

HOME AGAIN is the Richard L. Currin family, soon to be domiciled at 2520 Darrow. Capt. Currin served with the U. S. army medical corps overseas while Mrs. Currin and sons Richard Lester and Charlton Crossley were in Portland.

BACK IN CIVILIAN LIFE is Major Robert A. Thompson, pictured at the family home on Pacific Terrace with Mrs. Thompson and their two young children, Sue and Robert. Major Thompson saw duty in England and the South Pacific.

GREETING OLD FRIENDS here this weekend were Lt. Col. and Mrs. Arthur Gustafson and their young daughter, Sonja. Col. Gustafson has just returned from lengthy overseas duty and is en route to Camp Roberts, California. —Guderian.

Cabins Closed At Klamath Lakes

This has been a beautiful October and folks with cabins at the various mountain lakes were loathe to put up the shutters, pull the boats in and tie the docks after a long and gorgeous summer.

A number were at Lake o' the Woods this past week doing just that very thing. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson and children spent last weekend at their cabin, closing for the season on Sunday. So did Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks. Mrs. Rose Poole and Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, whose cabins are side by side on the east side of the lake, are closing later.

Three busy families were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeder and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, who closed their east side cabins at Lake o' the Woods a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Liskey will close their summer home this weekend as will Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ivory. A week ago, Mrs. Liskey took five youngsters to the lake for a two-day holiday. They were Taitise Liskey, Charlotte Ivory, Patty Smith, Louise Linman and Gail Gowan. While at the lake the party enjoyed surfboard riding despite the nip in the October air.

Those planning to attend the Jan Peerce concert at the Pelican next Wednesday night are reminded once more that the concert will not start until 9 o'clock instead of the usual hour of 8. Mr. Peerce has a concert in Seattle and will be unable to get into Klamath Falls in time to meet an 8 o'clock deadline or whatever it is artists meet. So the concert is 9 o'clock sharp.

The Bob Porters' little Sarah is wearing glasses for a time. The other day she asked her mother if she could "haw" them. A bit perplexed, mamma said yes and Sarah whipped them off, popped them in her mouth and "haved" the specs before she dutifully polished them. Back they popped on her diminutive nose, properly "haved."

Mrs. E. D. Johnson is spending this weekend in Portland with Mary Lou and Bill Hopper. Bill has registered at Reed college and Mary Lou is busy making plans to furnish her new house which they just recently purchased in the Reed college district. Barbara Johnson Nelson is also keeping house as she and Stuart found a furnished home just six miles out of Dallas, Texas, in a suburb called Grand Prairie and nicely situated as to the navy air base where Stuart is taking a course in flying. This summer, late, Stuart hitch-hiked home by air from the South Pacific, left Pearl Harbor very early one morning, 17 hours later was in Alameda and home in Klamath Falls and on up to Lake o' the Woods before the sun set!

Paul and Pearl Foster are here for several weeks from Portland, visiting with her family, at the George Blehn and Marvin K. Lucas homes. Pearl and her mother, Mrs. Blehn, had a marvelous time going to Alaska just a few weeks ago, passengers on one of the first trips permitted to civilians who weren't bound on some sort of war work. Paul is hunting while here.

This year a number of Klamath folks are packing overseas boxes but not necessarily for men in uniform. Mrs. Howard F. Dunn of 4748 S. 8th, is making up packages for her folks in Holland. Mrs. Dunn, herself born in Rotterdam, has two sisters, two brothers, and 20 nephews and nieces in Holland. Among the 20 are a number of small children. Clothes are desperately needed over there, so Mrs. Dunn's relatives write. The men are going to work barefooted. Mrs. Dunn's father died

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Loney were hosts at dinner Monday evening in the Pelican party room when they asked friends to meet Professor Charles W. Lawrence of the University of Washington, and Mrs. Jean Shaffer, also of Seattle.

Professor Lawrence has been here conducting a master class in voice. Mrs. Shaffer is his soprano accompanist. Guests included the two Seattle visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bigger, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, Mrs. Jack O'Connor, Mrs. Patricia Hall and Miss Helen McPherson.

Visitors

Colonel and Mrs. Charles T. Brooks of the Marine Barracks were hosts to several guests this weekend at their home at the post. On Thursday evening Maj. Gen. Julian C. Smith of the United States Marine Corps, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, arrived from San Francisco. While here the distinguished officer enjoyed hunting trips arranged by C. A. Dunn. Also guests at the post were Lt. Col. C. C. Gill, USMC, and Mrs. Gill and Commodore Paul S. Theiss, USN.

On Friday evening Colonel and Mrs. Brooks were hosts at a cocktail party at their home followed by a venison dinner at BOQ. Their guests included Maj. Gen. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Lt. Col. Gill and Mrs. Gill, Commodore Theiss, Captain and Mrs. Lowell T. Coggeshall, and Mrs. Bernard Dubel.

