

US Demands Punishment of Hitler Aides

By DANIEL DE LUCE
NUERNBERG, Nov. 23 (AP)—Punishment of 20 of Hitler's top aides was demanded today by the United States on charges of spreading the "atrocious doctrine" of aggressive warfare in a plot to murder millions throughout the world.

American prosecutors told the international war crimes tribunal that the main case against the Nazi leaders would rest on "10 documents never before revealed."

Attempts to introduce the surprise documents brought a storm of protest, however, from German defense counsel. The session was adjourned for the day to permit study by lawyers for the accused Nazis.

Heart of the Case
Emphasizing the hopes of allied nations that the charter of the international military tribunal outlawing aggressive war would open a new era of peace, Assistant U. S. Prosecutor Sidney S. Alderman said punishment of the Nazis for planning world conflict was "the heart of the case."

Heads of the vast Krupp steel empire and the I. G. Farben Chemical Trust Assistant Prosecutor Thomas Dodd charged, agreed to finance the Nazi party as an antidote to communism and later cooperated in a secret rearmament program.

Defendant Hjalmar Schacht was red-faced as he heard himself described from German documents as the financial wizard who was secretly appointed as "plenipotentiary for war economy" in 1933 and won the praise of a Reich general as "the man who made reconstruction of the German army economically possible."

Raised Funds
The head of the great Krupp works, Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach—who was indicted but thus far has escaped trial because of illness—was shown by German records, Dodd asserted, to have aided in raising campaign funds for Hitler in 1933 and to have declared after Hitler's ascension to power that German industry "puts itself at your disposal."

Goering Says: 'Not Guilty'

Hermann Goering, Reichsmarschall of fallen Germany, wearing a military uniform, standing in the prisoner's box in the Nuernberg, Germany, courtroom to plead not guilty to crimes of war charged to him in an International Military Tribunal indictment. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Nuernberg).

denied earlier that he participated in the Hitler cabinet meetings that planned the Nazi flood of aggression.

With the prosecution's attack on Germany's industrial and financial leaders, Dr. Rudolf Dix, Schacht's counsel, declared at a recess that he was considering summoning American businessmen as witnesses for the defense.

Dodd linked German industrial leaders and Schacht, former Reichsbank president, directly to the Nazi party even before the election which resulted in Hitler becoming Reichschancellor in 1933 with an affidavit from George von Schnitzler of the I. G. Farben firm.

Schnitzler said that Schacht "acted as kind of a host at a meeting in February, 1933, of Hitler, Krupp, Albert Vogler, chief of the steel combine, and other industrialists."

Hitler warned the industrialists of the dangers of communism, Schnitzler's affidavit declared, and after the Nazi leader left the room "Schacht proposed to the meeting the raising of an election fund, as far as I remember, of 3,000,000 Reichsmarks."

Schacht, who protested in a recent interview that he had little to do with German rearmament, listened earnestly and jotted down notes as the affidavit and other documents were introduced.

Conference Set In Pulp Dispute

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23 (AP)—Pulp and paper workers on the Pacific coast, who voted to reject a war labor board decision, will attempt to solve the wage dispute via the conference table.

Russell Drummond, international vice president of the AFL Brotherhood of Paper Makers, said a conference with employers probably will be held here soon.

The WLB turned down a union demand for 20 per cent wage increases, refused earlier by the Pacific coast association of pulp and paper manufacturers.
