

Dr. Ferguson Is Guest Speaker

The greatest stumbling block towards peace will be the hatreds engendered by World War II, it was brought out by Dr. David J. Ferguson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Merrill, who was guest speaker at Monday evening's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, October 1, at the Willard hotel.

Dr. Ferguson, besides being a speaker who is well worth listening to, represented the United States army general staff and chaplains at the United Nations conference in San Francisco, and was the only representative there from the state of Oregon.

He described the various delegates whom he contacted at the conference, mentioned their attitudes in regard to future peace and today's problems and outlined the events leading up to the momentous conference, such as the meeting in 1942, to pool the agricultural resources of the world; the Bretton Woods conference to stabilize the world's finances, and the meeting of 44 nations at Dumbarton Oaks where the United Nations charter was drawn up for presentation and ratification at San Francisco.

An interesting point that Dr. Ferguson brought out is that the United Nations have a flag of their own—four red stripes on a white background, the stripes representing the four freedoms.

"Peace doesn't come easily. It has to be worked for diligently," the speaker stressed, "especially considering the racial, religious and money problems which will have to be overcome."

In the absence of Lucile Tweed, international affairs chairman, Gertrude Tolle presided over the dinner and program, introducing Kay Benham who spent two years as a resident of Lima, Peru. Mrs. Benham displayed a number of articles of clothing made by the Peruvian Indians, and told some interesting facts of the way they live.

In keeping with the international theme of the program, Jewel Cantral sang "The Song of Peace," accompanied by Dorothy Ackerman. Winnifred Gillen led the group singing.

Assisting on the program committee were Isabelle Brixner, Madge Boley, Evelyn Ickes and Ellen Upp.

President Hazel Morrison announced that BPW members have been asked to assist with the Community Chest drive, and, in cooperation with the Soroptimist club, to handle the bond headquarters for the Eighth Victory loan.

Those planning to attend the southern Oregon regional conference of BPW at Grants Pass on October 13 and 14, were urged to make their hotel reservations immediately.

Myrtle Helm, a long-time member of BPW, was greeted after a long absence due to illness. It was announced that Loraine Quillen will be in charge of the next BPW meeting, October 15, which will be of a social nature.

A meeting of the executive board will be held Monday evening, October 8, at the home of Betty Jones, 429 Jefferson.
