

FREEDOM OF PRESS URGED BY AP CHIEF

BOSTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Calling attention to tendencies toward government control of radio, press and motion pictures, Kent Cooper, executive director of The Associated Press, today urged the public to demand of those in power a guarantee that freedom of the press will be extended throughout the world.

Speaking at the Boston conference on distribution, Cooper asserted that "press freedom everywhere is essential for the future welfare of mankind," and that a universal free press "can develop into the world's antidote for the employment of the atomic bomb."

Anti-Trust Suit
He referred briefly to the recent government anti-trust suit against the AP with the observation that "the cause of truthful international news exchange and the right to print it in every land... greatly transcends anything that can happen to The Associated Press."

In the radio case, he explained, "We have freedom of speech into the homes of the land through the medium of radio definitely channeled for regulation by a government commission." Only last week, he said, "the trial of the government suit against eight motion picture distributors began in the federal court in New York."

Legal Intervention
He explained that "no attempt so far has been made by the government through the courts or by the courts to assert editorial powers over the news. The Associated Press delivers in spite of its successful legal intervention in its affairs."

"In explanation of its efforts to make The Associated Press service available to any one who wants it, the government distinctly disavowed its intention to gain control of the news report. Nevertheless, it is obvious, as in the case of radio, that the powers now in the hands of the administration are of fundamental and far-reaching importance and that they are definitely not based on any expressed grant by congress."

PROCESSORS GIVEN OK TO HIKE PRICE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—The OPA yesterday authorized Washington, Oregon and California processors of packed fruits, berries and vegetables to increase price ceilings on sales to government agencies to compensate for higher wage rates.

In Washington and Oregon the increases range from three-tenths of one per cent for fruit and berry juices and nectars to eight-tenths of one per cent for applesauce. For processed vegetables, the range is from three-tenths of one per cent for peas to nine-tenths of one per cent for beets.

FREIGHTER AGROUND ON VANCOUVER COAST

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 16 (AP)—A 10,000-ton American freighter, stranded during a heavy fog Sunday, was reported aground last night on jagged rocks 150 miles up the west coast of Vancouver Island.

The S. S. Salvage Queen of the Pacific Salvage company had left Victoria for the scene and American salvage vessels were reported to be already giving assistance.

At Seattle, 13th naval district headquarters announced the vessel aground is a navy refrigerator ship and that it is in no particular danger. All hands on the ship are safe and salvage operations are proceeding under the direction of the navy, it was said.

The name of the refrigerator ship and its destination were not known to navy officials on duty last night, nor were further details available.

Huge Pear Harvest Nears Completion

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 16 (AP)—One of the biggest pear harvests in years is nearing completion in the Rogue river valley, the state farm labor office reported today.

Boose picking will end this week, and Nells by late October. Orchardists, estimating a $6,000,000 crop, credited hormone sprays, which prevent premature dropping of the fruit, with saving many thousands of dollars this season.

The farm labor office estimated a 2,300,000-box pear crop from Rogue river.

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

By JOAN O'NEILL

KUHS may be peppy, but the Quarterback club can keep pace with the students. Yesterday the school had a surprise in the form of an assembly which the Quarterback club had planned.

Johnny Houston, former mayor of Klamath Falls and member of the club, was master-of-ceremony. He was introduced by student body president, Jim Howard. The Quarterback club was seated on the stage.

Mr. Houston stated in his forceful manner that he absolutely refused to believe that Medford could defeat the Klamath team. He then signaled for the team to come on to the stage. The band played a series of a thousand discords and the kids added to the confusion with their voices.

A puzzled team entered for they had not been told of the doings. They did not quite understand that the loud ovation was for them to show that Klamath spirit is with them.

The assembly was for the purpose of arousing the students for the Medford game which is this coming Friday. It didn't come too early in the week either. If the pep shown yesterday lasts, we ought to beat Medford.

Vern Owens, a member of the Quarterback club, spoke on the coming game. Paul Angstead, KUHS football coach, talked on the game also.

Johnny Houston, Bud Selby, and Ted and Fred Reeves led yells for both coaches, Ryan and Angstead. Bob Clammer put on a skit with a kitten on a string, which was supposed to represent the Tigers, who are now called the Medford Tornadoes.

