

Japs Forced Prisoners To Jump Into Wells

By DEAN SCHEDLER
 MANILA, Nov. 8 (AP)—The grim story of a Japanese reign of terror in Batangas province where 25,000 men, women and children were brutally mistreated or murdered in seven months began to unfold today before the military commission hearing war crimes charges against Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita.

Survivors have said that the death toll of civilians was far greater in Batangas than it was in Manila. Populations of entire villages, these survivors have reported, were held at bay at the point of Japanese guns while the invaders burned down all their homes.

The prosecutor's first Batangas witness was Lt. James P. Healey, Jr., of San Francisco, a war crimes investigating officer, who said he learned that some 6,000 Japanese soldiers ran rampant over the province from October 9, 1944, to May 1 of this year, committing acts of brutality on the grounds their victims were guerrillas.

Next witness was a Filipino, Pampilo Umali, from the province, who related that he was tied up with "about 700 men and I don't know the number of women but there were many" and "led off to a well about 300 feet wide and 60 feet deep."

One by one they were made to jump into the well, Umali said. "When my time came, about 200 already had jumped and after I jumped at least another 100 followed me."

Before Japanese soldiers covered the well with native bamboo sheets, Umali said, they threw in some rocks, "dropped a sewing machine," and fired in many shots.

Sometime after midnight, the witness continued, some Filipino women sneaked to the well and lowered ropes up which six men escaped. Many of the women liberators were captured and never seen again.

Another Filipino, Victor Manquiat, said he was trussed up and marched off with 300 to another well. The one Umali had been in was filled with bodies by that time.

En route, Manquiat dashed to freedom but was hit by two of seven bullets Japanese soldiers fired after him. He returned to the well a few days later and found the bodies of many men and women with whom he started the march.

Manquiat said that none of the marchers was seen alive again.

UNITED STATES BOOSTS FOOD ALLOCATIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP)—This country has allocated liberated areas of Europe and French North Africa about 90 per cent more food for October-December period than was available to them in the previous quarter.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson told his news conference today nearly 4,000,000 tons would be marked for this form of export.

Countries to which this food is being made available include those served by the United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration—principally in southeastern Europe—France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Norway, Italy as well as French North Africa.

In addition, about 750,000 tons have been allocated to the United Kingdom and about 1,500,000 tons elsewhere, including U. S. territories.

Anderson said he hoped it would be possible to maintain this increased level of allocations for food-desolated areas during the first quarter of 1946.

"But we are not necessarily promising it," he said. "This country will have ample supplies to keep home consumption at present levels."

But he said that while meat supplies are improving, it may not be possible to end meat rationing until "after December."

Anderson previously had said he hoped to end rationing of food fats and oil—butter, margarine, lard and shortening—by the end of this year.

But he said today it now appears rationing of fats and oils may have to be continued during the first six months of 1946.

The reason: 1945 domestic production of food fats is now estimated to be about 250,000,000 pounds short of expectations.

Anderson said also he saw little hope for any material improvement in domestic sugar supplies before 1947. Some form of rationing, he predicted, will be necessary through next year.

Special Freight Rate For Mills Blocked

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8 (AP)—Efforts of Chicago-Gary steel mills to obtain a special railroad freight rate to haul surplus shipyard scrap steel from west coast yards to mid-west furnaces have been blocked, a Portland traffic association officer said today.

Frank S. Clay, secretary, said that shortly after the railroads rejected the proposal Oregon Steel Mills obtained an order for steel from Russia and France.

He said the chamber of commerce and the Portland Metal Trades council opposed the rate, which would have permitted the steel firm to buy up some 300,000 tons of scrap steel now in northwest yards.
