

Meeting Monday

A combined meeting of the 6th district conference, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and the Klamath Falls Women's Library club, is slated for Monday, November 5.

Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, president of the Oregon Federation, will be present as will Mrs. J. N. Jameson, Bend, president of the 6th district. Mrs. Jameson will open the morning session at 10 o'clock in the library club rooms.

Dr. James Millar, who is under the auspices of the E. C. Brown Trust Fund, Portland, will speak in the morning. Dr. Millar is an authority on sociology and recognized as an excellent speaker. He will discuss the needs of youth.

A no-host luncheon will be served in the Pelican party room at 1 o'clock, it was announced.

The afternoon session will open in the high school auditorium at 1:30 o'clock. Dorothea Moore and Harold Bishop of the state education department will present a demonstration of the new physical fitness program for Oregon schools. The high school physical education classes will take part in the demonstration. Both of these meetings are open to the public and parents of students are particularly urged to attend.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music chairman of Library club, will present Mrs. John O'Connor and Mrs. John Best in duo-piano numbers at the morning session. They will play Mozart's "Sonata in D Major" and Morton Gould's "Mexican Folk Song Arrangement."

Hostesses will be Mrs. W. D. McNeer and Mrs. J. R. McLeland.

Costume Party

Jean Henderson and Louise Linman entertained Halloween night with a costume party, scavenger hunt and dancing at the Charles A. Henderson home, 1972 Earle.

Winners in the scavenger hunt were Bob Petzoldt and Charlotte Ivory, and Arlene Stanbery and Lorren Karrer.

Supper was served later to the group including Claudette Gleason, Marilyn Moore, Flo Ann Perkins, Arlene Stanbery, Charlotte Ivory, Pat Smith, Rosemary Murray, Tottise Liskey, the hostesses and Lester Larson, Roger Klahn, Roy Lundgren, Marlon Utterback, Wayne Ballantyne, James Johnson, Wayne Carothers, Lorren Karrer, David Ross, Dick and Bob Petzoldt.

Visitors

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary on Lakeshore are Mrs. Geary's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Howe of Spokane, Washington. They plan to return north the early part of next week.

Recent visitors at the Geary ranch were Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Kolsch and young daughter Leslie, and Mrs. Kolsch's mother, Mrs. Alice Wood of Portland. The four left Monday for the north. Mr. and Mrs. Kolsch and Leslie to return to their home in New York. Mr. Kolsch was recently discharged from service with the United States navy.

Dancing Party

A dancing party followed by supper will be given this evening, Saturday, by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Humble for their daughter, Nancy, at their home on Pacific Terrace.

Guests will include Earlene Wheeler, Jeannine Selby, Sharon Moore, Dorothy Dewey, Rosie Oss, Janice Bilyeu, Carolyn Avery, Ruth Fletcher, Gladys DeWitt, Barbara Olson, Pat Hull, Lola Whisenant and Betty Westlin.

Gordon Veitch, John Linman, Scott Reed, George Zupan, Jimmy Howard, Bill Jones, Bill Glenn, Joe Carroll, Willis Glidden, Ted and Fred Reeves, Don Elstrom, Bob Hall and Jimmy Myers.

Among the visitors here this week was Mrs. Don McLucas of Dunsmuir, formerly of Klamath Falls. Mrs. McLucas returned Wednesday to her home. She was the guest of Mrs. E. P. Ivory, 1919 Manhattan.

BRIDE OF LAST SUNDAY, October 28, was Jean Wiesendanger, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, who became Mrs. Arthur Triebwasser in a ceremony read at the First Presbyterian church. —Kennell-Ellis.

SOCIETY

By Lois Stewart

THEIR WHITE TIERED wedding cake was cut by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gentry at the reception which followed their wedding last week in St. Augustine's church, Merrill. The bride is the former Georgia Liskey. —Kennell-Ellis.

Officers Named

Mrs. Martin Swanson was re-elected president of the women of Reames Golf and Country club at the annual luncheon and naming of officers for the 1945-46 season held Friday afternoon at the clubhouse.

Mrs. John Shaw was named vice president of the group and Mrs. Robert Sprout, secretary-treasurer. Retiring vice president is Mrs. L. D. Stephens and retiring secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Herbert Hauger.

Mrs. Swanson was presented with a gift for her work during the past year by the club through Mrs. George Merryman. A group enjoyed the perfect late fall weather and played golf in the morning although tournament play is over.

