

Ernest Haycox Is Speaker At Meeting

Ernest Haycox, noted author, was the speaker at the Monday meeting of the Woman's Library club in the library club rooms. Mr. Haycox, an Oregonian, came here from Portland for the meeting. The subject of his talk was "Peace."

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Ed Ostendorf and Mrs. Walter Beane and members of the program committee were Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mrs. K. A. Moore and Mrs. E. A. Geary.

Mrs. Don Zamwalt, music chairman, presented Mrs. Richard Post and Ruth Rogers in piano duo arrangements. The two played "Scaramouche Suite" by Milhand and "Tea for Two" by Youmans.

Recent Wedding

A recent wedding in Astoria of interest to Klamath Falls people was that of Marie Waggoner Phanco, daughter of Mrs. Zara Phanco of Seattle, and William Ray Stillwell, USMC, son of W. H. Stillwell of Richmond, Calif., and Mrs. Maye Stillwell of Klamath Falls.

The wedding was performed in the chapel of the Lutheran service center in Astoria with the Rev. Alexander Barwick performing the candlelight service before an altar decked with white roses and asters.

The bride was dressed in a gown of creamy white satin with a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a fingertip veil held in place with a tiara of seed pearls.

She carried a Testament, covered in white satin for the occasion, that had been in the possession of the bridegroom during his two years in the Pacific. Her bouquet was of talisman roses.

The maid of honor was Winnie Lee Marshall who wore a dress of plum colored crepe with silver beads. Her corsage was of gardenias. John Michael Honza, USN, was best man for the wedding.

The bride's mother chose a grey suit with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a brown suit with white accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the center where the couple cut their wedding cake. The cake was served with coffee at a candlelight table.

For traveling, the bride wore a suit of robin's egg blue with white accessories. The couple will be at home in Astoria where he is stationed at the Marine Barracks.

Mr. Stillwell enlisted in the marine corps in 1941 after attending high school here. He served two years in the Pacific with the 3rd amphibious forces.

Mrs. Stillwell is well known in Seattle where she attended high school and business college. She served as a junior hostess for some time in the Seattle USO.

Some outstanding talents among members were discovered, and evoked much merriment. Dancing, with unusual events, completed the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. R. E. Hooker and Bill Sheldon.

The committee in charge was Mrs. H. A. Wheeler, Mrs. Hans Norland, Mrs. C. J. Cox, Mrs. M. C. Adams, and Mrs. Don Rice.

The next meeting will be held November 12, at the library club rooms when Mrs. R. E. Hooker and Mrs. Al Heup will be co-hostesses.

The dinner honoring all Lions members and wives, sponsored by the Lioness club, was voted an outstanding success Monday night, October 8, at the library club rooms. About 45 couples attended the party which started with a dinner at 7 o'clock followed by a program made up of members of the two clubs, with Dr. C. J. Cox as ringmaster, E. S. Robinson, president of the Lions club, as toastmaster, and Mrs. Fred H. Heilbronner, president of the Lioness club, as hostess.

Ye Olde Pinochle club met on Thursday, October 4, at the home of Kathryn Billings on the Ashland highway for luncheon and cards. There was one guest, Mrs. Hixon, who received the award for high score. Violet Vance was second, Nona Hall low, and Kathryn Billings received the pinochle award. The next meeting will be with Esther Adkisson of 1536 Oregon.

Rita Whisenant reported on the Venture club party which was held in the Pelican party room and at which time they initiated 10 members.

An interesting letter was read to the club from Gwendolyn Wright, a former member now living in San Jose.

Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Jewel Cantrall.

The Garden club will meet October 15 in the small library clubroom with Mrs. Lawrence Phelps in charge. Mrs. Phelps will give instructions in the making of corsages and members are asked to bring their own flowers or other materials. The meeting will start at 2 o'clock.

Soroptimists Hear Musical Numbers

An unusual musical treat was enjoyed by Soroptimists as the program feature at luncheon Thursday. Four students presented the numbers and were enthusiastically received. Mrs. George McIntyre accompanied the young ladies.

The program was as follows:

Serenade, Romberg

"Ho-La-Li" Bavarian folk song

Trio, Dorothy Collier, Marie Wright and Erlene Wheeler

"To a Wild Rose," McDowell

"The Song Is You," Kern

Soloist, Marie Wright

"Minuet," Paderewski

"Valse in G Flat," Chopin

Pianist, June Marie Murphy

"I'll Walk Beside You," Murray

Trio, Dorothy Collier, Marie Wright and Erlene Wheeler

"Let My Song Fill Your Heart," Charles

Soloist, Erlene Wheeler

President Kathleen Thompson introduced a new member, Ruth Hattan of Shaw Stationary company, who was cordially greeted by the members.

A letter was also read from the national federation advising that one of the uses to which the Mme. Noel fund had been put was the purchase of bicycle tires for a Belgian doctor whose only means of transportation in caring for her patients is her bicycle.

Rita Whisenant reported on the Venture club party which was held in the Pelican party room and at which time they initiated 10 members.

An interesting letter was read to the club from Gwendolyn Wright, a former member now living in San Jose.

Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Jewel Cantrall.
