"THE GATE"

Variety Of Sermons To Be Given Sunday In Churches Here

The second of a series of two sermons on "The Christian Home," will be preached by Rev. David Barnett Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, during morning worship this Sunday at 11 o'clock. He will preach on the phase, "The Role of Parents in Christianizing Of Their Children."

The task before Protestant churches for postwar reconstruction in Europe is a colossal one, according to Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr, representative of the Presbyterian Restoration fund in Europe. France's present condition is a challenge to the Protestant church, Dr. Kerr said, and needs of the church are also imperative in Holland, Hungary, Belgium and Czechoslovakia. These requisites can only be met by an undertaking

On this Tuesday evening the Ladies' Aid will hold a harvest festival in the church basement at 6:30 o'clock. There will be various booths with farm produce and other articles for sale. Lunch will be served and the refreshment stand will be conducted by the Young Peoples Luther League. The public is invited.

The Rev. Charles Sundstrom will speak at both services at Immanuel Baptist church this Sunday. The subject for morning worship will be "Holy Aspiration," and the evening evangelistic service will be "The Hidden Life" for the topic. A singpiration will follow the evening service and all young people are cordially invited to attend this friendly get-together. Refreshments will be served.

Phyllis Adams will be in charge of the young peoples' service this Sunday to be held at 6:30 p. m. The public is invited to all services at the church.
