

Ethel Mae Dixon Bride In Rites

In a ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill at Mt. Laki Saturday, November 17, Ethel Mae Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon of Henley became the bride of Ronald Edward Whitlatch, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Whitlatch of Henley.

The service was read at 2 o'clock by Dr. David Ferguson of Merrill before a fireplace banked with pine boughs and cones and large bouquets of white chrysanthemums. White tapers in crystal holders were on the mantle.

Preceding the ceremony, Donna Dixon, sister of the bride, played Liebestraum on the piano. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bride entered the room on the arm of her father. She wore an egg-shell crepe afternoon frock with gold embroidery and red and blue bead trim. Her hat was of gold sequins with a large veil and she wore a corsage of Talisman roses, bouvardia, and forget-me-nots.

Dorothy Dixon of Eugene was maid of honor for her sister. Her frock was of slate blue crepe. She wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

Best man was Roy Whitlatch, cousin of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dixon chose an aqua frock with black accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias and American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Whitlatch, the bridegroom's aunt, wore a navy blue frock with a corsage of white gardenias and American Beauty roses.

The young couple cut the bride's cake, and Mrs. Bond, Miss Thompson, and Mrs. Hill served at the reception.

The bride chose her parent's thirty-fourth wedding anniversary for her wedding day.

For traveling, Mrs. Whitlatch wore a teal blue wool frock with black accessories.

The bride, a graduate of Henley high school and the University of Oregon, is now a member of the University of Nevada teaching staff.

The bridegroom was also graduated from Henley high school and attended the University of Oregon. He served with the army overseas for two years and returned to his home in October from France.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitlatch left for California, and will make their home in Reno, Nevada, while Mrs. Whitlatch is teaching.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dixon and son, Philip, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Whitlatch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fleming, Mrs. Estella Hill, Miss Jean Thompson, Miss Dorothy Dixon, Eric Fleming, Donna Dixon, Richard Hill, Robert Hill, and Jeanie Hill.

The nomination committee made its report and action upon its recommendation. Mrs. Revell was elected president for 1946; Mrs. W. C. Little will again be vice president and Mrs. William Larson was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Announcement was made of the entertainment to be given by the Junior Circle on December 7, to which all are invited. There is to be a one-act play, musical numbers, and a white elephant auction sale which promises to be very interesting and enjoyable.

Those who attended during the afternoon were Mrs. W. C. Little and her grandson, Glenn Marin; Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Fritz Vance, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. White-man, Mrs. Revell, Mrs. Rollie Berry, Mrs. William Larson, Miss Eckstein, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. S. R. Berry, Mrs. E. G. Matthews, Mrs. Lee Sutton and Mrs. Godfrey Matthews.

The meeting December 21 will be a Christmas party with gift exchange, and the complete plans will be announced later.

§ § §
Shower Guest

Mrs. Ila Douglas and Mrs. Harriet Ezell were hostesses at a stork shower given in honor of Mrs. C. D. Ewing at the home of Mrs. Douglas, 3232 Home-dale road, Monday, November 12.

Pinochle and bingo were played during the evening with Mrs. Arthur R. Millard winning high score and Mrs. Pat Ridenour receiving low.

Refreshments were served later in the evening to Mrs. Arthur R. Millard, Mrs. A. E. Millard, Mrs. Jack Evans, Mrs. J. M. Webb, Mrs. L. C. Ewing, Mrs. Merrill Kious, Mrs. Sarah Swift, Mrs. Meredith Ezell, Mrs. Pat Ridenour, Mrs. Bernice McCracken, Mrs. Melvin Buell, Mrs. C. D. Ewing, the honor guest, and the hostesses, Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Ezell.

Gifts were also sent by Mrs. Linna Peterson, Mrs. W. C. Ezell, Allan Ezell, Mrs. Ray Roberts, Mrs. E. E. Kious, Mrs. Irwin Ewing, Mrs. George Ashcraft, Mrs. Perry Ashcraft, Mrs. Ed Poppe, and Mrs. Noel Turner.

§ § §
BPW Meets

At the Monday evening meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, November 26, Frank Jenkins, publisher of The Herald-News, will give an informal talk on his impressions of postwar Europe and experience during a stay of several weeks in England and on the continent.

Dena Backes, chairman of the education committee, is in charge of the evening's program, assisted by members of her committee. Dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock.

There will be a special table where members of BPW may purchase additional bonds in the Victory drive, according to announcement by President Hazel Morrison, and those attending are urged to come prepared to purchase at least another bond.

Lorraine Quillen, chairman of ticket sales for the Inter-club dinner on December 6, stated that she will have tickets available for members of the club.

The Edith Canning Book club of BPW will hold its regular November meeting on Tuesday evening, the 27th, at the home of Catherine Brumbaugh near Olene.

§ § §
Lila Hunt, chairman of the library committee, presented her chapter night program at the meeting of the Women of the Moose, held in the Moose hall Tuesday evening, and one of its features was an acrobatic dance performed by two children, Allen and Sandra, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pemberton of 228½ Martin. In the absence of Ninon Nyback, senior regent, Agnes Vasak, junior regent, was in charge of the business meeting, and there was a good attendance. Ruby Phelps was chairman of the refreshment committee for the evening.

