

Baptist Young People To Attend District Rally

The Immanuel Baptist church and the Bible Baptist church have chartered a Greyhound bus to take delegates from their people's groups to the Baptist Young People's district rally in Ashland this weekend.

Young people from the Baptist churches of Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, Brookings, Merlin, Selma and the two Baptist churches of Klamath Falls will be on hand for the first district rally since Pearl Harbor.

The rally begins Saturday evening with a banquet at 6:15, followed by the election of officers, then an inspirational address by the Rev. Thomas L. Kilpatrick, pastor of the Grants Pass Baptist church.

Advent Season Sermons Set

The first of a series of sermons on the meaning of the Advent season will be preached at Community Congregational church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by the minister, the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, entitled, "What Hope Is There Now for the Sons of Men?" Mrs. Sam Ackerman will sing the solo, "The Good Shepherd," by Van der Water, and the choir will sing the hymn, "We Thank Thee, Lord," by Carl Lauer.

At 8 o'clock in the evening the Comrades of the Way meet under the presidency of Lois Larson.

At 8 p. m., a candlelight communion service will be conducted by the minister.

On Friday night, December 7, at 8 o'clock, the Junior circle will present an evening of music, dramatics, and a fun-fest white elephant sale. Mrs. F. L. Van Doozer is president of the society and general chairman of the event. The public is cordially invited to be present at the community hall adjoining the church.

Bowdoin Will Give Sermon

Joseph A. Bowdoin, Sunday school superintendent and deacon in the Bible Baptist church, will bring the message at the morning service in the absence of the pastor, Keith P. Fields, who will be attending the Baptist Young People's district rally in Ashland with a group of his young people.

The evening service will feature the testimonies of the young people who will have just returned from the district rally in Ashland.

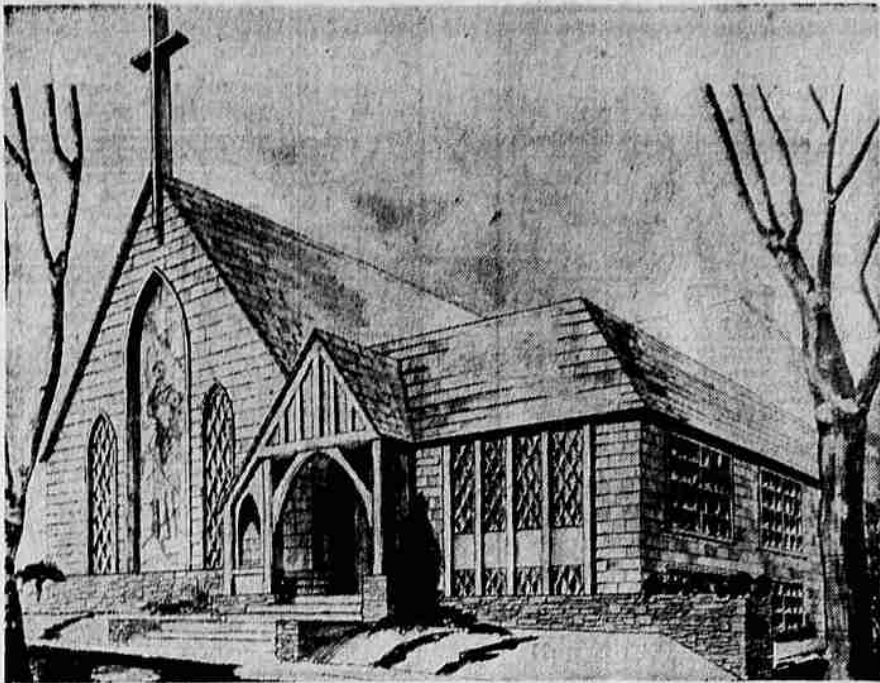

A candlelight communion service will close the worship of the day.

Rev. Pounds To Talk At Nazarene Church

Rev. Earl C. Pounds of Portland, for several years district superintendent of the North Dakota district, Church of the Nazarene, will be the speaker at the Church of the Nazarene in this city, Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Rev. Mr. Bertrand Peterson invites all to hear the speaker. The church is located at Garden and Martin.

Proposed Plans For St. Paul's Church

Members of St. Paul's Episcopal church, corner of 8th and Jefferson, are anticipating proposed alterations and additions to the church building as shown in the architect's drawing above. Work on the building, at an estimated cost of $12,000, will start soon after the first of the year, according to the pastor, the Rev. F. C. Wissenbach. The entrance will be changed and will be included in the enlarged parish house. Folding doors will enable the church proper to seat many more persons especially needed during Christmas and Easter seasons. Kitchen facilities will be enlarged, there will be a new sacristy and study and two offices are included in the basement plans. Howard R. Perrin is the architect.

Klamath Lutheran Church Slates Second Annual "Every Member Canvass" Sunday

Klamath Lutheran church, Cross and Crescent, S. M. Topness, pastor, will have its second annual every member canvass Sunday, December 2.

All members and friends are invited to attend the morning worship at 11 o'clock. The workers who are to conduct the visitation will attend the worship in a body and will be consecrated to their task by the pastor. The senior choir, under the direction of O. K. Warcup, will sing "How Excellent Is Thy Name," by Uggem.

In the afternoon the 26 workers in teams of two will visit every home in the congregation to solicit financial pledges for the work of the church in 1948. Members are requested to remain at home until visited by one of the teams. The Ladies' Aid will serve a free supper to the workers at the church at 6:30 p. m., after which reports will be given and results tabulated.

The Luther league will meet Tuesday, December 4, at 7:30 p. m. The group, co-captained by LeRoy Overen and Marilyn Olson, will be in charge of the program which will be on the "Pocket Testament League." This will be followed by games and refreshments.

The annual turkey dinner and bazaar will be held on Thursday, December 6. Serving begins at 5:30. Useful and fancy articles, including aprons, towels and lunch cloths, will be on sale.

Dr. Brown Will Give Lectures

Dr. Arthur I. Brown, world famed surgeon, scientist, lecturer, author and gospel preacher, will give a series of lectures on the miracles of science at the Immanuel Baptist church, N. 11th and High, from December 4 to 16, every evening except Saturday at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Brown's training under some of the world's great evolutionary teachers, notably Sir Arthur Keith of London, Eng., has made him familiar with the subject to which he devotes special attention. He has earned the highest surgical degree in the world, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh, and has a background which makes his addresses most convincing. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Lake Grove War Vet Seeks Mott Vacancy

PORTLAND, Nov. 30 (AP)—Competition for the congressional seat vacated by death of Rep. James W. Mott grew livelier today with announcement of another candidate—Capt. R. I. Conn, Lake Grove, 41st division veteran.

Conn, 1939 Oregon State college graduate, said he would like republican backing but, even without it, would enter the January 11 special election. Now on terminal leave after four years' army service, the 30-year-old officer formerly was associate supervisor for the farm security administration.
