

every sickness that shows signs of getting chronic. That is already plain enough to be accepted as a TREND.

IN Europe, we're doing a lot of feeding of hungry people—as we should. Starving people JUST DON'T REASON. They ACT. Their actions are apt to be unpleasant.

Meanwhile a U. S. army warehouse in Japan is broken into by rioting, hungry Japs—who have otherwise been docile. Starvation is one thing no-

Janitor Writes To His Honor

PORTLAND, Nov. 23 (AP)—Municipal Judge John B. Seabrook found a note on his bench when he opened court today. It said:

"Your Honor, I have had complaints about the bench being dirty. Will you please pick up your desk as I have a lot of work to do and my time is limited. Thanks a lot. The Janitor." Seabrook wrote a note back and said he would.
