

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

By JOAN O'NEILL

Yesterday was Sadie Hawkins day; most of the kids were dressed for the occasion and two teachers dressed, too. Dorothy Guffason, physical education teacher, and Dorothy Bailey, typing teacher, portrayed the Dogcatchers.

There was an assembly at 3:05 yesterday and a dance afterward. The first of the assembly was quite active due to the help of a skunk that seemed to be everywhere and nowhere in the assembly. It was a dead skunk, but with a real live stench. Scott Reed, the hero of the day, took the intruder out.

Joan O'Neill

At the assembly prizes were awarded to the following people: Don Gourley, dressed as Daisy Mae; Jack Fossum, Stewart Oliver, Hairless Joe; Miss Guffason, Lester Foster and Shirley Dalton, best couple; Betty Crawford and Connie Coski both received prizes for Daisy Mae; Allen Arnold, Hairless Joe; Betty Cleig and Katharine Newman took a prize for a girls' couple.

Members of the K club assisted Judge Ed Ryan, boys' physical education teacher, in giving different members of the audience stunts to do. Clarence Bussman, Jim Pope, Jim Palmer, Bob Redkey, Ben DeVore, Chuck Thurman, Roger Vanderhoff, Earl Hansen, Scott Reed and Harold Wirth, K club members, brought the non-conformers as well as a few innocent bystanders to the stage.

Pelicans Presents

Patsy Tilton, Barbara DuBois and Gloria Mayfield were editors and announcers on the Pelicans show Tuesday. The broadcast honored American Education Week. Charles Blackstone and Don Stroud helped in this part. Tickets were on sale in study hall today for the Little Theatre plays to be given Monday.

Money for the Junior Red Cross drive was collected today. Any donation from a student made him a member of the Junior Red Cross.

Programs for the "Melody Lane" formal will be on sale tomorrow in the Lost and Found room at 8:30, 12:30 and 4 p. m. The formal is tomorrow night.

The Klamath Krater will be out tomorrow morning and will be delivered in homerooms.

Parents and Patrons night is scheduled for 8 tonight. All interested adults are urged to attend.

Christmas vacation is tentatively scheduled for December 22 to January 1, inclusive. Students will not attend school Thursday or Friday of next week in order to celebrate Thanksgiving.

BEND MANAGER

PORTLAND, Nov. 15 (AP)—Howard J. Steib, manager of the chamber of commerce agricultural department here, will become manager of the Bend chamber January 1. He succeeds Don H. Peoples, leaving for private business.

MIDLAND EMPIRE NEWS

Keno

KENO—Cpl. Eddo Carlson, nephew of Mrs. Guy L. Moore and Mrs. Ray Atchison, visited at the homes of his aunts several days recently. He left here to go to North Dakota to spend a 30-day furlough with relatives there. He has returned from duty on Okinawa. Eddo's brother, Lyle, arrived in Keno with his uncle, Guy Moore from North Dakota, and the brothers had several days' visit together. Moore has been in the east since August.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tennery were called to Nebraska in October by the serious illness of Mrs. Tennery's father. They were gone two weeks. During Mrs. Tennery's absence, Mrs. Joe H. Foster substituted for her in the school room. The condition of Mrs. Tennery's father is considerably improved now.

Mrs. Roy E. Herrick of route 2, Klamath Falls, reports that her son, Fred, of the navy, is now in the South Pacific. Roy E. Jr., of the army was in Germany when they heard from him last.

Walter McKeen was in Keno this past week visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. C. H. McKeen. McKeen reported that he and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McKeen are operating a garage, service station and restaurant south of Ashland on the Weed highway. Charles and Walter McKeen have both been discharged from army service quite recently.

Mrs. Guy Moore was hostess to a group of children at a Halloween party at her home. The little guests included four of the Dan Scherer children, Alicia, Marcia and Georgia Ager, Sherry Howard and Deanie Augustus. Mrs. Moore reported that the children had a joyful evening.

Mrs. R. E. Martyn and her infant daughter are at home from the hospital where the new baby arrived about two weeks ago.

Rev. Sherman Moore and family were visitors at the Lee Heublein home in October. Rev. Moore was formerly pastor of the Klamath Falls Pilgrim Holiness church.

The only exception to the law requiring signing one surname in official documents in England is the royal family, who sign only their baptismal names.

Bonanza

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Billingsley have left on a trip to California to visit relatives. They plan on staying for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Ayres are building a new home. They sold their home and business lately.

Mrs. Kilgore has been visiting with Mrs. Birdie Burk and other friends in Langell valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamaker are moving to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Noma Bechdold visited in Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Poole.

The Penny club met at the home of Mrs. Birdie Burke, where a delightful afternoon was spent playing bridge. Mrs. Mabel Maxwell was high scorer, with Lillian Bechdold second high. Present besides these and the hostess were Mrs. Lola Horn, Mrs. Noma Bechdold, Mrs. Daisy Cox, Mrs. Mary Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and family, Mrs. A. Shadler and son, and E. H. Cox spent Sunday in Lakeview.

Mrs. Dorothy Eyres and son spent a few days in Bonanza, where she visited with Mrs. Mary Dixon and other friends. Mrs. Dixon returned with her to Grants Pass, where she plans on visiting at the Eyres home and with her daughter, Mrs. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Smith of Jacksonville, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cox and family.

