

SOCIETY

Circles To Meet

The four circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the First Methodist church met Thursday for dessert at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Lee McBride was hostess to Circle 1 at her home, 407 N. 9th, and she was assisted by Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Windham led the devotions, using as her theme "Going Forward." Mrs. E. W. Moebe, chairman, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. William Withrow was appointed to be in charge of the circle's share of the work for the rummage sale this week. This circle is to assume responsibility for the decoration of the church sanctuary for the coming month. Mrs. Cowman conducted the lesson from the new book on Africa, which all four circles are studying.

Circle 2 was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. D. Gillespie of 30 Nevada. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. John Riach, Mrs. Victor Phillips presided over the business meeting and the lesson hour, and Mrs. George Casper led the devotions. Four ladies joined the circle at this time, Mrs. George Boyd, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Tetzholdt and Mrs. Taylor. Circle 3 met at the home of Mrs. D. L. Snyder, 1501 Eldorado, and in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. L. K. Phelps presided. Mrs. Snyder was in charge of the devotional period, and her theme was "How Read a Book?" and Mrs. E. H. Balsiger was study leader. Mrs. Paul Edwards, study leader for the past five years for the circle and for the general meetings, is leaving Klamath Falls soon, and the circle presented her with a gift in appreciation of her untiring work. She will be greatly missed in the city church organization.

Mrs. L. J. Brink and Mrs. C. A. Baker entertained Circle 4 at Mrs. Brink's home, 2241 Orchard. Mrs. S. A. Gaster gave the devotions and completed reading of the final chapter on "The American Indian," and Mrs. W. D. Carleton was in charge of the business meeting. The need for more workers at the USO during the days assigned to the circle was stressed. Two birthdays were observed, and a birthday cake served in honor of Mrs. Carleton and Mrs. Morgan.

Tau Chapter

Members of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met in the home of Mrs. Warren Poole, 1129 Lincoln, Thursday evening for the regular meeting of the group. Following the business meeting conducted by Lois Rumer, president, refreshments were served by Mrs. Poole.

Present were Mrs. Jules Naylor, Mrs. Russell Fairchild, Kathryn Jackson, Mrs. George Wardell, Frances Balin, Miss Rumer and Mrs. Poole.

Last Thursday the chapter entertained guests at a wiener roast at Moore park. Mrs. George Allensworth, Mrs. John Freeseck and Lois Rumer were in charge of the outing, which proved to be a delightful affair, with the weatherman given credit for a perfect autumn evening.

A Halloween party is being planned by the group for October 30, and the next regular meeting will be held November 1, instead of November 1, in the home of Mrs. Wardell, 1745 Menloway.

Thursday, October 11, the ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen met in regular session in the KC hall with Mrs. Henry Redmon, president, in the chair. It was announced that the membership drive was a tie, and there will be a dinner for all members Thursday, October 25, at 6 p. m. in the KC hall. Mrs. Albert D. Guthrie is chairman of the committee for the dinner and she will be assisted by Mrs. C. H. Rasmussen, Mrs. Earl V. Snyder, Mrs. Fred Genereux, and Mrs. Laurence Roman. For further information call Mrs. Roman, phone 5651.

The Friendship club met Wednesday evening, October 10, with Stella Dryden of 610 N. 11th. There were three tables of auction bridge in play during the evening and Mrs. White sold high score, Blanche Molschenbacher second and Ruth Stanley low, while Irene Markham received the special award. It was decided to change the meeting day from the second Friday to the second Wednesday of each month and Irene Markham of 931 Lincoln will be hostess November 14.

Auxiliary

Mrs. Ingeborg Wilkerson entertained the Townsend auxiliary at her home at 2034 Oregon avenue on Wednesday afternoon with a Halloween party.

Two long tables were artistic with Halloween covers, lighted pumpkins centered the tables, and the room was appropriately decorated in orange and black motifs.

A 1 o'clock luncheon was served with Effie Anderson cutting the birthday cake, after which she was presented with many lovely gifts. Games were played with Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Arnold named as winners.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Peggy Roberts in the Hagar district.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Jack Stuart, Agnes Keese, Esther Mast, Betty Allen, Nettie Schimmesky, Della Arnold, Daisy Douglas, Peggy Roberts, Eva Myers, Effie Anderson, Jessie Highley, Bernice McCracken, Mrs. Baker and the hostess, Mrs. Wilkerson.

The Townsend club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. O. Myers, 500 N. 9th, for a business meeting. Election of officers was held with the following officers to be installed at the next meeting: H. O. Myers, president; George Randall, vice president; Ed Cross, second vice president; Bernice McCracken, secretary and treasurer.

The council club members are Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Jerrue, Mr. and Mrs. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Randall, Earl Barnes and Anna Briscoe.

A masquerade dance is planned for October 27, in the KC hall. There will be prizes for the best and funniest costumes and it will be open to the public. Noise makers will be furnished by the club.

Mrs. Anna Funk was a guest at this meeting. A Dutch lunch was served by the men to 22 members and guests.

Junior Matrons

Junior Matrons of the First Methodist church held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Garrison, 2332 Garden on the evening of Tuesday, October 2, and Mrs. Garrison was assisted by Mrs. Alvin Breneman. The short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. M. H. Melchert, president, and several Halloween games were enjoyed, with awards going to Mrs. Paul Collins, Mrs. Melchert, Mrs. Eldred Putnam, and Mrs. Albert Gaster. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Melchert, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Victor Phillips, Mrs. Walter Herndon, Mrs. Gaster, Mrs. Paul Deller, Mrs. Wendell B. Smith, Maude Witherspoon, Mrs. W. C. Preston and Mrs. J. R. McLellan.

Mrs. Paul Collins of 455 Ursulins will be hostess to the group at its November meeting and the co-hostess will be Maude Witherspoon.

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Lloyd Gift entertained with an afternoon of bridge at her home on October 11. Three tables were in play with Mrs. Claudia Musick and Mrs. Lela Murray winning the high scores. Mrs. Christine Brown won the traveling prize.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the game, to guests including prize winners and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Bill Becholdt, Mrs. Dave Turner, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Claudia Murray, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. F. W. Brown.

The Eagles auxiliary held a regular meeting Tuesday night and the next session is called for Tuesday, October 23, at 8 p. m. in the lower FOE hall, 9th and Walnut. There will be initiation of candidates and officers and drill team members are asked to wear formal. Entertainment and refreshments will be served after the meeting.