Luncheon was served at prettily appointed tables which held bowls of fall flowers and ivy. Members of the officer group and committee heads served to more than 40 members and guests including Mrs. C. C. Kelly, visiting here from Redding, and Mrs. Leslie Avrit.

For those whose birthdays fall on months when the season is closed, a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut during the dessert course.

Six tables of bridge followed luncheon.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Morgan of Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Long were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Finnigan Halloween night at their home on Washington street. Mr. Morgan assisted in dispensing "trick or treat" to the neighborhood children who called during the evening.

Major and Mrs. Ed Hamm and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel were cocktail guests at the Finnigan home. The Hammes were here this past week visiting friends.

The Morgans left Friday for the Oscar Kittredge ranch at Adel, Lake county, where they will hunt for a short time.

Brownies

A group of little Brownies of Roosevelt school put on costumes and celebrated Halloween after school Wednesday at the Troy Cook home on Eldorado.

Members of the troop committee, Mrs. Troy Cook, Mrs. Ernest Taylor and Mrs. J. A. Burke, planned the affair. Leader is Mrs. David Snyder and assistant leader is Mrs. George Clark.

Dressing up for the affair were Sally Sue Burke, Nancy Clark, Paul Cook, Nancy Newell, Sharon Hahn, Sharon Taylor, Barbara Ann Bellan, Carol Ann Taylor, Carole Biehn and Shirley Dean.

Theatre Party

Friends of June Earhart, who is home for a fortnight from the University of Washington, honored her at a theatre party Friday, October 26. June is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Earhart of this city.

Following the theatre, the group was invited to the home of Jeannine Selby, 850 Eldorado, for refreshments and a slumber party. Enjoying the affair were Nancy and Dorothy Elliott, Ruth Fletcher, Patricia Hull, Nancy Humble, Cleo Lampropoulos, Doris Liggett, June Lutman, Marian Matthews, Beverly Melhase, Barbara Olsen, Barbara Reeder, the guest and hostess.

Lt. Martha Moore Veatch, wife of Capt. Robert Veatch of the U. S. army air corps now serving in Europe, left Saturday for Portland where she will take a plane for Chicago. Lt. Veatch, U. S. army nurse, has been visiting here with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Veatch, who accompanied her to Portland.

The Klamath Falls Garden club meeting has been postponed until Monday, November 19, at 2 p. m. in the small library club rooms. Members are asked to note change in date.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lundy left Thursday by motor for Los Angeles where they will remain until December 1. While south they will be guests of their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ruggles.

Klamath Girls Army Man's Bride

One of the loveliest of fall weddings was that of Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Jean Wiesendanger, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger of this city, became the bride of S/Sgt. Arthur Triebwasser, United States army. Vows were exchanged in the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., reading the service.

White chrysanthemums were banked at the railing and the tall white candles were lighted by Bertie Lee Farnham of Portland and Dorothea Ellingson. Both wore white frocks fashioned with full, floor length skirts and snug bodices. Miss Farnham is a sorority sister of the bride.

Just before the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. John Best played incidental music. She also played the traditional wedding marches. Patricia Brown sang, "I Love Thee," and "Still as the Night," accompanied by Mrs. Best.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, walked down the aisle in a beautiful ivory satin gown designed with finger tip sleeves pointed at the wrist, sweetheart neckline on the long torso bodice and full train. The bride's veil was of full length illusion net edged with a wide band of lace and falling from a simple cap, and she wore a single strand of pearls. Her flowers were orchids and bouvardia.

Phyllis Taw of Portland was the maid-of-honor and wore an aqua blue silk taffeta gown with square neckline, three quarter length sleeves and a little bustle. She wore a wreath of pink carnations in her hair. The bridesmaids were Virginia Ellen Smith and Patty Schupp and both wore rose taffeta frocks with wreaths of white carnations in their hair.

Dancing Club

Plans are now complete for the Winter Dancing club season and dates for the four parties, which will be held at Reames Golf and Country club, were announced this week.

The first party for club members will be held Saturday evening, November 17, and hosts for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch and Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren. Other dates set by the club members are as follows: Saturday, January 12, Saturday, February 23, Saturday, March 23.

ing her school work has been at home here and also in Portland. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Sgt. Triebwasser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Triebwasser of Oakland, California, has recently returned from duty in the European theater. He served with the 70th division of Patton's 3rd army. The couple met on the Oregon State campus where Sgt. Triebwasser was an ASTU student during his bride's junior year. He is a former University of California student and plans to resume his studies when he is discharged from the service.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding was the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Snodgrass of Portland.

