From South—Mr. and Mrs. W. Dawley of Rio Vista, Calif., formerly of this city, are visiting with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert, 2527 Bisbee. They expect to return south this weekend.

Apple Trees Flourish—Many residents who have apple trees on their places are really finding out this year what Klamath weather can do for growing apples. As an example, a sack full of beauties including Special Starks (a deep red Delicious), and Golden Delicious apples was brought to the Herald-News office by Mrs. Robert Stephens. These were from five-year-old trees in an orchard at 1925 Ward, and some measured from six to eight inches around.

Fractures Hip—Virgil Velch of The Herald and News mechanical department has received word that his father, W. A. Velch, 83-year-old Baker resident, suffered a fracture of the left hip when he fell at his home. His condition is not satisfactory. The elderly gentleman is in a Baker hospital and Mr. and Mrs. Velch and Gordon plan to leave Saturday morning to be at his bedside.

Leaves Air Corps—S/Sgt. Raymond N. Kitzel was discharged from the army air corps in San Bernardino, Calif., October 15. Since returning from India in March, he has been stationed at Robins field, Ga. He and his wife, the former Helen Grumble, have returned to make their home in Klamath Falls. They will make a short visit with his parents in Springville, Wash.

Church Women—The Klamath council of church women will meet at the Community Congregational church, 2169 Garden, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Guest speaker will be Martin P. Gunderson, assistant project director in church community management at Tulare center at Newell, Calif. All church women are cordially invited to attend.

Leaving—Lalia Waters and her sister, Mrs. Charles Schirkofsky, left Friday for Long Beach, Calif., where Miss Waters will make her home with the Schirkofsky family. She has been employed in the tax collector's office for more than 18 years and will be greatly missed by her many friends in this city. The women are sisters of Mrs. Jack Beal of Klamath Falls.

Fire Alarms—The city fire department was called out at 1:50 a. m. Thursday to 249 E. Main where sparks from a stove threatened the Franklin Shoe shop. There was no damage, firemen said. The truck thundered to E. Main and Orchard at 9:55 p. m. Thursday but firemen reported a false alarm.

Ends Furlough—T/S Stephen F. Sabo, who has been spending a furlough with his wife and son at 3840 S. 6th, has returned to Ft. Lewis, Wash. He just recently returned from the European war theater and expects to be transferred to Camp Crowder, Mo., for reassignment soon. He served overseas with the army signal corps.