Invitations Out

This coming week will see many parties arranged by the younger set who enjoy costume affairs and masquerades during the Halloween season. Jean Rae Oldenburg and Janette Ringstad have issued invitations to a costume party to be given Friday evening, October 28, at the home of Jean Rae's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg.

Here for the hunting are Mr. and Mrs. Holmes O. Bell of Santa Maria, California, guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallock, 729 Pacific Terrace.

Medford-Klamath Game Highlights

The Medford-Klamath football game, always the "big game" of the year, was played last night on Mogue field and a number of supper parties either followed the game, or were held just before the opening whistle.

Honoring Lt. Col. and Mrs. Arthur Gustafson, Dr. and Mrs. Dean Osborn asked a group in for supper after the game at their home on Lawrence street. The Gustafsons and daughter Sonja are en route to Camp Roberts. "Snowy" coached the Pelicans prior to entering the service and he has been overseas since the invasion of Africa. Other guests at the Osborn home were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peak, Dr. and Mrs. James M. Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight French, Sonja, David French and Jimmy Peak.

Mrs. Clara Shaw and Mrs. Elbert Stiles entertained Friday evening at the Stiles home on Mesa with guests having cocktails before the game and supper later. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoselton, Dr. and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, Kay Malloy, Mrs. Shaw and the Stiles.

Another group gathering before the game was entertained at supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton in Wood. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mr. and Mrs. Erle Hamilton, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. Bernice Britt, Mrs. Ben Pernigotti, Mrs. Alfred Pape, and Cpl. R. K. Sponsler. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

Several informal parties were made up after the game and a couples gathered at Cal-Ore Tavern for supper and dancing.

Mrs. Richard E. Geary, now making her home in Portland, returned north this week after spending several weeks at the E. A. Geary ranch home on Lakeshore. Mrs. Geary's mother and sister, Mrs. C. H. Gallogly and Miss Maude Gallogly, accompanied her to Portland.

Helen McPherson, sister of Mrs. George McIntyre of Lincoln street, is visiting here with the McIntyre family from her home at Coos Bay.

Mrs. Lane Warren was hostess to members of her bridge club Friday evening of last week at her home on California avenue.

Dancing Club

Plans for the season were outlined by the committee of the Winter Dancing club when Mrs. Carroll Colvin, Mrs. Loren Calhoun and Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick met with Mrs. Henri Conradi in the women's lounge of the USO for luncheon this past week.

The first dance will be given the night of Saturday, November 17, at Reames Golf and Country club. It will be a formal affair with Stuart's orchestra providing music. The other three dates will be announced later.

Old members are urged to call any member of the committee and renew their membership.

Reunion

It's a family reunion going on at the Burt E. Hawkins home on Vine, where Della, John and Jimmy Hawkins and their families are together under the parental roof for the first time in five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bakman (Della), and his mother, Mrs. Mollie Bakman, all of Fresno, arrived Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. James Hawkins and sons, Douglas and John Frederick. They are also making their home in Fresno. Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins came over from Coos Bay. They all plan to spend one week here.

Costume Party

Another costume party for Halloween night, October 31, is anticipated by the younger set since invitations have been sent out by Jean Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Henderson, and Louise Linman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Linman.

The boys and girls will gather at the Henderson home, 1972 Earle, properly garbed for the occasion.

Shower Given At Ellingson Home

Jean Wiesendanger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, whose marriage to S/Sgt. Arthur Treibwasser will be an event of Sunday, October 28, at the First Presbyterian church, was complimented Wednesday of last week at a prettily appointed shower given by Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Sr., Mrs. Ellingson Jr., and Dorothea Ellingson at the home of the former, 1425 Pacific Terrace.

Following bridge, at which the guests were amused with a mock wedding with Dorothea Ellingson lighting the candles in a bewitching flannel nightgown loaned by Ann Mueller who took the part of the bride, lace curtain veiled and gowned in a white sheet. The groom was Mrs. Ellingson Jr., who wore rolled up Levi's and an officers' blouse well plastered with medals from this and other wars.

Later coffee was served to Jean and her mother, Mrs. Wiesendanger, Mrs. Helen Mueller and daughter, Ann, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. Carl Steinselger, Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. E. G. Sparkman, (Lois Bethune), Mrs. W. F. Bethune and Patty Schupp and Orpha Hudson.

Mrs. Lucile Warner planned a turkey dinner for her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Miller of Portland, and the occasion became quite a gala one at the summer home of Mrs. Rose M. Poole at Lake o' the Woods. The affair also took place on Mrs. Warner's birthday.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Presntice Yeomans, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ducher. Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Yeomans are remaining at the Poole cabin as they are having some remodeling done, including a porch.