Mrs. Daisy Cox and Mrs. Mary Dearborn spent the day in Klamath Falls where they attended a district meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

Dick Pepple has been home on furlough from the Pacific where he has seen service with the navy. Lloyd Pepple is also visiting here with his brother, Owen Pepple and family. Pepple has just returned from overseas where he was a prisoner in a Jap prison camp.

Mrs. Fried has left for California where she will visit a son who is hospitalized there.

The parents in the Bonanza and joining communities are invited to attend open house and meet the teachers at the new Bonanza high school the evening of November 16.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Armstrong of Junction City were here for a month visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Everett Sparks and family.

Merrill

The Moosehaven committee of the Women of the Moose, Merrill chapter No. 18, asks that those planning to contribute Christmas gifts for the home for elderly people see that they are taken to the next regular meeting, November 20, or leave them with either Mrs. Don Barnes or Mrs. Ithel Chapman, Merrill. No breakable gifts should be contributed since shipment is to the east coast.

Officers who will serve during the coming year in the Rebekah lodge will be elected at the next meeting which will include also initiation of new members. Members are asked to remember that meetings now start at 7:30 p. m. instead of 8 o'clock.

The Merrill lodge has been asked for a cash donation for the Christmas party to be held at the Multnomah Odd Fellows' home.

Mrs. Hazel Dalton was chairman for the entertainment committee at the last meeting when the Halloween theme was carried out. The birthday committee headed by Mrs. Pearl Moore will be in charge at the next meeting.

Gladys Pearl Harris has been accepted to membership by transfer.

PRISONER'S HEAVEN

WELLCVILLE, Kas., Nov. 15 (AP)—Everybody in town knows "Bus" Bell—Pvt. Francis E. Bell, 31-year-old liberated prisoner of war. And one of the things they remember about him is that Bus likes to eat.

He had slim pickings for three years in a Tokyo prison camp, and he's due back home tomorrow. The folks in Wellsville are all going to turn out to greet him with a special sort of celebration. Everybody in town will bring home cooking to a big basket dinner at the city hall . . . And Bus will be the first one in line.

Malin Dinner

MALIN—Honoring their son-in-law, Lt. (jg) Theodore W. Knight, USNR, Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Herringshaw of Malin entertained at a dinner Sunday, November 4. Lt. Knight is now stationed at Treasure Island. His wife, Gladys, is in Deshler, Ohio, where she teaches school.

Among the dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herringshaw's nine sons, John, Arthur, Albert and his three sons, Dale, Jim, Norman, Howard, Tommy, Bob and his fiancée, Virginia Cunningham of Klamath Falls. John was stationed in the Pacific 52 months. Two years ago he married Abbie Reynolds, who was private secretary to Col. James Mahaffy of the chemical warfare division of the Hawaiian department. Herringshaw returned to the United States, where his wife joined him in March and received his discharge in June of this year. Arthur was in the air corps until his recent medical discharge.

Two other children, Ora Herringshaw and Mrs. Edna Foltz, are living in Ohio.

Merrill Club

MERRILL—Mrs. A. J. King has accepted the chairmanship of arrangements for the annual Library club Christmas party to be an event of December 6 in the Odd Fellows hall. Co-chairman will be Mrs. Roy McNeill, assisted by Mrs. J. Leland Pope, Mrs. Randall Pope, Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Mrs. George Hancock, Mrs. O. V. Reeves, Mrs. Gene Hill and Mrs. Warren Fruits. Planning for the program will be Mrs. C. E. Sharp and Mrs. Scott McKendree.

Plans include a potluck luncheon at one o'clock followed by a gift exchange from the tree, the program numbers and election of officers. Gifts are not to exceed 50 cents.

Committee appointments were made by Mrs. Riley DeLap, president.

The Japanese tragic theatre dates from the 14th or early 15th century. Only men are permitted to take part.

CITY CENTER SERVICE

Leave Your Car for Repair or Service and be only one block from the city shopping center—

BRING YOUR OLDS HOME

We Have A New Shipment of Pre-War Bumper Jacks

DICK B. MILLER CO.

Olds Tower Phone 4103

DR. BYRON FRIEDMAN, optometrist

THERE'S BEAUTY IN EYES THAT ARE RECEIVING PROPER CARE!

Eyes that squint and strain because of faulty vision can't be beautiful eyes! You can do yourself and your eyes a good turn by seeing to it that your vision is receiving the assistance it needs . . . with "Standard" guaranteed glasses. See the experienced, registered optometrist at your nearby Standard Optical office . . . He will tell you frankly if glasses are not needed.

Stylish, Guaranteed Glasses
CREATED by CRAFTSMEN

Standard Optical Company

The West's Largest Manufacturing and Dispensing Opticians

715 Main St. in Klamath Falls

American Education Week

Visit Your Schools

NOVEMBER 11-17

We are proud of our schools. We think that every parent and citizen should visit the schools during this observance.

Our teachers have made special plans so that we can see our schools in action.

Postwar America will be filled with opportunities—and problems. Our children need the best possible preparation. The best way we can help them is to see that they get the best possible education.

Shaw Stationery Co.

729 Main St. Phone 5602