One of the highlights was the song rendered by several of the Quarterbackers. They sang a song written to the tune of "Alloette," which the whole school joined in singing.

It is nice to see men, who can put themselves into the spirit of fun that the Quarterback club showed at the assembly yesterday.

Box Social Saturday
It will be back to the good old days Saturday night when the Job's Daughters sponsor a Box Social. The social is open to the school, but it is date girl-ask-boy affair. There will be both eating and dancing at the social.

Bidding on the boxes will be limited to a reasonable amount so that it will suit the high school pocketbook. The social starts at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple.

A Box Social is new to the teen-agers, although parents and grandparents have partaken years ago. So get your dates girls—it is going to be a lot of fun!

Many friends mourned the death Monday of Mrs. William A. Spangler, who passed away at 11:30 a. m., at Hillside hospital after an illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Spangler, the former Edna Stoddard, was born May 20, 1907, at Baker Ore., and had been a resident of Klamath county since 1928. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Norman Y. Stoddard of Portland and Modoc Point.

She attended school at St. Francis academy at Baker and later the University of Oregon at Eugene where she was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority. She was married January 4, 1930 to William A. Spangler.

Since coming to Klamath Falls she has been prominently identified with social and civic activities. She was a member of the American Association of University Women, the Klamath Falls Women's library club and the League of Women Voters.

At the time of her death she resided at 2027 Del Moro.

Mrs. Spangler is survived by her husband, William A. Spangler and two brothers, Guy H. Stoddard of Klamath Falls, and J. N. Thomas Stoddard, USNR, of Portland.

Funeral services will take place Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. at the Earl Whitlock Funeral home. Interment will be at the Portland Mausoleum in Portland, Thursday at 3 p. m.

At 9:25 yesterday to allow the office to take care of the throng of students coming back to school after absence because of the Grants Pass game. There were line-ups extending into the hall and after the empty halls that were evident Friday, it was nice to see that the school is inhabited after all.

Dance After Game
This coming Friday night will be a big one. The band, Pep Peppers and twirlers have been working for almost two weeks to do the drills for the Medford game and there will be a dance at the Masonic Temple after the game that night. This dance is given by the Job's Daughters.

PORTLAND'S TRAVEL SYSTEM INADEQUATE

PORTLAND, Oct. 16 (AP)—Continuance of war-time staggering of working hours to facilitate economic use of the city's transportation system was proposed today by the Portland Traction company.

President Gordon Steele told a conference of city officials yesterday that new buses and trolley cars were not available and equipment was being curtailed because of shortage of tires.

He said three buses are now jacked up because of lack of tires, and others are due to be off the streets soon.

City Commissioner Dorothy McCullough Lee told Steele the public was becoming "impatient" with delays to improve service.

Copco Issued Permit For Toketea Project

SALEM, Oct. 16 (AP)—The state hydroelectric commission today issued a permit for development of the California Oregon Power company's $4,000,000 Toketea project on the North Umpqua river.

The project calls for use of 122 second feet of water from the river, 7800 feet of tunnel, installation of two 28,000-horsepower turbines, and a transmission line from the plant to the company's Dixon substation, near Roseburg.

Welcome Home!

2,393 veterans have already come back to work for the Southern Pacific

WE are justly proud of the 20,013 Southern Pacific men and women who joined the armed forces. Those who have been discharged, we gladly welcome back to the Southern Pacific.

Our policy in re-employing veterans is very simple. The Southern Pacific Company wants its family together again.

While these men and women were away, their seniority advanced just as if they were here on the job. Their continuity of service has been maintained for pension purposes. And Southern Pacific has arranged with the Veterans Administration to participate in a program of training courses for our partially disabled veterans.

We believe that most of our returning war veterans will want to come back with us. Already, of the 2,768 former Southern Pacific people returned to civilian life, 2,393 have come back to work for their railroad.

These people know that Southern Pacific's war work did not end with the surrender of Japan. Millions of men from overseas must still be returned to their homes.

That so many of our veterans came back to Southern Pacific indicates a determination to finish the job and a faith in our Company's future that makes me, personally, very proud of every one of them.

A. T. MERCIER, President
