TWO LOCAL GROUPS ENJOY GAME FEASTS

Two local organizations feasted on Klamath country game last night.

Elks lodge members totaling approximately 300 had a venison feed at the lodge hall dining room. This event was followed by a meeting at which 18 were initiated.

Men initiated were Melvin McConnell, E. O. Jackson, C. M. Gilmore, R. O. Tschirky, Don F. Nolan, H. A. Akin, Marvin Hilton, Jack Brochou, Dick Miller Jr., L. E. Hardman, Harold Dehlinger, Robert Dehlinger, Karl Dehlinger, Glenn Dehlinger, George W. Bratton Jr., Howard P. Parnell, all of Klamath Falls. For Portland lodge, George H. Dimbat was initiated; for San Bernardino, Calif., H. F. Corson; for Sioux City, Ia., Walter E. Denton.

Rotarians enjoyed a duck dinner at the Pelican cafe. This was a stag affair which took the place of the Friday noon meeting. Paul Matthews arranged the dinner. Nelson Reed was awarded a "distinguished duck hunting medal" for producing more ducks for the feed than anyone else. G. C. Lorenz was host at a cocktail hour preceding the dinner.

Law Enforcement Agencies Attend FBI Conference

Representatives of eight law enforcement agencies attended the semi-annual FBI-law enforcement conference in the city hall Monday night. Arrangements for the meeting were made by Orville Hamilton, acting chief of police, and Max Greenstreet of the FBI.

J. E. Thornton, special agent in charge of the FBI in Oregon, summarized the activities of law enforcement activities during the war and commented on the signs of a return of gangsterism in post-war days. Special Agent R. E. Vogel gave a talk on mechanical lie detectors and truth serums, saying that the use of serum in the detection of falsehoods is at the moment still in an experimental stage.

Quimby Estate Valued At $50,000

The estate of the late Thomas Gordon Quimby, founder of the Red Ball stage lines, amounted to approximately $50,000 in real and personal property, probate court records revealed today.

L. A. Murphy has been appointed administrator of the estate. Heirs are Quimby's daughters, Mrs. Betty Brown and Mrs. Eleanor Richardson.

IT'S NO SECRET

But Klamath county has been fortunate during the difficult years just past to have had so many fine dealers who burned the midnight oil keeping your RADIOS working. Some of us remained here and did what we could while others went elsewhere to render their services. Some of these fellows are returning now, and we are personally mighty glad to see them back on the job. We used this small type because we didn't want to tout our horns TOO loud.
