KUHS OFFERS NEW CLASS IN COOKERY

The newest offering of the vocational department of Klamath Union high school to the Klamath Falls merchants is a class in meat preparation and cookery given at the request of the butchers and grocers of the community.

The class will be under the leadership of Mrs. Ted Bingham, a former Modoc county home demonstration agent, and will be conducted on a demonstration and discussion basis.

The classes are to be held in the home economics laboratory of the Fremont school Mondays from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. for a period of six weeks. A nominal fee is charged to cover the expense. Anyone interested in attending the class will be welcomed. For further information call the Klamath Union high school vocational office, 7595.
