

DE GAULLE TO QUIT JOB AS FRENCH CHIEF

PARIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Gen. De Gaulle's office announced today he had decided to resign as interim president of France because of a deadlock with communists over formation of a government, but frantic negotiations in the capital indicated a last minute effort was being made to prevent the general's retirement.

PARIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Gen. De Gaulle's office announced today that the general had decided to resign as interim president of France because of his inability to compromise differences with the communist party and form a coalition government.

De Gaulle's decision grew out of a demand of the communist party, most important single political group in the newly elected constituent assembly, for key cabinet posts in the proposed three-party coalition government.

De Gaulle was elected unanimously by the constituent assembly Tuesday to serve as president during the creation of the fourth republic. The general then shed his uniform for civilian clothing.

Wins Control
He became head of the Free French movement after escaping from his homeland to London in mid-June, 1940, and won undisputed control of the French committee of national liberation in Algiers in November, 1943, when Gen. Henri Giraud resigned as its co-president after a bitter dispute with De Gaulle over the composition of the administration.

The deadlock developed when the communists in two letters to De Gaulle said their price of participation in the government coalition alongside the socialists and popular republican movement was one of the "three big ministries"—foreign affairs, interior or war.

The first letter said De Gaulle's reasons for refusing to grant them one of these posts "cast doubt on the national character of our party and its policy.

De Gaulle's letter announcing his decision to resign was expected to be placed in the hands of Felix Gouin, president of the assembly, this evening. The assembly will be convoked tomorrow to hear the resignation and to act on it—either to reject it or accept it and elect a new president.

Try Hot Water Plus If Stomach Pains You after Eating--

Thousands of unfortunate people suffer from so-called dyspepsia, acid indigestion, food fermentation, sour stomach, acid stomach, flatulence, gas pains and other stomach distress brought on by excess acid.

If these people would try drinking slowly after each meal half a glass of real hot water containing a spoonful of Neutracid, they can usually get blessed relief from distress within a very few minutes.

Neutracid will quickly help to neutralize this excess acid, and thus help more rapid digestion. You get quick relief from the acute distress and discomfort.

News PTA Notes

ROOSEVELT

The Roosevelt PTA will meet Tuesday, November 20 in the school auditorium at 2:30 o'clock.

The opening exercises will be a short Thanksgiving play given by all the children in Miss Pease's second and third grade class.

Frank Jenkins will be guest speaker.

The Camp Fire Girls will be in the girl's gymnasium to take care of the younger children.

Tea will be served at the close of the meeting with mothers of the two first grades as hostesses.

Mrs. George Goehring is chairman.

MILLS

The Mills school championship football team was introduced by the principal, Verne Speirs, at the Mills PTA meeting Wednesday afternoon. The team enjoyed refreshments of hot dogs, pumpkin pie and spiced cider at a special table decorated with the school colors, footballs and football autograph place cards.

Many parents visited the rooms during the day and there was a large attendance at the meeting which was opened by the president, Mrs. M. F. Shreeve. The flag salute was led by Nancy Lambo and the singing of "America the Beautiful" was led by Mrs. Hunt.

The Girl Scout troops, No. 3 and 4, whose leaders are Miss Kopta and Mrs. Frank Lambo, presented three singing games to earn their badges. The games were, "Sourwood Mountains," "The Paw-Paw Patch" and "Virginia Reel." They were accompanied on the piano by Irene Bullard, Nancy Lambo and Miss Record.

The guest speaker, Mrs. R. W. Stearns, gave a very interesting and enlightening talk on "Trends in Education." The room roll call was won by Mrs. Reno's room.

GILCHRIST

The Gilchrist Parent-Teacher association met following a talk last Wednesday on "How To Dress With Taste," by Winnifred Gillen, Klamath county home demonstration agent. At this meeting it was voted to purchase a room prize for the room bringing in the highest attendance each month at meetings regardless of whether the guest was a member or not. This is to be a nice flag on a standard with the American eagle at the top. Growth and community interest is to be stressed this year rather than any particular school project.

The next meeting will be the regular Christmas program sometime in December and the children and faculty are already busy working to make this program the best Gilchrist has ever had.