The new Mrs. Triebwasser wore a black suit with dolman sleeves for her traveling costume which was completed with white accessories and a small matching hat. An orchid from her bouquet was worn at the shoulder. The couple spent their honeymoon at Carmel. The groom reports to Fort Ord, California for further orders.

Mrs. Triebwasser is a graduate of Oregon State college, class of 1945, and since complet-

Scavenger Hunt

Laura Coles was hostess at a Halloween party for members of the younger group when she entertained Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coles, 1422 Crescent, with a scavenger hunt and late supper.

The house was decorated with traditional Halloween figures. Guests included Connie Hunt, Patsy Hull, Carol Monteith, Lois Hibbert, Bobbie Nell Coulter, Sally Mueller, Marilyn O'Neill, Joan O'Neill, Trudy Bennet, Betty Crawford, Bob Eastman, Harold Wirth, Virgil Gillette, Calvin Atkisson, Clarence Randall, Larry Klahn, Earl Hanneb, Chuck Thurman, Lyle Hicks, Jimmy Howard, and George Zupan.

Football Supper

Mrs. Zeno Dent and Kay Malloy entertained at the Dent home on Washington street before the Klamath-Eugene game Friday evening when cocktails were served to a group of friends who returned after the game for supper.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsey, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Holselton and Curtis Heidrich Jr.

Georgia Liskey Bride In Rites

MERRILL — Georgia Odell Liskey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Liskey of Merrill, became the bride on Saturday evening, October 27, of Corporal Keith L. Gentry, U. S. army. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gentry of Tulelake.

The 7:30 o'clock ceremony was read by the Rev. Father James O'Connor in St. Augustine's church here before a large number of relatives and friends of the young couple. The single ring ceremony was used.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Edgar Osborne of Tulelake sang "Ave Maria" and Cadman's "Because" with Mrs. E. Webb Staunton of Tulelake at the piano.

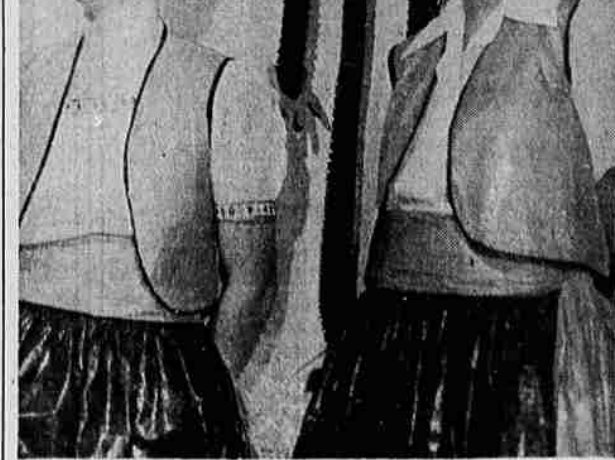

The bride entered on the arm of her father. Her gown, fashioned with tight bodice of satin had a bouffant skirt of illusion net with full train. Her laced edged illusion veil was caught about her head with orange blossoms and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Don Workman, Klamath Falls, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Betty Dito, Junction City, Oregon; Mary Corrigan of Klamath Falls and Joan Whitson, Portland. All wore similar dresses in pale pink and blue with matching net arrangements in their hair. They carried white carnations.

Herman Turnbaugh, Tulelake, was best man and the ushers were Donald Ratliff, Malin, and French E. Johnson Jr., Tulelake.

The altar was banked by arrangements of pink and white chrysanthemums and these were used about the big room in the Oddfellows hall where the reception was held.

The bride and groom cut their tiered white wedding cake and members of the wedding party poured. The table was lace covered. The new Mr. and Mrs. Gentry

HALLOWEEN parties for the younger set highlighted the past week. Hostesses at a costume party last Friday night were Jean Rae Oldenburg, (left above), and Janette Ringstad. In the picture at the left, seated and left to right, Bob Hooker, Jean Hall and Jim Owens. Standing, Marcella Murray, Gordon Fletcher, Joan Moore, Rodney Bell and Marilyn Hayden. Right, seated, Bob Hilton, Shirley Damon, Jim Rutledge and Sharon Williams, and standing, Douglas Barker, Ingrid Norland, Jack Lust, Gailya Eichendorf and LaMont Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. John Houston assisted Dr. and Mrs. Oldenburg in choosing the winning costumes, prizes going to Shirley Damon as the Queen of Hearts, and Jim Owens as a hobo. —Pictures by Patty.