Theatre Party

Ann Henderson was hostess at a theatre party followed by ice cream and cake last Sunday when her mother, Mrs. Charles A. Henderson, asked a few friends to their home in honor of Barbara Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, who left this week for Wisconsin.

Guests included Barbara, Lillian Mahan, Carolyn Miller, Ruth Roenicke, Alice Geary, Marilyn Brandt, Susan Schofield, Annette Jacobs, Janice Larson and Diane Oldenburg, Carol Jean Elliott, and the hostess, Ann.

Leave Klamath

Farewells were said Tuesday to Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. J. Miller Babcock and their daughter Barbara, who left by motor for Wausau, Wisconsin by way of the Redwood highway. Mr. Babcock plans to enter business in Wausau. He has served as navy officer in charge of construction at the Marine Barracks.

The Babcocks were weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg at their home on Pacific Terrace. Sunday evening the Oldenburgs asked several in for a buffet supper and their guests also included Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Andrew Ginochco, Capt. and Mrs. Lowell Coggeshall, Capt. T. Frederick Farley and Capt. Ray Proschel, both from Fort George Wright at Spokane, Washington. Dr. Proschel was Dr. Farley's guest here for the hunting.

Lt. and Mrs. W. V. Charters entertained Saturday evening at their home, 1813 Birch, when they asked a group in for cocktails honoring the Babcocks and Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Andrew Ginochco who also will be leaving soon. Later the guests enjoyed dancing at BOQ, the Marine Barracks. Corsages were given Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Ginochco by Mrs. Lowell T. Coggeshall.

Guests of the Charters also included Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg, Mr. and Mrs. O. Buffington, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins, Capt. and Mrs. Coggeshall, Mrs. Bernard Dubel, Mrs. Irving R. Lisbony, and Mrs. Frederick Lewis.

Friends will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart and daughters Ann and Sara, have moved to Medford after several years at Korbel, California. Bob has opened an accounting office. Due to a housing shortage, Jean and the girls spent a part of September at the Henry Fluhrer cabin at Lake o' the Woods. Mrs. C. A. Henderson and Ann spent one day with them recently. The Harts are now back in Medford and Ann and Sara are in school. They are former Klamath residents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr., accompanied by Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger and daughter Jean, spent several days this week in Portland.

Jan Peerce Slated For Pelican Stage

Jan Peerce, Metropolitan Opera star whom Arturo Toscanini has called his "favorite tenor," will appear here in the course of his current coast-to-coast tour at the Pelican theatre, Wednesday night at 9 o'clock, sponsored by the Klamath Community Concert association.

Acclaimed by critics as "America's foremost tenor," Peerce has also become its busiest one since his notable debut at the Metropolitan just three years ago let loose a landslide of demands for his appearance throughout the country.

His schedule for the past two years has carried without interruption from the beginning of one musical season to the beginning of the next. At one point he made two trips to the west coast and back within six days. Abounding energy has made it possible for him to fulfill his opera, concert and radio engagements with a week or two snatched between dates for relaxation with Mrs. Peerce and the three attractive Peerce children in their home outside New York City.

During the past summer he demanded from his manager—and got—his first real vacation in nearly three years, during the month of August. In June and July he sang "La Traviata" at the Lewisohn stadium and appeared with the Philadelphia orchestra at Robin Hood Dell, among other assignments.

Besides his Metropolitan season, in which he will this year

JAN PEERCE, Metropolitan Opera star and one of the world's outstanding tenors, will sing here next Wednesday at the Pelican theatre under the banner of the Klamath Community Concert association.

Nora M'Auliffe Is Wednesday Bride

White satin was chosen for her wedding gown by pretty Nora Mary McAuliffe, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McAuliffe of Fort Klamath, when she became the bride of Joseph Jack Conlon of Fort Bidwell, California, in one of fall's prettiest weddings which took place at a 9 o'clock mass at Sacred Heart church Wednesday morning.

The Rev. Father Michael F. Ahearne read the service. The altar was decked with yellow and bronze chrysanthemums as was the altar rail. Just before the ceremony Patricia O'Leary sang Schubert's "Ave Maria," and the wedding music was played on the organ by George Courtright of Klamath Agency.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in satin, the gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Her train fell in long folds and the finger tip veil was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a single purple orchid with a cluster of bouvardia, and a pearl rosary, gift of her mother.

The maid-of-honor was Mary Claire Coyle of Sacramento, schoolmate of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of blue net with a lace bodice and a blue lace Mary Stuart cap on her head. Her flowers were button chrysanthemums of deep yellow. The little flower girl was Geneva McAuliffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McAuliffe and niece of the bride. She wore a pink net frock with tiny blue ribbons and a small pink veil caught with pink rosebuds. She carried a basket of rose petals.

The best man was Joseph McAuliffe and the usher was Patrick McAuliffe, brothers of the bride.

The simple gold wedding ring used in the ceremony was one which has been in the Conlon family for more than 100 years.
