvin S. Mayes Jr., United States marine corps reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin S. Mayes Sr., of Durham, N. C. The news was revealed informally this past week.

The wedding will take place some time this fall.

Football Theme

The football season was theme of the Wednesday night meeting of the Wednesday club at St. Paul's parish house. Decorations about the rooms were small football helmets, leaves and a dummy in one corner of the room dressed as a football player.

Guests and members wore letterman's sweaters in carrying out the theme of the evening.

Eleven tables of bridge and three tables of pinocle were in play with first prize in bridge going to Mrs. Homer Ellis, second to Mrs. A. L. Moore and high in pinocle to Hazel Morrison.

Hostesses for the evening were Lillian Redkey, Lyravine Fish, Orpha Hudson, Mrs. A. L. Brandt and Mrs. James Scott.

The next meeting will be held October 24.

Social Club

The Rebekah Social club met in the IOOF hall Wednesday, September 26. Members gathered at 1 p. m. for a potluck luncheon which was followed by an afternoon of sewing and chatting. Alice Goeller and Eva Richardson were members of the committee for the day.

There will be a potluck luncheon before the next meeting, October 10.

Famous Author To Appear At Meeting

Ernest Haycox, author of "Canyon Passage" which appeared in installment form in the Saturday Evening Post recently and which is now being filmed in the Diamond Lake country, will be the guest speaker for the October meeting of the Woman's Library club Monday.

Haycox, who is in this part of the country in connection with the filming of his book, will choose his own subject.

The author, a native Oregonian, makes his home in Portland with his wife and two children. He has written other well-known books as "Stage Coach," "Chafee of Roaring Horse," "Free Grass," and "Whispering Range."

The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock Monday in the Library club rooms.

An additional feature of the meeting will be the musical portion of the program featuring Mrs. Richard Post and Ruth Rogers as a duo piano team presenting several piano numbers.

Rebekahs

In the absence of the president, Elizabeth Ramsby, Nellie Wattenburg presided over the meeting of the Past Noble Grand club of Prosperity Rebekah lodge, which was held in the IOOF hall on Tuesday, October 2. The potluck luncheon was served at 1 p. m. with Alfreda Steinmetz hostess for the afternoon, and the business meeting was followed by an enjoyable hour of conversation.

On Tuesday, November 6, the club will again meet for a potluck luncheon and Martha Baker and Nellie Wattenburg will be the hostesses.

Dance Planned

Elks will be hosts at a formal dance for enlisted personnel of the armed forces Friday evening, October 12, at the Elks temple. Music will be provided by Baldy Evans and the USO Junior Hostesses will assist. Dancing is from 9 to 12 o'clock.

To prevent overcrowding facilities of the club, admittance to the dance will be by invitation only. Some 225 invitations have been placed proportionately in the hands of personnel officers at the various posts for distribution to the men who request them.

Women in uniform will be admitted without invitation as well as service men who present an Elks membership card, or an Elks military courtesy card. Klamath men in uniform, home on leave, will be admitted without invitation, but they should present their leave passes at the door.

The affair has been planned by the Elks enlisted men's entertainment committee of which John Schubert is chairman, assisted by Estin Kiger, Jim Clark, Bob Drago, Ray Ruger and Jack Linman. Their wives will also assist as senior hostesses at the party.

Nile Club

Members of the Nile club met for luncheon in the party room of the Pelican cafe Wednesday, October 3, at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Marshall Cornett, vice president of the club, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Walter Brown, who was attending Grand Chapter of OES in Portland.

The business of the day was conducted in short order so that the time could be devoted to the plans for the ceremonial that is to be held October 27.

Hostesses were Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mrs. Harry Wayne.

Fall foliage, berries and flowers were used about the room in decorative arrangements.

Breakfast Plans Made For Reames

A number of cocktail parties are planned for tonight, Saturday, just before the first party of the fall season at Reames Golf and Country club. Dancing will start at 10 o'clock and there will be a ham and egg breakfast served by the committee including Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. George Merryman and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Shaw.

During the evening there will be presentation of golf trophies to this year's winners.

The second part of the championship tournament at Reames on Friday morning was won by Mrs. J. J. Steiger, Mrs. T. A. Jerrow, Mrs. Martin Swanson and Mrs. W. O. Smith.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. George Merryman, Mrs. R. R. Macartney, Mrs. Harry Panning and Mrs. Frank Jenkins. Guest award of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Frank Tarr.

On October 12, Mrs. Steiger will play Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Jerrow will play Mrs. Smith for the championship playoff.

First flight will be played by Mrs. E. M. Raymond and Mrs. Matt Finnigan. Hostesses for next Friday will be Mrs. Guy Hancock, Mrs. E. P. Brosterhouse, Mrs. F. J. West and Mrs. Paul Dalton.

Lioness Club

The Lioness club will entertain the Lions Monday evening, October 8, with a potluck supper. Ham with all the trimmings has been promised for the menu.

The dinner will be in the library club rooms and invitations are extended to all Lions and their wives and all Lioness members.

Members of the committee in charge are Mrs. H. A. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cox, Mrs. Don Rice, Mrs. Hans Norland and Mrs. Myrtle C. Adams.

Mary Scott Weds

Romance on the range bloomed when tiny Mary Margaret Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Scott of Portland, formerly of Klamath Falls, was married in August to PFC John Arnn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Arnn of Willard, New Mexico. Mary Margaret was employed as a wrangler on the Arnn ranch when she met John and when he received a 30-day furlough from overseas duty with the army paratroops they were married.

The ceremony took place in Albuquerque, N. M., before a few friends and relatives.

Mrs. Arnn wore a suit of black and white check with black accessories for her wedding. After the ceremony the couple spent four days at Carlsbad, N. M., and later returned to Willard.

The new Mrs. Arnn is a graduate of Klamath Union high school where she was active in journalism and she later was graduated from Reed college in Portland. At one time she was employed by The Herald and News.

Slumber Party

Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Albert Minelli and Mrs. E. G. Sparkman.

BPW Tea Sunday

National Business Women's week will be observed by the Klamath County Business and Professional Women's club from Sunday, October 7 to October 13, when stress is placed on the aims and activities of this organization.

Coral Sabo, public affairs chairman, who is in charge of arrangements for the week, has requested all members of BPW to attend their own churches on Sunday morning.

In the afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock, the annual silver tea will be given with Emma Carter presiding as hostess at her lovely home on South Sixth street, and with Martha McCollum as tea chairman.

Coming as it does in the autumn, this affair is always one of the nicest of the year and guests are especially invited. Money raised by this year's tea will be turned over to the Community Chest fund.

Short radio talks are also being given throughout the week by various members, and these are being arranged by Mrs. Sabo.

The theme of the national week this year will be "Jobs Enough to Go Around."
