SHRIMP FLEET BLESSED
Hundreds of boats of Louisiana's shrimp fleet were recently blessed before the beginning of the annual fishing season. To inaugurate the season, they were sprinkled with holy water and blessed by priests after a custom that dates back to the early Christians who fished the Mediterranean. Annual harvest of shrimp is in excess of 50,000 tons.

Proposals in President Truman's first peacetime message included plenty of work for everybody—including congress.

To Yanks returning from London it will look perfectly natural to see the way some of our autoists drive — on the wrong side of the street.