§ § §
Eureka Vacuum Cleaners Are Here!

Come and See Them

MERIT'S

RETAIL STORE

609 S. 6th St. Phone 6989

A BRIDE IN WHITE SATIN was Marguerite Fagley of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, who became Mrs. Arthur Thivierge in a ceremony at the Marine Barracks. Left to right, Colonel Brooks who gave the bride away, Marjorie Ongman, maid of honor, PFC and Mrs. Thivierge, Lt. Comdr. Graham C. Gilmer, post chaplain, and PFC Arthur Pensky, best man.

—Official USMC photo.

Vows Exchanged At Sacred Heart

Before an altar decked with palms and chrysanthemums, Frances Bianchi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martino Bianchi, of Pelican City, became the bride of August P. Gonnella of Occidental, California, in a 1 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon, November 18, at Sacred Heart church.

The bride wore the traditional white gown with a white satin bodice and a net and satin skirt and train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a net cap. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The maid of honor, Corinna Babbini, wore a yellow formal, and carried pink and white carnations caught with yellow ribbons.

The bride's other attendants, Evelyn Paup and Gloria Card, wore pink gowns and carried pink and white carnations. The flower girl, Joyce Pretari, carried a nosegay of pink carnations and roses, and forget-me-nots with pink and blue ribbons. Her dress was pink and blue. She wore a crown of white carnations and a white net veil.

The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Anselmo Gonnella, also of Occidental. Ushers were Earl Wisecarver and Darrell Scripser.

A reception, attended by a party of 80 friends of the young couple, was held after the ceremony at Lakeshore Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gonnella will make their home in Monte Rio, Calif.

Housewarming

A group of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Wright with a housewarming Saturday night, November 17. Guests brought refreshments as well as many household gifts.

Those present were Mrs. Stella Bowne, Mabel Humble, Mrs. Jean Porter, Mr. and Mrs. David Cavallin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Olson and Mrs. Harold Ashley.

Mr. Wright has recently been discharged from the marine corps and is now employed at Fluhrer's bakery. Mr. and Mrs. Wright are at home to friends at 2124 Eberlein street. Mrs. Wright formerly was Dea Jean Hardy.

The couple, was held after the ceremony at Lakeshore Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gonnella will make their home in Monte Rio, Calif.

Kappa Chapter Meets At Banquet

The formal initiation and banquet of Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the blue room of the Willard hotel.

The ceremonial table was centered with yellow roses and tapers.

Miss Elenora Weatherford conducted the initiation, assisted by Mrs. Howard Pernel and Mrs. Verne Whitlatch.

Pledge pins were presented to Martha Keller, Phyllis White, Barbara Nyhart, and Audrey Buckley.

The banquet tables were decorated with fall flowers and mirrored place cards. Mrs. Jewel Cantrall sang "Your Song from Paradise," accompanied by Marie Obenchain.

President Elenora Weatherford introduced Mrs. Howard Listoe, Kappa chapter sponsor, who gave the creed to pledge. Mrs. Listoe was given a gift of appreciation by the chapter. It was presented to her by Mrs. Whitlatch. Later in the evening the group sang sorority songs.

The committee in charge of the banquet included Mrs. Kay Kaler, Mrs. William Milne, and Mrs. James Crapo.

Members attending the banquet were Mrs. Verne Whitlatch, Mrs. James Crapo, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. J. G. Charon, Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. Ernel Hosley, Mrs. Lloyd Drew, Mrs. Don Divens, Mrs. Howard Pernel, Mrs. Kay Kaler, Elenora Weatherford, and Betty Zirkle.

§ § §
Past Oracles

The Past Oracles of the Royal Neighbors of America entertained with their annual turkey dinner Sunday evening, November 18, at the KC hall.

The tables were decorated in an autumn theme.

After dinner the evening was spent playing cards. High award was won by Anna McCormack. Traveling award went to Tom Blake.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pauley, Mr. and Mrs. Van Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Killian, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Faris, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helfer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blake, Martha Baker, Anna Woolever, Jennie Wright, and Mary Harrison of Portland.

THIS SMILING fellow is Fred S. M. Gunton, young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gunton, 308 Lytton street, whose second birthday was celebrated November 1.

—Kennell-Ellis

DANNY KAYE IN "WONDER MAN" in Technicolor

"Don't, dear—if you pick it up you'll lose your place in line . . . Sunday at the Esquire and Tower Theatres!"

Masses of Jewelry

Up to your neck . . . up to your elbows in jumbles and jumbles of jewelry . . . that's the latest Fall fashion! Not for centuries have women worn such masses of bulky strands, clips and bracelets. Come in and see our treasure trove of twisted gold and silver chains and bands, many strand necklaces of colored beads and simulated pearls, huge clips and pins and bracelets.

$2 to $65

LaPointe's

