UNION STOPS SALE AVIATION GASOLINE

Sales of aviation gasoline at service stations will be discontinued Monday, October 15, by Union Oil company, it was announced today. The decision was brought about by a new OPA amendment prohibiting the sale of any gasoline to the motoring public at a higher price than ethyl.

Union Oil officials pointed out that it was not economically possible to sell 91/96 grade aircraft engine fuel at ethyl prices. Consequently, the product they have been offering the motoring public will be taken off the market until the new OPA regulation is adjusted or withdrawn.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN FOR CASU

Climaxing a tour of duty here that began with the commissioning of the CASU last March, 1945, the enlisted personnel of CASU were feted by a picnic and show at the aircraft hanger Tuesday afternoon by the welfare department.

Chief A. P. Adams presided over the crowd of over 500 men with plenty to laugh about with his hilarious antics and ad libs. A series of events were held in a competitive fashion with cash awards to the winners. Among these were the 100-yard dash, broad jump, football throwing for distance and a cigar smoking contest. A ring event between a boxer and a wrestler met with the ovation of all the spectators when Frank Romano and Harold Winkler slugged and grappled it out.

Music was furnished by the station "Korn Kobblers."

DAR Holds Annual Pioneer Meeting

LAKEVIEW—Early day history of Lake county was recalled here Saturday at the annual pioneer meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Among the 16 pioneer women present were Mrs. Alice Laird, first white child born in Warner valley, and Mrs. Minnie Duke, first white child born in Goose Lake valley. These two pioneers as well as others at the meeting at Schminck's museum, entered a lively and interesting discussion on pioneer medicine and remedies, accounts of Indian uprisings in Warner valley and early day life and hardships of the emigrants to this section of Oregon and northern California. The county seat at The Dalles.
