

AAUW November Meeting Held

The American Association of University Women met last Saturday, November 17, at 2 o'clock for their regular meeting in the library club room.

Mrs. Paul Angstead introduced the speaker, Frank Jenkins, publisher of The Herald and News, who spoke on his recent experiences in Europe.

Lloyd Williamson, accompanied by Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt, sang three numbers, "Rose in the Bud," "Kashmir" and "After."

Tea was served following the program at a prettily appointed table. Mrs. Louis H. Mann and Mrs. Samuel A. Mussen poured and members of the tea committee were Eva Burkhalter, chairman; Mrs. Genevieve Oppen, Mrs. John Kerns and Orpha Hudson.

Plans were made for the Inter-club dinner at which time the AAUW group will join with other women's groups in the city on December 6, at the Willard. Klamath chapter of AAUW will handle decorations for the affair. Mrs. Harold Teale is chairman of this committee assisted by Mrs. A. B. Hood and Mrs. Hans Norland.

Members will be called by Mrs. L. Orth Sismore concerning reservations for the Inter-club dinner. Tickets will be given at the door. It will be an open meeting and guests and friends are invited.

The AAUW Christmas party will be held December 18 at the Pelican party room. Mrs. John Merryman is the chairman for the party. Members are asked to call Mrs. Sismore if they are not contacted.

At the USO, December 9, the AAUW will serve at a buffet table. Details of this event will be announced later.

Things that come from the country are always better as friends are invited to visit the country store, one of the special booths being sponsored by the First Christian church ladies at their general Christmas bazaar, Saturday, December 1.

Mrs. J. H. Hunter is in charge, with Mrs. Raymond H. Bigger, Mrs. Minnie Schooler, and Mrs. Margaret Jacobsen assisting.

Everyone likes good homemade candy. Mrs. A. Curtis Stockstill and Mrs. Frank Fortna will officiate behind the "sweets" table.

There will be aprons which make useful Christmas gifts. Mrs. Dale Mattoon suggests you take early advantage of these items.

Tea towels and other embroidery work will be displayed at Mrs. Paul Hilton's special bazaar table. She will also supervise the sale of cooked foods.

Gifts for children have not been forgotten and there will be something for them too, according to Mrs. Louise Cross, attendant in charge of this department.

The novelty table will display various gifts that are useful as well as ornamental.

Customers will be able to buy fresh hot rolls from the kitchen made by Mrs. O. H. Carapbell and Mrs. George Wirtz.

Mrs. Ray Michels and Mrs. George Fawver honored Viola Hicks, bride-elect, with a special shower Friday evening at the Michels home, 740 California avenue.

Miss Hicks will wed Elvin Cheyne, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cheyne of the Spring Lake district, on December 2. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hicks of Bonanza.

Following an informal evening, gifts were presented the honor guest and later coffee was served to Miss Hicks, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. E. L. Campbell, Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. I. E. Campbell, Mrs. Ada Arant, Mrs. Lorin Sewell, Mrs. B. M. Hicks, Mrs. B. W. Prinsen, Mrs. Charles Drew, Jr., Mrs. A. B. Cheyne, Mrs. Joseph Horsley, Willia Mae Randall, Mrs. Fred Rueck, Mrs. Z. W.
