SELLERS OF BUTTER TO PAY ON EXCESS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—Sellers of butter with more than 1000 pounds in stock tomorrow must pay the government a nickel a pound on the excess.

This was ordered last night by Judge John C. Collet, stabilization administration. The reason is that the government is discontinuing its nickel-a-pound subsidy tomorrow. The government already has paid the subsidy on most butter now in storage.

Collet said in a statement that without repayment dealers would profit unfairly. He directed that dealers won't be entitled to a compensating five-cent raise in butter ceiling prices until they do repay the subsidy on excess stocks.

Hospital Ordered For Mentally Ill

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30 (AP)—City police today had orders to place mentally ill prisoners in a hospital instead of jail, following a meeting called by City Commissioner Fred L. Peterson.

Peterson met with Police Chief Harry Niles and Probate Judge Ashby Dickson to investigate reports that some mental prisoners were injuring themselves in cells where they were kept when the padded cells were occupied.

One jailer testified "I have seen those people knock themselves out by charging against the cell doors or walls," Peterson reported. He said some cases were held over the weekend and a few "for days" waiting to be brought before psychiatrists.
